Insert: "(2) Under this section, the governor may issue executive orders, proclamations and regulations, and amend and rescind them. All executive orders or proclamations declaring or terminating a state of emergency or disaster shall indicate the nature of the emergency or disaster, the area threatened, the conditions which have brought about the declaration or which make possible termination of the state of emergency or disaster.

DO PASS

(3) (a) A state of emergency may be declared by the governor when he determines that an emergency, as defined in section 77-2302 (6), R.C.M. 1947, exists.

(b) An executive order or proclamation of a state of emergency shall activate the emergency response and disaster preparation aspects of the state disaster and emergency plan and program applicable to the political subdivision or area and be authority for the deployment and use of any forces to which the plans apply and for the distribution and use of any supplies, equipment, and materials and facilities assembled, stockpiled, or arranged to be made available pursuant to this chapter or any other provision of law pertaining to disasters and disaster related emergencies.

(c) A state of emergency may not continue for longer than 20 days unless continuing conditions of the state of emergency exists, which shall be determined by a declaration by the president of the United States of an emergency, or by a declaration of the legislature by joint resolution of continuing conditions of the state of emergency.

(4) (a) A state of disaster may be declared by the governor when he determined that a disaster has occurred.

(b) An executive order or proclamation of a state of disaster shall activate the disaster response and recovery aspects of the state disaster and emergency plan and program applicable to the political subdivision or area and be authority for the deployment and use of any forces to which the plans apply and for the distribution and use of any supplies, equipment, and materials and facilities assembled, stockpiled, or arranged to be made available pursuant to this chapter or any other provision of law pertaining to disaster and disaster related emergencies.

(c) A state of disaster may not continue for longer than 30 days unless continuing conditions of the state of disaster exist, which shall be determined by a declaration by the president of the United States of a major disaster, or by the declaration of the legislature by joint resolution of continuing conditions of the state of disaster.

§) The governor shall terminate a state of emergency or disaster when:

(a) the emergency or disaster has passed;

(b) the emergency or disaster has been dealt with to the extent that emergency or disaster conditions no longer exist; or

(c) at any time the legislature terminates the state of emergency or disaster by joint resolution. However, after termination of the state of emergency or disaster, disaster and emergency services required as a result of the emergency or disaster may continue.

(6) An executive order or proclamation issued under this section shall be disseminated promptly by means calculated to bring its contents to the attention of the general public. Unless the circumstances attendant upon the emergency or disaster prevent or impede it, the executive order or proclamation will be filed promptly with the division, the secretary of state, and clerks and recorders of the counties involved.

(7) During a state of emergency or disaster, the governor is commander-in-chief of the militia and of all other forces available for emergency or disaster duty. To the greatest extent possible, the governor shall delegate or assign command authority by prior arrangement embodied in the state disaster and emergency plan and program and appropriate executive orders.

(5) The governor shall utilize the services and facilities of the existing officers and agencies of the state, and all officers and agencies shall cooperate with and extend their services and facilities to the governor as he may request in the carrying out of the purposes of this chapter."

Insert: "section 1. Section 23-3308, R.C.M. 1947, is amended to read as follows:

"23-3308. Ballots, how arranged and voted. (1) At the primary, there shall be a ballot for each political party entitled to participate. Each ballot shall be printed on a separate sheet of white paper of the same size, folded, and securely fastened at the top.

(2) Candidates' names shall be arranged alphabetically by surnames, under the offices and under the proper party designation. The names of the candidates for governor and lieutenant governor shall be arranged by the surname of the candidate for governor. When two (2) or more persons divide the ballot to provide a rotation of the names of the candidates as follows:

(a) Divide all county ballot forms into sets equal in number to the greatest number of candidates for nomination or election to any office;

(b) Arrange the sets so that candidates' names are rotated by removing one name from the top of the list for each nomination or office and place the name or number at the bottom of the list for each successive set of ballot forms; however, so as to equalize insofar as possible the number of electors for which a particular set is used. The number of registered voters as of the last general election, or if necessitated by a large change in population in one area an estimate, may be used. in printing ballots for use in any one (1) precinct, only one (1) set shall be used and they shall be identical;

(c) If an elector writes the name of a person upon a ballot, and the person's name appears as a candidate upon another ballot, the ballot shall count for the person only as a candidate of the party upon whose ticket his name is written;

(d) If a person is nominated upon more than one (1) ticket, not later than ten (10) days after the election he shall file written notification with the secretary of state, registrar, or city clerk the party under which his name is to appear upon the ballot for the general election, and, if he fails to notify the proper officers, his name shall appear under the party with whom his nominating declaration was first filed;

(e) If a person fails to be nominated upon the party ticket contained in his nominating declaration, his name shall not be printed upon any ballot with party designation;

(f) This act does not preclude an elector from having his name printed upon the ballot as an independent candidate, and no candidate shall have his name printed on more than one (1) ticket.

(3) Ballots shall be printed on white paper in the form of the Australian ballot and the candidates of each party shall be printed on a separate ticket.

(4) After preparing his ballot, the elector shall detach it from the remaining tickets and fold it so that the face is concealed and the official stamp is seen;

(a) The elector shall fold the remaining tickets, vote the marked ballot without leaving the polling place, and deposit the remaining tickets in a separate box marked as the blank ballot box;

(b) Immediately after the recount period, the election judges shall, without examination, destroy the tickets deposited in the blank ballot box."

Section 2. Section 23-3511, R.C.M. 1947, is amended to read as follows:

"23-3511. Arrangement of names--rotation on ballot. (1) The candidates' names shall be arranged alphabetically on the ballot according to surnames under the appropriate title of the respective offices.

(2) The candidates of the two (2) major parties shall appear on the ballot before and above candidates of minor parties and independent candidates.

(3) The parties whose candidates for governor, except independent candidates, received the highest number of votes at the next preceding four (4) general elections shall constitute the two (2) major political parties.

(4) If there is a tie in the number of first or second place votes, the determination shall be made by going back to enough preceding elections to break the tie and no further.

(5) All other candidates shall be designated as either independent candidates or as belonging to minor parties.

(6) If two (2) or more persons are candidate for election to the same office, the registrar shall divide the ballot forms into sets to provide a substantial rotation of the names of candidates as follows:

(a) He shall divide the whole number of ballot forms for the county into sets equal in number to the greatest number of candidates for any office;

(b) He shall arrange the sets so that the names of the candidates beginning with a form arranged in alphabetical order, are rotated by removing one (1) name from the top of the list for each office and placing the name or number at the bottom of the list for each successive set of ballot forms so as to equalize insofar as possible the number of electors for which a particular set is used. The number of registered voters as of the last general election, or if necessitated by a large change in population in one area an estimate, may be used;

~~(c) For the purposes of rotation, the office of president and vice-president shall be considered as a group;~~

(d) No more than one (1) of the sets shall be used in printing the ballot for use in any one (1) precinct, and all ballots furnished for use in any precinct shall be identical;

(e) Candidates of the two (2) major parties shall be rotated so they appear on the ballot before and above any candidates of the minor parties or independent candidates."
