

HOUSE RULES COMMITTEE
46th Legislature

23 March 1979

Chairman Dussault called the meeting to order in Room 343 on 23 March 1979. Representatives Bardanoue, Sivertsen and Vincent were absent. All other members of the committee were present.

The question before the committee was whether a third reading had to be given to a bill involving a constitutional amendment. The consensus of the committee was that the amendment could be allowed to proceed directly to third reading, even though an adverse committee report had been adopted.

Chairman Dussault adjourned the meeting.
