

MINUTES OF MEETING OF THE
SENATE RULES COMMITTEE
January 26, 1983

The second meeting of the Senate Rules Committee was called to order by its chairman, Senator Frank W. Hazelbaker, on January 26, 1983 at 3:45 P.M., in Room 331 of the capitol building.

ROLL CALL:

All members were present.

Chairman Hazelbaker opened the meeting by stating that John Larson, the Secretary of the Senate, had a bill introduced by Senator Conover, which bill was received at 8:40 A.M. on January 25, 1983, which was more than 48 hours after the date of January 21, 1983, shown on the back of the bill.

Senator Max Conover testified that actually he had received the bill on the floor of the Senate on Saturday morning, January 22, 1983, about 9:30 or 10:00 A.M.

Senator Towe commented that if this was the case, Senator Conover had two legislative days to submit the bill, and that the date of January 25, 1983 was within the time-frame for introduction of the bill.

Senator Turnage stated that based upon the testimony of Senator Conover the bill was submitted within the rules, and moved the bill be accepted. The motion was unanimously carried.

There being no further business to come before the committee, the meeting was adjourned at 4:53 P.M.
