

MONTANA SUPREME COURT

COURT HELP PROGRAM

Assisting Self Represented Litigants with Access to Montana Legal Resources and Information.

The Court Help Program is an initiative of the Montana Supreme Court designed to assist people with civil (non-criminal) legal problems.

The Court Help Program cannot give you legal advice or represent you in court. The goal of the program is to provide the information you need to understand your legal rights and responsibilities and to help you resolve legal problems on your own. Self Help Law Centers are located throughout the state to provide you with information and direct you to resources that will help you help yourself.

The Court Help Program of the Judicial Branch provides reasonable accommodations and modifications for any known disability that may interfere with a person's ability to participate in or receive services from the Self Help Law Center. Individuals needing a reasonable accommodation or modification should notify the Self Help Law Center staff in person or call the Program Administrator as soon as possible to allow enough time to make arrangements. To make your request, you can call (406) 841-2975 or through the Montana Relay Service 711-841-2975.
