WHEREAS, Dr. Bennett interned as a physician and surgeon in the United States Navy, serving aboard the U.S.S. Helena in World War II; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Bennett pioneered a general medical practice in then-booming Hungry Horse in 1948 and located in the emerging Columbia Falls in 1953; and

Commerce, and Chairman of District No. 6 School Board; and WHEREAS, Dr. Bennett served in the Montana Senate, 1967-1972, resigned to serve his patients, and later was elected to the Montana House of Representatives, 1978-1979; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Bennett was a driving force in bringing about improvements and expansion of the Montana Veterans' Home and served as physician to the institution from 1954 to 1979, where he had an abiding interest in the Home and its members; and
