

EXECUTIVE ORDER

NO. 01-67
RESCINDED
Feb. 1, 1982

WHEREAS, the non-ferrous metal industry is a major segment of Montana's economy and a major employer within the state; and

WHEREAS, a strike and shutdown of production facilities has prevailed since July 15 of this year, with serious economic and social effects upon the state and its people; and

WHEREAS, facts surrounding the issues of the strike are in dispute between the parties thereto; and

WHEREAS, the settling of those facts can speed settlement of the differences now existing between employer and employee;

NOW, THEREFORE, by the authority vested in me as Governor of the State of Montana, I hereby appoint:

Monsignor Anthony M. Brown, Helena, Montana
Mrs. Marjorie Paisley, Bozeman, Montana
Dr. Norman E. Taylor, Missoula, Montana

to serve as a Fact Finding Board to investigate all pertinent facts and circumstances of the current strike, and to report its findings to me. All state agencies are herewith directed to assist the Board in its investigation.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Montana to be affixed. Done at the City of Helena, the Capital, this 4th day of December, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-seven.

the administration of justice in the State which have so far as STATE OF MONTANA

Rescind -
Feb. 1, 1982

- 3. To determine Office of Governor ... national laws which may appear to be beyond the
 of Establishment of Montana Commission on Crime, Delinquency, and Criminal Administration

WHEREAS, the incidence of major crime has shown a marked increase throughout the country; and

WHEREAS, much of the major crime is committed by offenders under the age of 21; and

WHEREAS, there is a need to strengthen and make more effective the work of the law enforcement agencies; and

WHEREAS, it appears that improvements can also be made in the administration of justice and the treatment of those convicted of violating the law to the end that they may be rehabilitated and may not repeat their offenses;

THEREFORE, I, TED JAMES, Governor of the State of Montana, pursuant to the authority invested in me, order the establishment of a Montana Commission on Crime, Delinquency and Criminal Administration.

The Montana Commission on Crime, Delinquency and Criminal Administration shall have the following functions:

- 1. To bring together those persons most familiar with problems of law enforcement and the administration of justice, including the disposition and treatment of persons convicted of crime, for the purpose of studying and encouraging the adoption of methods
by which law enforcement can be made more effective and justice administered more efficiently and fairly.
- 2. To stimulate, promote, and organize citizen participation in the improvement and extension of law enforcement, the work of the courts, and the correction
and rehabilitation processes.
- 3. To recommend improvements which need to be made in the recruitment and training of law enforcement officers and other law enforcement personnel.
- 4. To recommend methods by which cooperation between local, state and federal law enforcement officials
may be furthered.
- 5. To identify noteworthy practices which have been developed in the State in the fields of police,
court and correctional management.
- 6. To isolate pressing problems of law enforcement and the administration of justice in the State which have so far resisted solution.

7. To inventory the needs in financial, procedural or personal terms which may appear to be beyond the capacity of the State to satisfy.
8. To help in evaluation of proposals for improvement in crime prevention, detection, conviction and treatment which may be submitted for review by the President's Commission on Law Enforcement and Administration of Justice.
9. To assist in planning coordinated programs in the State in areas of the police, the courts and corrections.
10. To encourage public understanding of the responsibilities and problems of law officers and law enforcement agencies and the development of greater public support for their efforts.
11. To aid in publicizing and promoting those practices in the treatment of criminal offenders which will do most to prevent a return to criminal activity.
12. To recommend such improvements in bail requirements, court procedures, sentencing practices and treatment after conviction as will foster a sense of social justice and fairness in the application of the law.

The Montana Commission on Crime, Delinquency and Criminal Administration shall consist of such professional and lay persons appointed by the Governor as may have a vital concern with Law Enforcement and the Administration of Justice.

The Governor will appoint the chairman and a vice-chairman from the membership of the Commission.

Such committees and sub-committees of the Commission, special or standing, may be appointed by the Chairman as may be necessary to meet the responsibilities of the Commission herein provided.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Montana this eleventh day of April in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Sixty-Seven.
