

STATE ADMINISTRATION COMMITTEE

January 4, 1977

The first meeting was called to order at 10:00 a.m. by Chairman Brand. All members were present except Bardanoue.

The chairman introduced Research Analyst Dick Hargesheimer, and outlined rules of conduct which he expected from the committee members during hearings - being polite to all witnesses, regardless of their opinion; no harassment of witnesses by committee members such as laughter, over comments, etc. He stated that press coverage would be allowed, with permission of the chairman, but no press related operations would be allowed to interrupt the meeting.

With the exception of this first week, (Jan. 4 - Jan. 8) committee meetings will be held every morning, Monday through Friday, from 10:00 to 12:00 in Room 431, unless otherwise specified.

There will be a 72 hour notice period prior to hearings to provide for notification of sponsors and witnesses.

Rep. Mular moved to adjourn, and Chairman Brand dismissed the meeting at 10:15, setting Friday, January 7 as the date of the next meeting.
