HOUSE RULES COMMITTEE
47th Legislature

April 2, 1981

The meeting of the House Rules Committee was called to order by the Chairman, Rep. Harrison G. Fagg at 3:20 p.m. in Room 343. All members were present and accounted for.

The purpose of the meeting was to discuss the order of motions. Rep. Kemmis referred to the book of Masons Section 350 subsection 2.

There was a move by Rep. Sivertsen that the decision of the committee should be that the call of the house was in order.

A substitute motion was made by Rep. Menahan that the call of the house can be put prior to the vote being taken on the previous question. After the vote has been taken on the previous question, a call of the house is not in order. The motion carried unanimously.

There being no further business the meeting was adjourned by the chairman.

Harrison G. Fagg, Chairman
