

Version 7.2.2

Filing Type ‘Proposed Documents’

The filing type Proposed Order will be replaced with the filing type Proposed Document for FCE courts. Use the Proposed Document filing type any time you are submitting a document to be signed or issued by a judge or clerk. The list of proposed document subtypes is expanded to include:

City, Municipal, Justice Courts (FCE)
Proposed Arrest Warrant
Proposed Default Judgment
Proposed Judgment
Proposed Jury Instructions*
Proposed Order
Proposed Order Entering Default
Proposed Order to Show Cause
Proposed Subpoena
Proposed Summons
Proposed Verdict Form
Proposed Writ of Execution

District Courts (FCE)
Arrest Warrant Proposed
Bench Warrant Proposed
Decree Proposed
Entry of Default Proposed
Information Proposed
Judgment Proposed
Jury Instructions Proposed
Proposed Order
Subpoena Proposed
Summons Proposed
Verdict Proposed
Writ of Assistance Proposed
Writ of Attachment Proposed
Writ of Execution Proposed
Writ of Mandamus Proposed

Additional Notes:

Filing Fees

Judgment Proposed, Decree Proposed, Writ of Execution Proposed, Writ of Assistance Proposed, Writ of Attachment Proposed, and Writ of Mandamus Proposed will trigger fees. Check the fee schedule on page three of the E-Filing best practices guide to see a complete list of filing types that trigger fees.

Proposed Document filing types are not appended with a Certificate of Service, and are not file stamped when processed.

Montana Courts Electronic Filing

Website <https://courts.mt.gov/courts/efile>
 Email efilingtechsupport@mt.gov

