

EXECUTIVE ORDER

2732
RESCINDED
Feb 1, 1982

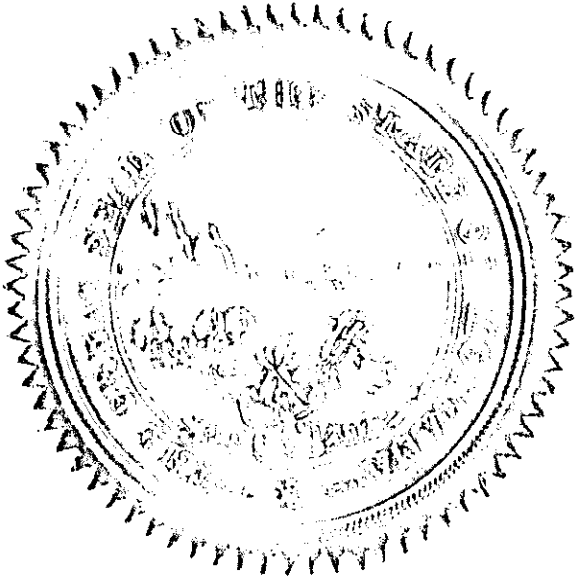

PROVIDING THAT THE STATE LAW ENFORCEMENT PLANNING COMMITTEE SHALL UNDERTAKE JUVENILE DELINQUENCY PREVENTION AND CONTROL PLANNING.

WHEREAS, juvenile delinquency constitutes a national and state problem which must be met by coordinated state, local government and private agency planning and action; and

WHEREAS, the State Law Enforcement Planning Committee is engaged in comprehensive law enforcement planning covering police, courts and corrections, requiring close coordination and interrelationship in planning with juvenile delinquency control and prevention considerations.

NOW, THEREFORE, by the power vested in me, as Governor of the State of Montana, I, Tim Babcock, designate the State Law Enforcement Planning Committee as the State agency for comprehensive planning in juvenile delinquency prevention and control under Title I of Public Law 90-445.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Montana to be affixed. Done at the City of Helena, the Capital, this 19th day of December, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-eight.

EXECUTIVE ORDER

-RESCINDED-
Feb 1-1982

WHEREAS, Congress has passed the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968 (Public Law 90-351, 82 Stat. 197); and

WHEREAS, the said act provides funds for state and local governments to engage in planning and in action programs for the purpose of combating crime; and

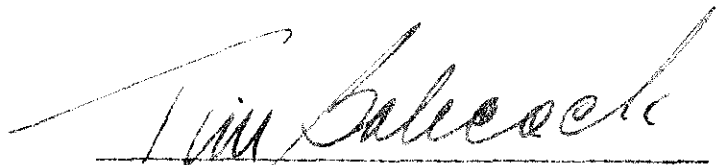

WHEREAS, the provisions of said act require the governor of a state to create or designate a state law enforcement planning agency in order to qualify the state for receipt of federal law enforcement planning and other grant funds;

NOW, THEREFORE, By the power vested in me, Tim Babcock, Governor of the State of Montana,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Montana Law Enforcement Planning Agency be herewith created and designated as the sole state agency to administer funds, to create plans and to otherwise exercise the functions required under the said Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Montana to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Helena, the Capital, this 23rd day of August, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Sixty-eight.
