Agreed Court Ordered

Proposed Amended
Property Distribution

For joint filers: It does not matter who is Co-Petitioner 1 or 2. Keep these labels consistent on all forms.

Warning: Montana law, §40-4-252, M.C.A. requires the full disclosure of all assets, debts, income, and expenses. I understand that I am required to tell my spouse about all of the assets, debts, income and expenses that I know about. My spouse is required to do the same for me.

This Proposed Property Distribution along with Form MP-510 Disclosure of Income and Expenses has been served on my spouse.

If I don't tell my spouse about something, the court may give me a penalty. The court gets to decide what the penalty will be. I am giving all of the information I know about the assets and debts listed on this form and writing “unknown” in the spaces for the information I don’t know.

1. Real Property. Real property is land and the building(s) on the land. Real property also includes part ownership, for example when all the members of a family share a ranch. Real property does not include trailer, mobile, or manufactured homes unless the Department of Revenue has approved an improvement to the property.

If one party is keeping real property, you will need to state whether:

- the party will pay a portion of the value to the other party,
- how that will happen (quitclaim deed, refinance, etc.),
- when it will happen,
- and each party’s responsibilities.

If the parties will sell the real property, you will need to state

- any of the considerations below that apply,
- who will pay mortgage payments, taxes, and maintenance costs until the sale is final,
- how the proceeds will be divided and distributed, etc.
