BLEEDING (from Arteries)	Spurting bright red blood from wounds.	Cover with pressure bandage. Apply hand pressure to nearest pressure point. Use tourniquet only when other methods fail to stop blood. Once applied, tourniquet should not be released except by a physician or nurse.
BLEEDING (from Veins)	Steady flow; dark red blood.	Apply sterile compress firmly over wound to aid clotting.
BLEEDING (Internal)	Pale face; faintness; thirst; sighing; weak, rapid pulse.	Lay with head low; apply cold packs to point you think bleeding.
BURNS	Redness; pain; blisters; charred or cooked tissue.	Exclude air by applying ABT Burn-Spray or other ointment or cover with dry bandage.
BURNS (Chemical)	Redness; pain.	Wash thoroughly eyes or skin with 8 to 32 ounces of NEUTRALIZE or irrigate with clean water for 10 to 15 minutes.
DROWNING	Unconscious, not breathing.	Remove water; cleanse mouth; tongue forward. Loosen clothing. Give artificial respiration.
DISLOCATIONS	Deformity compared to uninjured limb. Pain.	Dress in lines of deformity. Do not reduce.

FRACTURES (Simple)	Pain; swelling; deformity; inability to move limb.	Support above and below fracture; apply well-padded splints.
FRACTURES (Compound)	Open wound; possibly bone protruding; bleeding.	Compress to wound; apply splints padded to deformity; do not pull.
FRACTURES (Skull)	Possible bleeding eyes, nose and mouth; serum from ears in basal fracture.	Raise head; dress wound; no stimulants; keep warm and quiet.
FROST BITE	Affected part is white; no sensation.	Thaw slowly with lukewarm (not hot) water or by gently wrapping in warm blanket or clothes. Make patient warm as possible. If conscious, give warm drink.

When a person cannot breathe for himself due to electric shock—drowning—asphyxiation, you may preserve a life if you do the following at once: The first several seconds are vitally important. Do not delay to summon doctor or aid, transport victim or give secondary first aid.

1. Turn head to side. Remove any obstruction in throat or nasal passages.
2. Tilt the head back with victim on his back, neck fully extended.
3. Elevate victim's jaw into jutting out position by inserting thumb between teeth, grasping lower jaw and lifting it forcefully upward.
4. If air passage is not yet cleared, clear at once with several sharp blows between shoulder blades.
5. Open your mouth wide and cover victim's mouth completely by placing your mouth over his with airtight contact, also closing victim's nose by pinching it between thumb and finger.
6. Blow Air into the victim's lungs until you see the chest rise (less forcefully for children); remove your mouth and let him exhale. If chest does not rise, check steps above.
7. Repeat step No. 6 approximately 12 times a minute until victim revives. (20 times a minute for children.)

Fig. 1

EXTERNAL CARDIAC MASSAGE

1. Only after mouth-to-mouth breathing has been started should a check be made to see if external cardiac massage is necessary. Determine whether the heart has stopped beating by checking the victim's pulse in the carotid of the neck—the large artery on either side. See Figure A.

2. If there is no pulse, start the external cardiac massage procedure by placing the heel of one hand over the lower third (the "sternum") of the breastbone (see "X" on Figure B) and the other hand on top of the first, as shown in Figure C.

3. To start the cardiac massage, compress the breastbone toward the backbone by exerting downward pressure on your hands with the weight of your upper body, as in Figure C, while mouth-to-mouth breathing is continued by a second person. The breastbone should move 1 1/4 to 2 inches in adults. Pressure is then released quickly. This cycle is repeated 60 to 80 times per minute on adults, 80 to 100 times per minute on children. [Children's chests are not as strong as adults'. The massage on children up to 10 years old can usually be done with one hand.

PART VIII

James H. King, Jr. 222-040

5. Recordkeeping by employers. The proposal to exempt employers of fewer than eight from all recordkeeping requirements is being drafted. This proposal should be well received by employers in such tiny establishments.

BLS will provide us with their first major report on injuries, illnesses and statistics sometime in late November.

6. Speeches and appearances. My key group of seven will concentrate on appearances in the 11 key States. I have already lined up several days of speeches and appearances for myself in Texas, New York, Pennsylvania and Illinois.
7. The National Safety Congress in last week of October. Timed as it is in drawing very large crowds, the Congress offers an excellent sales opportunity which we shall take full advantage of. As in last year, OSHA has one full morning with no other competing Congress activity.
8. Mailings to trade associations, organized labor, insurance companies and others. We plan a regular flow of such broad mailings emphasizing the positive aspects of the program.
9. Field staff. I am having the registration of all RA's and ADs checked. When this reading is complete, we will consider further actions to be taken by the Republicans.

There are undoubtedly other ideas for action which we will come up with. You will be advised.

While I have discussed with Lee Nunn the great potential of OSHA as a sales point for fund raising and general support by employers, I do not believe the potential of this appeal is fully recognized. Your suggestions as to how to promote the advantages of four more years of properly managed OSHA for use in the campaign would be appreciated.

George C. Guenther

We are working on a proposal for a late summer or early fall mailing to all employers (using the Social Security list as for our first mass mailing) in which we would hope to clarify misconceptions about the program and make available a maximum of simple information on what it means to employers, especially small ones. I emphasize this is only in the proposal stage and you will be hearing more about it.

Assuming OMB clears the letter to Senator Williams on the Curtis amendments we will, at or after the Small Business hearings, publicize to the maximum extent possible the positive positions we are taking with regard to small businesses and farmers.

3. State programs. I will personally call the designees in the 11 key States regarding more assistance from us, which will include additional grants, exchange of OSHA personnel under the Intergovernmental Personnel Act, special provisions for training State inspectors from the key States at our Training Institute in Chicago, and other matters.

We are drafting for the signature of the President a letter to Barry Brown, President of IAGLO, for Brown to read at the annual IAGLO Conference in July. This letter will stress the President's commitment to New Federalism and his pleasure with the broad response of the States to the OSHA program. You will receive the draft shortly.

Otherwise, we are maximizing our relations with all States.

4. Personnel. We are drafting an outline of OSHA's recruiting and hiring plan for the next six months. Subject to your approval, it is our intention to provide copies of this detailed plan to the Republican National Committee and the Committee to Re-elect the President. We can then consider applicants they propose.

MEMORANDUM TO THE UNDER SECRETARY

Subject: OSHA program actions from now through November

In considering this subject, I have assembled an informal group of seven staff members whose loyalty and political credentials are certain. This group and I have conceived the following program actions. We plan to meet from time to time to assess progress and determine additional initiatives.

ACTION

1. Standards setting. While promulgation and modification activity must continue, no highly controversial standards (i.e., cotton dust, etc.) will be proposed by OSHA or by NIOSH. A thorough review with NIOSH indicates that while some criteria documents, such as on noise, will be transmitted to us during this period neither the contents of these documents nor our handling of them here will generate any substantial controversy.

While the activities of the Standards Advisory Committee on Agriculture will commence in July, the Committee will concentrate on priorities and long-range planning, rather than on specific standards setting, during this period. Other standards advisory committees may be proposed during this period but again their activities will be low-keyed.

2. Inspections. OSHA will continue, administratively, to concentrate inspection activity on other than tiny establishments.
