MASTER'S REPORT

The claims in this case appeared in the 43P Interlocutory Decree with issue remarks and/or objections. Most of the issue remarks and objections were as follows:

THIS CLAIM NUMBER WAS NOT INCLUDED IN THE BASIN 43P DECREE ISSUED 01/25/2016.

THE PRIORITY DATE MAY BE QUESTIONABLE. IT IS UNCLEAR WHETHER THE CLAIMED PRIORITY DATE IS 1868 OR 1963.

THE CLAIMED VOLUME APPEARS TO BE EXCESSIVE FOR THE CLAIMED PURPOSE.

The United States of America Bureau of Indian Affairs ("BIA") objected to these claims. Sunlight Ranch Co. also objected to some of the claims and they were then consolidated into Case 43P-0008-I-2024.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. On December 19, 2024 Scott Ranch LLC (Scott Ranch), Sunlight Ranch Co., and BIA filed the first Stipulation¹ resolving the Objections and the DNRC issue remarks on all claims except 43P 30116875.

2. On January 17, 2025, Scott Ranch and BIA filed a Second Stipulation to resolve objections to claim 43P 30116875.

3. The Second Stipulation did not address the issue remark on claim 43P 30116875 stating:

THIS CLAIM DOES NOT APPEAR TO MEET THE DEFINITION OF AN EXEMPT RIGHT UNDER SECTION 85-2-222(1).

4. The Court requested additional information to resolve this issue remark. On March 11, 2025, Scott Ranch filed an argument stating that the issue remark should be removed.

¹ The Stipulation and all other case documents are viewable in the Water Court's FullCourt Enterprise case management system.

5. Neither BIA nor Sunlight Ranch Co. responded to Scott Ranch's March 11, 2025 filing.

FIRST STIPULATION

6. All claims in this case are located on lands formerly allotted to individual members of the Crow Tribe. Those lands left trust status at various times in the twentieth century. The underlying property associated with these water rights has been used continuously for livestock grazing since leaving trust.

7. The following claims should be Reserved Walton Rights with a priority date of May 7, 1868:

43P	30116872	43P	30116890	43P	30116908

8. Two of these claims have fractioned interest between Scott Ranch and BIA. Parties request the following remark be added to claim 43P 30116887:

The Claimant holds in fee an undivided fractionated interest in the POD/POU that is the following fraction: 23/24. Of the remaining undivided interests in the land, 1/24 is held by the United States in trust for either the Crow Tribe or one or more allottees or both the Tribe and allottees. This water right provides the Claimant with a proportional right to an amount of water that is proportional to the interest Claimant holds in the POD/POU.

Any attempt by any owner of any undivided fractional interest to exercise separate control of the above right is subject to federal law and regulations.

9. Parties request the following remark be added to claim 43P 30116903:

The Claimant holds in fee an undivided fractionated interest in the POD/POU that is the following fraction: 125/126. Of the remaining undivided interests in the land, 1/126 is held by the United States in trust for either the Crow Tribe or one or more allottees or both the Tribe and allottees. This water right provides the Claimant with a proportional right to an amount of water that is proportional to the interest Claimant holds in the POD/POU.

Any attempt by any owner of any undivided fractional interest to exercise separate control of the above right is subject to federal law and regulations.

10. The parties further stipulate to reduce the volume of several claims as follows:

43P 30116872 to 4 AFY

43P 30116873 to 2.13 AFY

43P 30116874 to 6.5 AFY

43P 30116876 to 6.5 AFY

43P 30116877 to 1.5 AFY

11. The parties stipulate claim 43P 30116891 should be changed as follows:

SOURCE: GROUNDWATER

POINT OF DIVERSION: SWSESW section 22, T5S, R28E

12. The parties stipulate claim 43P 30116879 should be changed as follows:

POINT OF DIVERSION: SESWSE section 19, T5S, R28E

PLACE OF USE: SESWSE section 19, T5S, R28E

CLAIM 43P 30116875

13. Claim 43P 30116875 is a domestic claim from Push Creek.

14. It is located in the W2W2W2 Sec. 22, Twp. 5S, Rge. 28E. Previous owner Thor Lande constructed numerous improvements to Sec. 22 including installing a pump in Push Creek which pumped water through a pipeline to water approximately 5 acres of domestic lawn and serve as a fire barrier.

15. Thor Lande died on January 4, 1997. In 2006, Section 22 was removed from trust, and fee patents were issued to the Ranch Property Trust. In 2009, after renting Section 22 from the Ranch Property Trust for several years, Jim Scott and Marcie Scott, husband and wife, formed Scott Ranch LLC, a Montana Limited Liability Company with the intent to purchase Section 22. Scott Ranch then entered into a contract for deed for Section 22 with the Ranch Property Trust in 2010. In 2016, Scott Ranch obtained title to Section 22, via a warranty deed. Jim Scott, and Marcie Scott are not members of the Crow Tribe of Indians.

