7	spouse.
8	(19)(20) "Parent" means the natural or adoptive parent but does not include a person whose
9	parental rights have been judicially terminated, nor does it include the putative father of an illegitimate youth
10	unless the putative father's paternity is established by an adjudication or by other clear and convincing
11	proof.
12	(20)(21) "Probable cause hearing" means the hearing provided for in 41 5 303 [section 12].
13	(21)(22) "Regional detention facility" means a youth detention facility established and maintained
14	by two or more counties, as authorized in 41-5-811.
15	(22)(23) "Restitution" means payments in cash to the victim or with services to the victim or the
16	general community when these payments are made pursuant to an informal adjustment, consent decree,
17	or other youth court order.
18	(23)(24) "Secure detention facility" means any public or private facility that:
19	(a) is used for the temporary placement of youth or individuals accused or convicted of criminal
20	offenses; and
21	(b) is designed to physically restrict the movements and activities of youth or other individuals held
22	in lawful custody of the facility.
23	(24)(25) "Serious juvenile offender" means a youth who has committed an offense that would be
24	considered a felony offense if committed by an adult and that is an offense against a person, an offense
25	against property, or an offense involving dangerous drugs.
26	(25)(26) "Shelter care" means the temporary substitute care of youth in physically unrestricting
27	facilities.
28	(26)(27) "Shelter care facility" means a facility used for the shelter care of youth. The term is
29	limited to the facilities enumerated in 41 5 306(1) [section 20].

(27)(28) "Short-term detention center" means a detention facility licensed by the department for

1	the temporary placement or care of youth, for a period not to exceed 96 hours excluding weekends and
2	legal holidays, pending a probable cause hearing, release, or transfer of the youth to an appropriate
3	detention facility or shelter care facility.
4	(28)(29) "State youth correctional facility" means a residential facility used for the placement and
5	rehabilitation of delinquent youth, such as the Pine Hills school in Miles City and the Mountain View school
6	in Helena .
7	(29)(30) "Substitute care" means full-time care of youth in a residential setting for the purpose of
8	providing food, shelter, security and safety, guidance, direction, and, if necessary, treatment to youth who
9	are removed from or are without the care and supervision of their parents or guardian.
10	(30)(31) "Youth" means an individual who is less than 18 years of age without regard to sex or
11	emancipation.
12	(31)(32) "Youth court" means the court established pursuant to this chapter to hear all proceedings
13	in which a youth is alleged to be a delinquent youth, a youth in need of supervision, or a youth in need of
14	care and includes the youth court judge and probation officers.
15	(32)[33] "Youth detention facility" means a secure detention facility licensed by the department for
16	the temporary substitute care of youth that:
17	(a) is operated, administered, and staffed separately and independently of a jail; and
18	(b) is used exclusively for the lawful detention of alleged or adjudicated delinquent youth.
19	(33)(34) "Youth in need of care" has the meaning provided for in 41-3-102.
20	(34)(35) "Youth in need of supervision" means a youth who commits an offense prohibited by law
21	that, if committed by an adult, would not constitute a criminal offense, including but not limited to a youth
22	who:
23	(a) violates any Montana municipal or state law regarding use of alcoholic beverages by minors;
24	(b) continues to exhibit behavior beyond the control of the youth's parents, foster parents, physical
25	custodian, or guardian despite the attempt of the youth's parents, foster parents, physical custodian, or
26	guardian to exert all reasonable efforts to mediate, resolve, or control the youth's behavior; or
27	(c) has committed any of the acts of a delinquent youth but whom the youth court, in its

"41-5-208. Transfer to district court after prosecution disposition in district court limitation
on jurisdiction. (1) To ensure continued compliance with the court's disposition under 41 5 523 [section 29], at any time after a youth reaches 18 years of age but before the youth reaches 21 years of age, the youth court judge may transfer jurisdiction to district court and order the transfer of supervisory responsibility and the youth's case files to the department.
(2) If a youth whose case has been transferred to district court under this section violates a disposition imposed under 41-5-523 [section 29], the district court may impose conditions as provided under 46-18-201 through 46-18-203.
(3) If, at the time of transfer, the youth is incarcerated in a state youth correctional facility, the district court may order that the youth, after reaching 18 years of age:
(a) be incarcerated in a state adult correctional facility, boot camp, or prerelease center; or
(b) be supervised by the department.
(4) The district court's jurisdiction over a case transferred under this section terminates when the youth reaches 25 years of age."

(3)(2) If the probation officer determines that the facts indicate that the youth is a youth in need.

(i) advise the youth of the youth's rights under this chapter and the constitutions of the state of

