10 WHEREAS, hundreds of individuals, both military and 11 civilian, have been taken as prisoners in time of war and 12 have suffered for years at the hands of their captors;

13 WHEREAS, the events of the last few weeks that brought 14 freedom to the 52 American hostages remind all Americans of 15 the necessity for a fresh recognition of the plight of 16 prisoners of war, men missing in action, and their families;

17 WHEREAS, many in the medical and psychological 18 professions are beginning to recognize a phenomenon of 19 delayed shock syndrome in former prisoners in which pent-up
 20 fear, anguish, and frustration can lead to violent outbursts
 21 if not recognized and treated;

22 WHEREAS, all Americans owe a debt to those who suffered 23 and may still suffer at the hands of their fellow man and to 24 their families, a debt we need to be reminded of so that we 25 take time to attend to their needs.

1
 2 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE AND THE HOUSE
 3 OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE STATE OF MONTANA:

4 That the President of the United States is urged, in 5 any declaration concerning Veterans' Day, to call attention
 6 to former prisoners of war, those unaccounted for after past
 7 wars, and their families by asking that people place a red,
 8 white, and blue ribbon in every noticeable place on that 9 day.

10 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that copies of this resolution
 11 be sent by the Secretary of State to the President of the 12 United States and to the Montana Congressional Delegation.
