Outcome Measures Used:

Changes in behavior

Changes in family or parental behavior management practices

Explanation as to how you will evaluate outcome measures selected above:

Youth's behavior will be measured within JCATS by the number of new referrals. Change in parental and family functioning will be evaluated by the therapist's initial assessment compared to the discharge report on each youth/family.

Narrative:

15 youth were referred, 12 families chose to participate. Of the 12 participating families, 9 showed improvement based upon the discharge report from the therapist. Two youth had one new referral while in the program.