1	Montana and the United States;
2	(ii) determine whether the matter is within the jurisdiction of the court;
3	(iii) determine, if the youth is in detention or shelter care, whether detention or shelter care should
4	be continued based upon criteria set forth in 41 5 305.
5	(b) Once relevant information is secured, the probation officer shall:
6	(i) determine whether the interest of the public or the youth requires that further action be taken;
7	(ii) terminate the inquiry upon the determination that no further action be taken; and
8	(iii) release the youth immediately upon the determination that the filing of a petition is not
9	authorizod.
10	(5) The probation officer upon determining that further action is required may:
11	(a) provide counseling, refer the youth and the youth's parents to another agency providing
12	appropriate services, or take any other action or make any informal adjustment that does not involve
13	probation or detention;
14	(b) provide for treatment or adjustment involving probation or other disposition authorized under
15	41 5 401 through 41 5 403 if the treatment or adjustment is voluntarily accepted by the youth's parents
16	or guardian and the youth, if the matter is referred immediately to the county attorney for review, and if
17	the probation officer proceeds no further unless authorized by the county attorney; or
18 .	(a) refer the matter to the county attorney for filing a potition charging the youth to be a delinquent
19	youth or a youth in need of supervision.
20	(6) The county attorney may apply to the youth court for permission to file a petition charging a
21	youth to be a delinquent youth or a youth in need of supervision. The application must be supported by
22	evidence that the youth court may require. If it appears that there is probable cause to believe that the
23	allegations of the petition are true, the youth court shall grant leave to file the petition.
24	(7) A petition charging a youth held in detention must be filed within 7 working days from the date
25	the youth was first taken into oustedy or the potition must be dismissed and the youth released unless good
26	cause is shown to further detain the youth.
27	(8) If a petition is not filed under this section, the complainant and victim, if any, must be informed
28	by the probation officer of the action and the reasons for not filing and must be advised of the right to
29	submit the matter to the county atterney for review. The county atterney, upon receiving a request for
30	review, shall consider the facts, consult with the probation officer, and make the final decision as to

3	NEW SECTION. Section 6. Preliminary inquiry procedure. (1) In conducting a preliminary inquiry
4	under 41-5-301, the probation officer shall:
5	(a) advise the youth of the youth's rights under this chapter and the constitutions of the state of
6	Montana and the United States;
7	(b) determine whether the matter is within the jurisdiction of the court;
8	(c) determine, if the youth is in detention or shelter care, whether detention or shelter care should
9	be continued based upon criteria set forth in 41-5-305 and [section 16].
10	(2) In conducting a preliminary inquiry, the probation officer may:
11	(a) require the presence of any person relevant to the inquiry;
12	(b) request subpoenas from the judge to accomplish this purpose;
13	(c) require investigation of the matter by any law enforcement agency or any other appropriate
14	state or local agency.
16	NEW SECTION. Section 7. Preliminary inquiry determinations release. Once relevant
17	information is secured after a preliminary inquiry under 41-5-301, the probation officer shall:
18	(1) determine whether the interest of the public or the youth requires that further action be taken;
19	(2) terminate the inquiry upon the determination that no further action be taken; and
20	(3) release the youth immediately upon the determination that the filing of a petition is not
23	NEW SECTION. Section 8. Preliminary inquiry dispositions available to probation officer. Upon
24	determining that further action is required after a preliminary inquiry under 41-5-301, the probation officer
25	may:
26	(1) arrange informal disposition as provided in [section 9]; or
27	(2) refer the matter to the county attorney for filing a petition charging the youth to be a delinquent
28	youth or a youth in need of supervision.
30	NEW SECTION. Section 9. Informal disposition. After a preliminary inquiry under 41-5-301, the probation officer upon determining that further action is required and that referral to the county attorney is not required may:

- (1) provide counseling, refer the youth and the youth's parents to another agency providing appropriate services, or take any other action or make any informal adjustment that does not involve probation or detention; or
- (2) provide for treatment or adjustment involving probation or other disposition authorized under 41-5-401 through 41-5-403 if the treatment or adjustment is voluntarily accepted by the youth's parents or guardian and the youth, if the matter is referred immediately to the county attorney for review, and if the probation officer proceeds no further unless authorized by the county attorney.

- NEW SECTION. Section 10. Petition -- county attorney -- procedure -- release from custody. (1) The county attorney may apply to the youth court for permission to file a petition charging a youth to be a delinquent youth or a youth in need of supervision. The application must be supported by evidence that the youth court may require. If it appears that there is probable cause to believe that the allegations of the petition are true, the youth court shall grant leave to file the petition.
- (2) A petition charging a youth held in detention must be filed within 7 working days from the date the youth was first taken into custody or the petition must be dismissed and the youth released unless good cause is shown to further detain the youth.
- (3) If a petition is not filed under this section, the complainant and victim, if any, must be informed by the probation officer of the action and the reasons for not filing and must be advised of the right to submit the matter to the county attorney for review. The county attorney, upon receiving a request for review, shall consider the facts, consult with the probation officer, and make the final decision as to whether a petition is filed.

- Section 11. Section 41-5-303, MCA, is amended to read:
- "41-5-303. Rights of youth taken into custody -- questioning -- hearing for probable cause detention -- waiver of rights. (1) When a youth is taken into custody for questioning upon a matter that could result in a petition alleging that the youth is either a delinquent youth or a youth in need of supervision, the following requirements must be met:
 - (a) The youth must be advised of his the youth's right against self-incrimination and his the youth's

1	right to counsel.
2	(b) The youth may waive these rights under the following situations:
3	(i) when the youth is 16 years of age or older, the youth may make an effective waiver;
4	(ii) when the youth is under the age of 16 years and the youth and a parent or guardian agree, they
5	may make an effective waiver; and
6	(iii) when the youth is under the age of 16 years and the youth and his parent or guardian do not
7	agree, the youth may make an affective waiver only with advice of counsel.
8	(e)(b) The investigating officer, probation officer, or person assigned to give notice shall
9	immediately notify the parents, guardian, or legal custodian of the youth that the youth has been taken into
10	custody, the reasons for taking the youth into custody, and where the youth is being held. If the parents,
11	guardian, or legal custodian cannot be found through diligent efforts, a close relative or friend chosen by
12	the youth must be notified.
13	(2) A youth may waive the rights listed in subsection (1) under the following situations:
14	(a) when the youth is 16 years of age or older, the youth may make an effective waiver;

4	(6) At the probable cause hearing, a guardian ad litem may be appointed as provided in 41 5 512.
5	(7) If it is determined that there is probable cause to believe the youth is a delinquent youth or is
6	a youth in need of supervision, the court having jurisdiction in the case shall determine whether the youth
7	should be retained in custody. If the court determines that continued oustedy of the youth is necessary and
8	if the youth meets the criteria in 41-5-305, the youth may be placed in a detention facility or shelter care
9	facility as provided in 41 5-306 but may not be placed in a jail or other facility used for the confinement
10	of adults accused or convicted of criminal offences.

in subsection (2), the youth must be immediately released from custody."