16. Scott Ranch originally petitioned the Water Court in 2016 for adjudication of existing water rights appurtenant to the lands.

17. In Scott Ranch 2017 MT 230, the Montana Supreme Court found “Scott Ranch’s Walton rights arose out of the transfer of land from a tribal allottee, not out of the Crow Compact. Under the terms of the Crow Compact itself, a “water right held by a nonmember of the Tribe on land not held in trust by the United States for the Tribe or a Tribal member” is a right “Recognized Under State Law.” Section 85-20-901, Art. II.19, MCA. Scott Ranch is a “nonmember” of the Crow Tribe, and the lands it acquired are “not held in trust by the United States.” Section 85-20-901, Art. II.19, MCA. Scott Ranch’s claims are recognized under state law and are not part of the Tribal Water Right under the Crow Compact.” Scott Ranch, ¶17.

18. The Montana Supreme Court stated that Scott Ranch’s exempt claims were subject to the filing deadlines established in Montana Code Annotated (“MCA”) Section 85-2-222.

19. Section 85-2-222, MCA, defines exempt rights as “those claims for existing rights for livestock and individual uses as opposed to municipal domestic uses based upon instream flow or ground water sources...”

20. Scott Ranch argues that the DNRC wrongly narrows instream use by eliminating development of a project to use instream flow for a beneficial use.

21. Further, Scott Ranch argues nothing in the statute specifically prohibits improvements to the direct flow such as pumps and pipelines.

22. The DNRC 2013 Claims Examination Manual defines exempt claims as

“Exempt Water Right” means an existing water right for which a statement of claim did not have to be filed pursuant to §85-2-222, MCA. This includes 1) domestic use based on instream use with no man-made diversion, 2) domestic use based on a groundwater source, 3) stockwater based on instream use with no man-made diversion, 4) stockwater use based on a groundwater source, 5) appropriations of groundwater put to use between January 1, 1962 and July 1, 1973 with a notice filed under the 1961 Ground Water Code.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. Section 85-2-248(2), MCA requires the Water Court to resolve all issue remarks that are not resolved through the objection process. When resolving issue remarks, the Water Court must weigh the information resulting in the issue remark and the issue remark against the claimed water right. Section 85-2-247(2), MCA.

FIRST STIPULATION

2. A properly filed Statement of Claim for Existing Water Right is prima facie proof of its content. Section 85-2-227, MCA. This prima facie proof may be contradicted and overcome by other evidence that proves, by a preponderance of the evidence, that an element of the prima facie claim is incorrect. This is the burden of proof for every assertion that a claim is incorrect. Rule 19, W.R.Adj.R.

3. If a claimant agrees to reduce or limit an element of a claim, the Water Court does not need to determine whether the burden of proof has been met. The Water Court may accept a claimant’s requested reduction or limitation without further presentation of evidence. Rule 17(c) W.R.Adj.R.

4. Prior to July 1, 1973 when the Montana Water Use Act became law, a water user could change the point of diversion, place of use, or even purpose of a water right by simply implementing the change. The only restriction was that the change could not cause injury to other water users. Section 89-803, RCM (1947) (repealed 1973). The burden was on the party claiming an injury to prove that the change to the water right at issue adversely impacted their ability to exercise their water rights. Hansen v. Larsen, 44 Mont. 350, 353, 120 P. 229, 231(1911).

5. “State appropriative water rights and Indian reserved water rights differ in origin and definition.” State ex rel. Greely v. Confederated Salish & Kootenai Tribes, 219 Mont. 76, 89, 712 P.2d 754, 762 (Mont. 1985). “Indian reserved water rights are created or recognized by federal treaty, federal statutes or executive order, and are governed by federal law.” Greely, 219 Mont. at 89, 712 P.2d at 762. The relevant federal law at issue here is the Crow Tribe-Montana Compact.

6. Consistent with Chief Water Judge Russ McElyea’s Order Rejecting Master’s Report, Order Approving Stipulation, and Order Closing Case in Case 43O-8, filed on January 15, 2015, the claims specified as such above should be “Reserved” and the following information remarks should be added to the claim:

THIS WATER RIGHT IS A WALTON RIGHT.

THIS WATER IS NOT PART OF THE TRIBAL WATER RIGHT AS DEFINED IN THE CROW COMPACT.

CLAIM 43P 30116875

7. Scott states that claim 43P 30116875 should be recognized as an exempt claim for two reasons:

a. The DNRC definition of instream use is an incorrect interpretation and application of the underlying statute.

b. DNRC did not consider the water right as one recognized under the Crow Water Compact when it added a remark on the abstract.

8. Scott Ranch acquired Indian allotment lands in 2010 and in 2012 that were previously held in trust by the United States for the benefit of Thor Lande, a member of the Apsaalooke (Crow) Tribe. Lande died in 1997, and the lands were converted to fee status in 2006.

