 2 INTRODUCED BY Ray Jacobsen Jim Mann Conroy
 3 Meloy Lee David Wright

4 A BILL FOR AN ACT ENTITLED: "AN ACT REQUIRING A PERSON
 5 ABOUT TO CONSTRUCT OR LOCATE A MAJOR INDUSTRIAL FACILITY OR 6 OPEN A NEW STRIP MINE TO FILE AN EDUCATIONAL IMPACT
 7 STATEMENT WITH THE COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS."

8
 9 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MONTANA:

10 Section 1. Educational impact statements defined --
 11 when required. When a county superintendent of schools finds 12 that a person intends to construct or locate a major 13 industrial facility, as defined in section 75-7104, or 14 intends to open a new strip mine, as defined by section
 15 50-1603, within the county, the superintendent may require 16 such person to file with the county an educational impact
 17 statement. An educational impact statement is a report 18 estimating the increased demands on public schools in the 19 county as a consequence of the major industrial facility.
 20 The statement shall indicate: (1) the numbers of persons,
 21 and their anticipated residential distribution, to be 22 employed during the construction or preparation, and during 23 the operation of the major industrial facility;

24 (2) the numbers and anticipated distribution of 25 persons employed in providing goods and services to the

1 persons enumerated in the preceding category;
 2 (3) the numbers of school age children anticipated to 3 be living with the persons enumerated in the preceding 4 categories; and
 5 (4) the time periods covered by each preceding 6 estimate.
 7 Section 2. Judicial enforcement. A district court,
 8 upon petition of a county, may enforce the preceding section
 9 with appropriate orders.