NEW SECTION. Section 12. Custody -- hearing for probable cause. (1) When a youth is taken into custody for questioning, a hearing to determine whether there is probable cause to believe the youth is a delinquent youth or a youth in need of supervision must be held within 24 hours, excluding weekends and legal holidays. A hearing is not required if the youth is released prior to the time of the required hearing.

(8) If probable cause is not found or if a probable cause hearing is not hold within the time specified

- (2) The probable cause hearing required under subsection (1) may be held by the youth court, a justice of the peace, a municipal or city judge, or a magistrate having jurisdiction in the case as provided in 41-5-203. If the probable cause hearing is held by a justice of the peace, a municipal or city judge, or a magistrate, a record of the hearing must be made by a court reporter or by a tape recording of the hearing.
- (3) A probable cause hearing may be conducted by telephone if other means of conducting the hearing are impractical. All written orders and findings of the court in a hearing conducted by telephone must bear the name of the judge or magistrate presiding in the case and the hour and date the order or findings were issued.

NEW SECTION. Section 13. Custody -- hearing for probable cause -- procedure. (1) At a probable cause hearing held pursuant to [section 12], the youth must be informed of the youth's constitutional rights

1	and the youth's rights under this chapter.
2	(2) A parent, guardian, or custodian of the youth may be held in contempt of court for failing to
3	be present at or to participate in the probable cause hearing unless the parent, guardian, or custodian:
4	(a) cannot be located through diligent efforts of the investigating peace officer or peace officers;
5	or
6	(b) is excused by the court for good cause.
7	(3) At the probable cause hearing, a guardian ad litem may be appointed as provided in 41-5-512.
9	NEW SECTION. Section 14. Custody hearing for probable cause determinations detention
10	release. (1) If, at a probable cause hearing held pursuant to [section 12], it is determined that there is
11	probable cause to believe the youth is a delinquent youth or a youth in need of supervision, the court
12	having jurisdiction in the case shall determine whether the youth should be retained in custody. If the court
13	determines that continued custody of the youth is necessary and if the youth meets the criteria in 41-5-305
14	or [section 16], the youth may be placed in a detention facility or shelter care facility as provided in
15	[sections 18 through 21] but may not be placed in a jail or other facility used for the confinement of adults
16	accused or convicted of criminal offenses.
17	(2) If probable cause is not found or if a probable cause hearing is not held within the time specified
18 -	in [section 12], the youth must be immediately released from custody.
19
20	Section 15. Section 41-5-305, MCA, is amended to read:
21	"41-5-305. Criteria for placement of youth in secure detention facilities or shelter care facilities.
22	(1) A youth may not be placed in a secure detention facility unless only if the youth:
23	(a)(1) he has allegedly committed an act that if committed by an adult would constitute a criminal
24	offense and the alleged offense is one specified in 41-5-206;

1	(v)(e) there are not adequate assurances that he the youth will appear for court when required; or
2	(vi)(f) he the youth meets additional criteria for secure detention established by the youth court in
3	the judicial district that has current jurisdiction over him the youth; or
4	(e)(3) he has been adjudicated delinquent and is awaiting final disposition of his the youth's case.
5	(2) A youth may not be placed in a shelter care facility unless:
6	(a) the youth and his family need shelter care to address their problematic situation when it is not
7	possible for the youth to remain at home;
8	(b) the youth needs to be protected from physical or emotional harm;
9	(e) the youth needs to be deterred or prevented from immediate repetition of his troubling behavior;
10	(d) shelter care is necessary to assess the youth and his environment;
11	(e) shelter care is necessary to provide adequate time for case planning and disposition; or
12	(f) shelter care is necessary to intervene in a crisis situation and provide intensive services or
13	attention that might alleviate the problem and rounite the family:"
14
15	NEW SECTION. Section 16. Criteria for placement of youth in shelter care facilities. A youth may
16	be placed in a shelter care facility only if:
17	(1) the youth and the youth's family need shelter care to address their problematic situation and
18	it is not possible for the youth to remain at home;
19	(2) the youth needs to be protected from physical or emotional harm;
20	(3) the youth needs to be deterred or prevented from immediate repetition of troubling behavior;
21	(4) shelter care is necessary to assess the youth and the youth's environment;
22	(5) shelter care is necessary to provide adequate time for case planning and disposition; or
23	(6) shelter care is necessary to intervene in a crisis situation and provide intensive services or
24	attention that might alleviate the problem and reunite the family.
25
26	Section 17. Section 41-5-306, MCA, is amended to read:
27	"41-5-306. Place of shelter care or detention Limitation on placement of youth in need of care.
28	(1) After a probable cause hearing provided for in 41 5 303, a youth alleged to be a youth in need of
29	supervision may be placed only:
30	(a) in a licensed youth foster home as defined in 41 3 1102;