9. Section 85-2-222, MCA, defines exempt rights as “those claims for existing rights for livestock and individual uses as opposed to municipal domestic uses based upon instream flow or ground water sources...”

10. The DNRC 2013 Claims Examination Manual defines exempt claims as follows:

“Exempt Water Right” means an existing water right for which a statement of claim did not have to be filed pursuant to §85-2-222, MCA. This includes 1) domestic use based on instream use with no man-made diversion, 2) domestic use based on a groundwater source, 3) stockwater based on instream use with no man-made diversion, 4) stockwater use based on a groundwater source, 5) appropriations of groundwater put to use between January 1, 1962 and July 1, 1973 with a notice filed under the 1961 Ground Water Code.

11. Scott Ranch admits that claim 43P 30116875 uses a pump to divert water. Therefore, this claim does not fit the definition of instream flow or groundwater.

12. Scott cites Water Court case In re State Dept. of Fish, Wildlife & Parks, Case 41K-0707-R-2024 (2025) to support its argument that man-made diversions are accepted by the Water Court on exempt claims. The facts in that case are vastly different from this one. It appears the claim in that case was a stockwater claim where livestock had historically drank directly from source, but at some point, a dam was installed to allow for irrigation from the same source on a different water right. The water master found that, because the source was historically a natural lake, the existence of the dam did not equate to a diversion in the context of Section 85-5-222, MCA.

13. DNRC’s interpretation of Section 85-2-222, MCA is accurate. The statute clearly, on its face, states that livestock and individual domestic claims should be based on instream flow, without man-made diversion, or groundwater.

14. Scott Ranch also points to the comments made by the sponsor of HB110 (precursor to Section 85-2-222, MCA) to support its assertion that claim 43P 30116875 should not be dismissed.

15. Upon review of the hearing cited by Scott Ranch, the Court disagrees that the comments by the sponsor of HB110 support Scott Ranch’s arguments. The sponsor’s comments were:

Representative Flynn: “... Is the filing fee per claim or per group of claims?”
Hamlett: “I believe it’s per claim. So, if you have a spring you haven’t filed on, you’re filing on that. If you have ten water sources, that you use and you haven’t filed on, yeah, I believe you file ten claims because that’s the way the adjudication always has been. You filed for every individual water right you had, whether it was a spring, or taking water from a river, or pumping it out of the ground, or storing it."

H. Bill 110: Hearing Before the H. Nat. Res. Comm., 65th Mont. Leg. (January 23, 2017), https://sg001-harmony.sliq.net/00309/Harmony/en/PowerBrowser/PowerBrowserV2/20170221/-1/13966?agendaId=39738#info_).

16. At no point during the hearing do the legislators discuss pump diversions as being included in these exempt claims.

17. Scott Ranch's second argument appears to echo the argument made in Scott Ranch.

18. Scott Ranch argues that DNRC should not have placed any issue remark on the claim because claim 43P 3016875 fits the definition of a state water right from the Crow Water Compact because the water right initially belonged to a tribal member and the land was transferred to Scott Ranch thus making it a Walton Right.

19. DNRC placed the issue remark on claim 43P 3016875 because it is not a direct instream or groundwater right. They did this because the claim was filed pursuant to Section 85-2-222, MCA, but does not fit the definition of an exempt right.

20. In Scott Ranch, the Montana Supreme Court addressed this argument and stated:

It is possible that other owners in circumstances similar to Scott Ranch's face this same predicament. Apart from the recently enacted provisions for filing exempt water rights claims prior to June 30, 2019, no mechanism exists for a party in Scott Ranch's position that has not already filed a statement of claim to include its existing Walton claims in the general statewide adjudication process. Scott Ranch 2017 MT 230 ¶23.

The Court goes on to state:

We note Scott Ranch's indication that two of its forty-seven claims are non-exempt claims and that Scott Ranch will not be able to file these claims under the exempt claims filing process. Because these claims were still part of the federally reserved Indian water right at the time of the July 1, 1996 filing deadline, Scott Ranch and the amici represent that its predecessors could not have filed the claims before that date. This suggests a possible jurisdictional gap that is not developed in the briefing here and may warrant the Legislature's examination: the adjudication process for non-exempt Walton claims that were not separated from a federally reserved Indian water right until after July 1, 1996.

Id. at FN2

21. There is no legislative examination or fix that has been implemented, to date. Claim 43P 30116875 should be dismissed.

RECOMMENDATIONS

Based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, this Master recommends that the issue remarks be removed and the corrections described in the Findings of Fact be applied. The Master further recommends claim 43P 30116875 be dismissed.

Post decree abstracts of the water right claims addressed in this Master's Report are attached to confirm that the above corrections have been made in the state's water right record system.
