Dear Senator Story:

I am submitting biographical information on appointments recently made by Governor Schwinden.

Department of Labor and Industry

As members of the BOARD OF PERSONNEL APPEALS in accordance with H.B. 899, as signed into law on April 20, 1983, (Section 2-15-1705).

John Astle. Astle, a journalism and English teacher at Butte High School, is currently the president of the Butte Teachers' Union. He has a degree in secondary education from Western Montana College. Astle attended Anaconda schools and graduated from Anaconda Central High School in 1956. He worked at the smelter from 1956-1959. From 1959 to 1970, he worked as a printer for the Anaconda Standard and the Montana Standard. He is appointed as one of two members who has experience as a member or employee of an employee organization.

He will serve a term ending January 7, 1985.

Lloyd Markell. Markell, who was born in Medicine Lake, Montana, taught elementary school and then became principal in Wheeler, Montana, a town that sprung up in Northeastern Montana when Fort Peck Dam was being constructed. He was superintendent of schools as well as a classroom teacher in Northeastern Montana for several years. Markell was the Research Director for the Montana Education Association (MEA) for more than 20 years and specialized in the area of finance. He is still active with MEA legislative affairs. He is appointed as one of two members who has experience as a member or employee of an employee organization.

He will serve a term ending January 7, 1985.

Jerald Hudspeth. Hudspeth received both bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Iowa, Iowa City, Iowa. He taught social science at Muscatine Community College, Muscatine, Iowa, from 1965 to 1968, and was chairman of the social science division of Dawson Community College, Glendive, from 1971 to 1976. Since 1976 he has been the owner of the Yellowstone Cleaners in Glendive and is owner of six convenience stores located in Eastern Montana communities. He is appointed as one of two members who has management experience involving collective bargaining.

He will serve a term ending January 1, 1987.

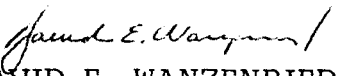

Francis J. Raucci. Raucci graduated from St. Joseph's University in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania in 1958 and earned a law degree from Georgetown University in 1965. He was admitted to the Montana State Bar and became a Supreme Court Attorney for the State of Montana the same year. Since then he has served as vice-president of Labor Relations, Assistant General Counsel for Buttrey Food Stores, Vice-President of Law, Real Estate and Support Services for Acme Markets, Inc., and is currently Vice-President and General Counsel for Buttrey Food Stores, Inc. He is appointed as one of two members who has management experience involving collective bargaining.

He will serve a term ending January 1, 1987.

Alan L. Joscelyn. Joscelyn, a Missoula native, graduated from Hellgate High School of Missoula in 1968. He attended the University of Montana and graduated with a bachelor of arts degree in 1972. He graduated in 1975 from the University of Montana Law School. Joscelyn was a staff attorney for the Montana Department of State Lands for two years, and has been in private practice in Helena, Montana for five years. Currently he is associated with the Helena law firm of Gough, Shanahan, Johnson and Waterman. Joscelyn is a member of the State Bar of Montana, the American Bar Association, and is currently the president of Family Outreach, Inc. of Helena. He is appointed as the member having general Labor-Management experience and shall serve as the chairperson.

He will serve a term ending January 1, 1987.

Respectfully submitted,

DAVID E. WANZENRIED
Executive Assistant