1	(b) in a facility operated by a licensed child welfare agency;
2	(c) in a licensed youth group home as defined in 41-3-1102; or
3	(d) under home arrest, either in the youth's own home or in one of the facilities described in
4	subsections (1)(a) through (1)(c), as provided in Title 46, chapter 18, part 10.
5	(2) A youth alleged to be a youth in need of care may be placed only in the facilities listed in
6	subsection (1) shelter care, as provided in [section 20], and may not be placed in a jail or other facility
7	intended or used for the confinement of adults accused or convicted of criminal offenses.
8	(3) After a probable cause hearing provided for in 41 5 303, a youth alleged to be a delinquent
9	youth may be placed only:
10	(a) in the facilities described in subsection (1);

12	(c) in a short-term detention center;
13	(d) in a youth detention facility; or
14	(e) in a community youth court program."
16	NEW SECTION. Section 18. Limitation on placement of youth in need of supervision. (1) After
17	a probable cause hearing provided for in [section 12], a youth alleged to be a youth in need of supervision
18	may be placed only in shelter care, as provided in [section 20].
19	(2) A youth alleged or found to be a youth in need of supervision may not be placed in a jail, secure
20	detention facility, or correctional facility.
22	NEW SECTION. Section 19. Limitation on placement of delinquent youth. After a probable cause
23	hearing provided for in [section 12], a youth alleged to be a delinquent youth may be placed only:
24	(1) in shelter care, in the facilities described in [section 20];
25	(2) under home arrest as provided in [section 20];
26	(3) in detention, as provided in [section 21]; or
27	(4) in a community youth court program.
28
29	NEW SECTION. Section 20. Place of shelter care. Placement in shelter care means placement in
30	one of the following:

1	(1) in a licensed youth foster home as defined in 41-3-1102;
2	(2) in a facility operated by a licensed child welfare agency;
3	(3) in a licensed youth group home as defined in 41-3-1102; or
4	(4) under home arrest as provided in Title 46, chapter 18, part 10, either in the youth's own home
5	or in one of the facilities described in subsections (1) through (3).
7	NEW SECTION. Section 21. Place of detention. Placement in detention means placement in one
8	of the following facilities:
9	(1) a short-term detention center; or
10.	(2) a youth detention facility, including a regional detention facility.
11
12	Section 22. Section 41-5-307, MCA, is amended to read:
13	"41-5-307. Release or delivery from custody detention shelter care. (1) Whenever a peace
14	officer believes, on reasonable grounds, that a youth can be released to a responsible person who has
15	eustedy of the youth, then the peace officer may release the youth to that person upon receiving a written
16	promise from the person to bring the youth before the probation officer at a time and place specified in the
17	written promise, or a peace officer may release the youth under any other reasonable circumstances.
18	(2) Whenever the peace officer believes, on reasonable grounds, that the youth must be detained,
19	the peace officer shall notify the probation officer immediately and shall, as soon as practicable, provide
20	the probation officer with a written report of his the peace officer's reasons for holding the youth in
21	detention. If it is necessary to hold the youth pending appearance before the youth court, then the youth
22	must be held in a place of detention, as provided in [section 21], that is approved by the youth court.
23	(3) If the peace officer believes that the youth must be sheltered, the peace officer shall notify the

- (2) A youth who has allegedly committed an offense that if committed by an adult would constitute a criminal offense may be temporarily detained in a jail or other adult detention facility for a period not to exceed:
- (a) 6 hours, but in no case overnight, for the purpose of identification, processing, or transfer of the youth to an appropriate detention facility or shelter care facility; or
- (b) 24 hours, excluding weekends and legal holidays, if the youth is awaiting a probable cause hearing pursuant to 41-5-303 [section 12].
 - (3) The exception provided for in subsection (2)(b) applies only if:
 - (a) the court having jurisdiction over the youth is outside a metropolitan statistical area;
- (b) alternative facilities are not available or alternative facilities do not provide adequate security;
 and
 - (c) the youth is kept in an area that provides physical as well as sight and sound separation from adults accused or convicted of criminal offenses.
 - (4) Whenever, despite all good faith efforts to comply with the time limitations specified in subsection (2), the limitations are exceeded, this circumstance does not serve as grounds for dismissal of the case nor does this circumstance constitute a defense in a subsequent delinquency or criminal proceeding."

- Section 24. Section 41-5-403, MCA, is amended to read:
- "41-5-403. Disposition permitted under informal adjustment -- contributions by parents or guardians for youth's care. (1) The following dispositions may be imposed by informal adjustment:
 - (a) probation;
- (b) placement of the youth in substitute care in a youth care facility, as defined in 41-3-1102, and as determined by the department;
- (c) placement of the youth with a private agency responsible for the care and rehabilitation of the youth as determined by the department;
 - (d) restitution upon approval of the youth court judge and subject to the provisions of [section 37];
- 29 (e) placement of the youth under home arrest as provided in Title 46, chapter 18, part 10.
 - (2) In determining whether restitution is appropriate in a particular case, the following factors may be considered in addition to any other evidence:

2	(a)—age of the youth;
3	(b) ability of the youth to pay;
4	(e) ability of the parents, logal guardian, or persons contributing to the youth's delinquency or need
5	for supervision to pay;
6	(d) amount of damage to the victim; and
7	(e) logal remedies of the victim. However, the ability of the victim or the victim's insurer to stand
8	any loss may not be considered in any case.
9	(3)(2) If the youth violates an aftercare agreement as provided for in 52-5-126, the youth must be
10	returned to the court for further disposition. A youth may not be placed in a state youth correctional facility
11	under informal adjustment.
12	(4)(3) If the youth is placed in substitute care requiring payment by the department, the court, as
13	provided in [section 35], shall examine the financial ability of the youth's parents or guardians to pay a
14	contribution covering all or part of the costs for the care, placement, and treatment of the youth, including
15	the costs of necessary medical, dental, and other health care.
16	(5)(4) If the court determines that the youth's parents or guardians are financially able to pay a
17	contribution as provided in subsection (4)(3), the court shall order the youth's parents or guardians to pay
18.	an amount based on the uniform child support guidelines adopted by the department of public health and
19	human services pursuant to 40-5-209.
20	(6) (a) Except as provided in subsection (6)(b), contributions ordered under this section and each
21	modification of an existing order are enforceable by immediate or delinquency income withholding, or both,
22	under Title 40, chapter 5, part 4. An order for contribution that is inconsistent with this section is
23	nevertheless subject to withholding for the payment of the contribution without need for an emendment
24	of the support order or for any further action by the court.
25	(b) A court ordered exception from contributions under this section must be in writing and be
26	included in the order. An exception from the immediate income withholding requirement may be granted
27	if the court finds there is:
28	(i) good cause not to require immediate income withholding; or
29	(ii) an alternative arrangement between the department and the person who is ordered to pay
30	contributions:

1	(e) A finding of good cause not to require immediate income withholding must, at a minimum, be
2	based upon:
3	(i) a written determination and explanation by the court of the reasons why the implementation of
4	immediate income withholding is not in the best interests of the child; and
5	(ii) proof of timely payment of previously ordered support in cases involving modification of
6	contributions ordered under this section.
7	(d) An alternative arrangement must:
8	(i) provide sufficient security to ensure compliance with the arrangement;
9	(ii) be in writing and be signed by a representative of the department and the person required to
10	make contributions; and
11	(iii) if approved by the court, be entered into the record of the proceeding.
12	(7) (a) If the court orders the payment of contributions under this section, the department shall
13	apply to the department of public health and human services for support enforcement services pursuant
14	to Title IV-D of the Social Security Act.
15	(b) The department of public health and human services may collect and enforce a contribution
16	order under this section by any means available under law, including the remedies provided for in Title 40,
17	chapter 5, parts 2 and 4."
18
19	Section 25. Section 41-5-502, MCA, is amended to read:
20	"41-5-502. Summons. (1) After a petition has been filed, summons must be served directly to:
21	(a) the youth;
22	(b) his the youth's parent or parents having actual custody of the youth or his the youth's guardian
23	or custodian, as the case may be; and
24	(c) other persons as the court may direct.
25	(2) The summons must:
26	(a) require the parties to whom it is directed to appear personally before the court at the time fixed
27	by the summons to answer the allegations of the petition;
28	(b) advise the parties of their right to counsel under the Montana Youth Court Act; and physical custody or control of the youth to bring the youth to the hearing.
29	(c) have attached to it a copy of the petition.

- (4) If it appears to the court that the youth needs to be placed in detention or shelter care, the judge may endorse on the summons an order directing the officer serving the summons to at once take the youth into custody and to take him the youth to the place of detention or shelter care designated by the court, subject to the rights of the youth and parent or person having legal custody of the youth as set forth in the provisions of the Montana Youth Court Act relating to detention and shelter care criteria and postdetention proceedings.
- (5) If any a youth is placed in detention or shelter care under any provision of this chapter pending an adjudication, the court shall, as soon as practicable, conduct a probable cause hearing as provided in 41 5 303 [section 12].
- (6) The youth court judge may also admit the youth to bail in accordance with Title 46, chapter 9."

13 Section 26. Section 41-5-521, MCA, is amended to read:

- "41-5-521. Adjudicatory hearing. (1) Prior to any adjudicatory hearing, the court shall determine whether the youth admits or denies the offenses alleged in the petition. If the youth denies all offenses alleged in the petition, the youth or the youth's parent, guardian, or attorney may demand a jury trial on the contested offenses. In the absence of a demand, a jury trial is waived. If the youth denies some offenses and admits others, the contested offenses may be dismissed in the discretion of the youth court judge. The adjudicatory hearing must be set immediately and accorded a preferential priority.
- (2) An adjudicatory hearing must be held to determine whether the contested offenses are supported by proof beyond a reasonable doubt in cases involving a youth alleged to be delinquent or in need of supervision. If the hearing is before a jury, the jury's function is to determine whether the youth committed the contested offenses. If the hearing is before the youth court judge without a jury, the judge shall make and record findings on all issues. If the allegations of the petitions are not established at the hearing, the youth court shall dismiss the petition and discharge the youth from custody.
- (3) An adjudicatory hearing must be recorded verbatim by whatever means the court considers appropriate.
- (4) The youth charged in a petition must be present at the hearing and, if brought from detention to the hearing, may not appear clothed in institutional clothing.

- 19 -

- (5) In a hearing on a petition under this section, the general public may not be excluded, except that in the court's discretion, the general public may be excluded if the petition does not allege alleges that the youth is delinquent in need of supervision.
- (6) If, on the basis of a valid admission by a youth of the allegations of the petition or after the hearing required by this section, a youth is found to be a delinquent youth or a youth in need of supervision, the court shall schedule a dispositional hearing under this chapter.
- (7) When a jury trial is required in a case, it may be held before a jury selected as provided in Title 25, chapter 7, part 2, and in Rule 47, M.R.Civ.P."

Section 27. Section 41-5-522, MCA, is amended to read:

- "41-5-522. Dispositional hearing. (1) As soon as practicable after a youth is found to be a delinquent youth or a youth in need of supervision, the court shall conduct a dispositional hearing. The dispositional hearing may involve a determination of the financial ability of the youth's parents or guardians to pay a contribution for the cost of care, commitment, and treatment of the youth as required in 41-5-523 [section 35].
- predisposition report be made in writing by a probation officer concerning the youth, the youth's family, the youth's environment, and other matters relevant to the need for care or rehabilitation or disposition of the case. The youth court may have the youth examined, and the results of the examination must be made available to the court as part of the social summary or predisposition report. The court may order the examination of a parent or guardian whose ability to care for or supervise a youth is at issue before the court. The results of the examination must be included in the social summary or predisposition report. The youth or the youth's parents, guardian, or counsel has the right to subpoena all persons who have prepared any portion of the social summary or predisposition report and has the right to cross-examine the parties at the dispositional hearing.
- (3) Defense counsel must be furnished with a copy of the social summary or predisposition report and psychological report prior to the dispositional hearing.
- (4) The dispositional hearing must be conducted in the manner set forth in subsections (3), (4), and (5) of 41-5-521. The court shall hear all evidence relevant to a proper disposition of the case best serving the interests of the youth and the public. The evidence must include but is not limited to the social

1	summary and predisposition report provided for in subsection (2) of this section.
2	(5) If the court finds that it is in the best interest of the youth, the youth or the youth's parents
3	or guardian may be temporarily excluded from the hearing during the taking of evidence on the issues o
4	need for treatment and rehabilitation.
5	(6) In determining whether restitution, as authorized by 41 5 523, is appropriate in a particula
6	case, the following factors may be considered in addition to any other evidence:
7	(a) age of the youth;
8	(b) ability of the youth to pay;
9	(a) ability of the parents, legal guardian, or those that contributed to the youth's delinquency of
10	need for supervision to pay;
11	(d) amount of damage to the victim; and
12	(e) logal remedies of the victim. However, the ability of the victim or the victim's insurer to stand
14
15	Section 28. Section 41-5-523, MCA, is amended to read:
16	"41-5-523. Disposition of youth in need of supervision — sentence to correctional facility—
17	commitment to department placement and evaluation of youth restrictions. (1) If a youth is found to
18	be a delinquent youth or a youth in need of supervision, the youth court may enter its judgment making
19	one or more of the following dispositions:
20	(a) retain jurisdiction in a disposition provided under subsection (1)(b) or (1)(d);
21	(b)(1) place the youth on probation. The youth court retains jurisdiction in a disposition under this
22	subsection.
23	(a) subject to subsections (1)(n)(i), (2)(a), (2)(b), and (6), sentence a youth to one of the state
24	youth correctional facilities established under 52 5 101 and, as part of the sentence, dony the youth
25	eligibility for release without the express approval of the sentencing judge until the youth reaches 18 years
26	of age. A youth may not be sentenced to a state youth correctional facility unless the department informs
27	the judge that space is available for the youth at that facility. The sentencing judge may not place
28	limitations on the release unless recommended by the youth placement committee.
29	(d) require a youth found to be delinquent to register as a sex offender pursuant to 46-18-254 and
30	4 6-23-506;

1	(e)(2) place the youth in an in-state residence that ensures that the youth is accountable, provides
2	for rehabilitation, and protects the public. Before placement, the sentencing judge shall seek and consider
3	placement recommendations from the youth placement committee. The judge may not place the youth in
4	an in-state residence unless the department informs the judge that resources are available for placement
5	of the youth at that residence.
6	$\frac{(f)(3)(a)}{(a)}$ commit the youth to the department. In an order committing a youth to the department:
7	(i) the court shall determine whether continuation in the youth's own home would be contrary to
8	the welfare of the youth and whether reasonable efforts have been made to prevent or eliminate the need
9	for removal of the youth from the youth's home;
10	(b) The department may not place a youth in need of supervision in a state youth correctional
11	facility.
12	(ii) in the case of a delinquent youth who is determined by the court to be a serious juvenile
13	effender, the judge may specify that the youth be placed in a state youth correctional facility if the judge
14	finds that the placement is necessary for the protection of the public. The court may order the department
15	to notify the court within 5 working days before the proposed release of a youth from a youth correctional
16	facility. Once a youth is committed to the department for placement in a state youth correctional facility,
17	the department is responsible for determining an appropriate date of release into an appropriate placement.
18.	(g)(4) order restitution by the youth or the youth's parents or quardians, subject to the provisions
19	of [section 37];
20	(h)(5) impose a fine as authorized by law if the violation alleged would constitute a criminal offense
21	if committed by an adult;
22	(i)(6) require the performance of community service;
23	$\frac{1}{1}$ require the youth, the youth's parents or guardians, or the persons having legal custody of
24	the youth to receive counseling services;
25	(k)[8] require the medical and psychological evaluation of the youth, the youth's parents or
26	guardians, or the persons having legal custody of the youth;
27	(1) require the parents, guardians, or other persons having legal custody of the youth to furnish
28	services the court may designate;
29	(m)(10) subject to the provisions of subsection (11), order further care, treatment, evaluation, or relief that the court considers beneficial to the youth and the community and that does not obligate funding

	monthle department for services outside the state of Montana without the department's approval, except
2	that a youth may not be placed by a youth court in a residential treatment facility as defined in 50-5-101.
3	Only the department may, pursuant to subsection (1)(f), place a youth in a residential treatment facility.
4	(n)(11) subject to the provisions of [section 31], commit the youth to a mental health facility if
5	based upon the testimony of a professional person as defined in 53-21-102, the court finds that the youth
6	is seriously mentally ill as defined in 53-21-102 . The youth is entitled to all rights provided by 53-21-114
7	through 53 21 119-;
8	(i) A youth adjudicated mentally ill or seriously mentally ill as defined in 53-21-102 may not be
9	committed or sentenced to a state youth correctional facility.
10	(ii) A youth adjudicated to be mentally ill or seriously mentally ill after placement in or sentencing
11	to a state youth correctional facility must be moved to a more appropriate placement in response to the
12	youth's mental health needs and consistent with the disposition alternatives available in 53 21 127.
13	(0)(12) place the youth under home arrest as provided in Title 46, chapter 18, part 10.
14	(2) When a youth is committed to the department, the department shall determine the appropriate
15	placement and rehabilitation program for the youth after considering the recommendations made under
16	41-5-527 by the youth placement committee. Placement is subject to the following limitations:
17	(a) A youth in need of supervision or adjudicated delinquent for commission of an act that would
18	not be a criminal offense if committed by an adult may not be placed in a state youth correctional facility.
19	(b) A youth may not be hold in a state youth correctional facility for a period of time in excess of
20	the maximum period of imprisonment that could be imposed on an adult convicted of the offense or
21	offenses that brought the youth under the jurisdiction of the youth court. This section does not limit the
22	power of the department to enter into an aftercare agreement with the youth pursuant to 52 5 126.
23	(e) A youth may not be placed in or transferred to a penal institution or other facility used for the
24	execution of sentence of adults convicted of crimes.
25	(3) A youth placed in a state youth correctional facility or other facility or program operated by the
26	department or who signs an aftercare agreement under 52-5-126 must be supervised by the department.
27	A youth who is placed in any other placement by the department, the youth court, or the youth court's
28	juvenile probation officer must be supervised by the probation officer of the youth court having jurisdiction
29	over the youth under 41-5-205 whether or not the youth is committed to the department. Supervision by
30	the youth probation officer includes but is not limited to:

1	(a) submitting information and documentation necessary for the person, committee, or toam that
2	is making the placement recommendation to determine an appropriate placement for the youth;
3	(b) securing approval for payment of special education costs from the youth's school district of
4	residence or the office of public instruction, as required in Title 20, chapter 7, part 4;
5	(c) submitting an application to a facility in which the youth may be placed; and
6	(d) case management of the youth.
7	(4) The youth court may order a youth to receive a medical or psychological evaluation at any time
8	prior to final disposition if the youth waives the youth's constitutional rights in the manner provided for in
9	41 5-303. The county determined by the court as the residence of the youth is responsible for the cost of
10	the evaluation, except as provided in subsection (5). A county may contract with the department or other
11:	public or private agencies to obtain evaluation services ordered by the court.
12	(5) The youth court shall determine the financial ability of the youth's parents to pay the cost of
13	an evaluation ordered by the court under subsection (4). If they are financially able, the court shall order
14	the youth's parents to pay all or part of the cost of the evaluation.
15	(6) The youth court may not order placement or evaluation of a youth at a state youth correctional
16	facility unless the youth is found to be a delinquent youth or is alleged to have committed an effence that
17	is transferable to criminal court under 41.5.206.
18	(7) An evaluation of a youth may not be performed at the Montana state hospital unless the youth
19	is transferred to the district court under 41-5-206, 41-5-208, or 41-5-1105.
20	(8) An order of the court may be modified at any time. In the case of a youth committed to the
21	department, an order pertaining to the youth may be modified only upon notice to the department and
22	subsequent hearing.
23	(9) Whenever the court commits a youth to the department, it shall transmit with the dispositional
24	judgment copies of medical reports, social history material, education records, and any other clinical,
25	predisposition, or other reports and information pertinent to the care and treatment of the youth.
26	(10) If a youth is committed to the department, the court shall examine the financial ability of the
27	youth's parents or guardians to pay a contribution covering all or part of the costs for the care,
28	commitment, and treatment of the youth, including the costs of necessary medical, dental, and other health
29	care.
30	(11) If the court determines that the youth's parents or guardians are financially able to pay a

contribution as provided in subsection (10), the court shall order the youth's parents or guardians to pa
an amount based on the uniform child support guidelines adopted by the department of public health an human services pursuant to 40-5-209.
(12) (a) Except as provided in subsection (12)(b), contributions ordered under this section and each modification of an existing order are enforceable by immediate or delinquency income withholding, or both under Title 40, chapter 5, part 4. An order for contribution that is inconsistent with this section i nevertheless subject to withhelding for the payment of the contribution without need for an amendmen of the support order or for any further action by the court.
(b) A court ordered exception from contributions under this section must be in writing and be included in the order. An exception from the immediate income withhelding requirement may be granted
if the court finds there is:
(i) good cause not to require immediate income withholding; or
(ii) an alternative arrangement between the department and the person who is ordered to particularly contributions.
(c) A finding of good cause not to require immediate income withholding must, at a minimum, be
based upon:
(i) a written determination and explanation by the court of the reasons why the implementation of immediate income withholding is not in the best interests of the youth; and
(ii) proof of timely payment of proviously ordered support in cases involving modification o contributions ordered under this section.
(d) An alternative arrangement must:
(i) provide sufficient security to ensure compliance with the arrangement;
(ii) be in writing and be signed by a representative of the department and the person required to make contributions; and
(iii) if approved by the court, be entered into the record of the proceeding.
(13) Upon a showing of a change in the financial ability of the youth's parents or guardians to pay the court may modify its order for the payment of contributions required under subsection (11).
(14) (a) If the court orders the payment of contributions under this section, the department she apply to the department of public health and human services for support enforcement services pursuan

to Title IV-D of the Social Security Act.

(b) The department of public health and human services may collect and enforce a contribution order under this section by any means available under law, including the remedies provided for in Title 40, chapter 5, parts 2 and 4."

NEW SECTION. Section 29. Disposition of delinquent youth -- restrictions. (1) If a youth is found to be a delinquent youth, the youth court may enter its judgment making one or more of the following dispositions:

- (a) any one or more of the dispositions provided in 41-5-523;
- (b) subject to 41-5-523(3)(b), [sections 30(1), 31(2)], and subsection (2) of this section, sentence a youth to one of the state youth correctional facilities established under 52-5-101 and, as part of the sentence, deny the youth eligibility for release without the express approval of the sentencing judge until the youth reaches 18 years of age. A youth may not be sentenced to a state youth correctional facility unless the department informs the judge that space is available for the youth at that facility. The sentencing judge may not place limitations on the release unless recommended by the youth placement committee.
- (c) require a youth found to be delinquent, as the result of the commission of an offense that would be a violation of 45-5-501 through 45-5-504, 45-5-507, or 45-5-511 if committed by an adult, to register as a sex offender pursuant to 46-18-254 and 46-23-506. The youth court retains jurisdiction in a disposition under this subsection.
- (d) in the case of a delinquent youth who is determined by the court to be a serious juvenile offender, the judge may specify that the youth be placed in a state youth correctional facility if the judge finds that the placement is necessary for the protection of the public. The court may order the department to notify the court within 5 working days before the proposed release of a youth from a youth correctional facility. Once a youth is committed to the department for placement in a state youth correctional facility, the department is responsible for determining an appropriate date of release into an appropriate placement.
- (2) The youth court may not order placement of a youth at a state youth correctional facility unless the youth is found to be a delinquent youth or is alleged to have committed an offense that is transferable to criminal court under 41-5-206.

NEW SECTION. Section 30. Disposition -- commitment to department -- restrictions on placement.

When a youth is committed to the department, the department shall determine the appropriate placement and rehabilitation program for the youth after considering the recommendations made under 41-5-527 by the youth placement committee. Placement is subject to the limitations contained in 41-5-523(3)(b) and the following limitations:

- (1) A youth may not be held in a state youth correctional facility for a period of time in excess of the maximum period of imprisonment that could be imposed on an adult convicted of the offense or offenses that brought the youth under the jurisdiction of the youth court. This section does not limit the power of the department to enter into an aftercare agreement with the youth pursuant to 52-5-126.
- (2) A youth may not be placed in or transferred to a penal institution or other facility used for the execution of sentence of adults convicted of crimes.
- (3) The department may not place a youth adjudicated delinquent for commission of an act that would not be a criminal offense if committed by an adult in a state youth correctional facility.

NEW SECTION. Section 31. Disposition -- finding of mentally ill or seriously mentally ill -- rights -- limitation on placement. (1) A youth who is found to be seriously mentally ill as defined in 53-21-102 is entitled to all rights provided by 53-21-114 through 53-21-119.

- (2) A youth who, prior to placement or sentencing, is found to be mentally ill, as defined in 41-5-103, or seriously mentally ill, as defined in 53-21-102, may not be committed or sentenced to a state youth correctional facility.
- (3) A youth who is found to be mentally ill or seriously mentally ill after placement in or sentencing to a state youth correctional facility must be moved to a more appropriate placement in response to the youth's mental health needs and consistent with the disposition alternatives available in 53-21-127.

- NEW SECTION. Section 32. Disposition -- commitment to department -- supervision. (1) A youth placed in a state youth correctional facility or other facility or program operated by the department or who signs an aftercare agreement under 52-5-126 must be supervised by the department.
- (2) A youth who is placed in any other placement by the department, the youth court, or the youth court's juvenile probation officer must be supervised by the probation officer of the youth court having jurisdiction over the youth under 41-5-205 whether or not the youth is committed to the department. Supervision by the youth probation officer includes but is not limited to:
 - (a) submitting information and documentation necessary for the person, committee, or team that is making the placement re	ecommendation to determine a	n appropriate i	placement for the	youth

----------------------------	------------------------------	-----------------	-------------------	-------

- (b) securing approval for payment of special education costs from the youth's school district of residence or the office of public instruction, as required in Title 20, chapter 7, part 4;
 - (c) submitting an application to a facility in which the youth may be placed; and
 - (d) case management of the youth.

NEW SECTION. Section 33. Disposition -- commitment to department -- transfer of records. Whenever the court commits a youth to the department, it shall transmit with the dispositional judgment copies of medical reports, social history material, education records, and any other clinical, predisposition, or other reports and information pertinent to the care and treatment of the youth.

- NEW SECTION. Section 34. Modification of court orders -- notice to department -- hearing. (1)

 An order of the court may be modified at any time.
- (2) In the case of a youth committed to the department, an order pertaining to the youth may be modified only upon notice to the department and subsequent hearing.

- NEW SECTION. Section 35. Contribution for costs -- order for contribution -- exceptions -- collection. (1) If a youth is committed to the department, the court shall examine the financial ability of the youth's parents or guardians to pay a contribution covering all or part of the costs for the care, commitment, and treatment of the youth, including the costs of necessary medical, dental, and other health care.
- (2) If the court determines that the youth's parents or guardians are financially able to pay a contribution as provided in subsection (1), the court shall order the youth's parents or guardians to pay an amount based on the uniform child support guidelines adopted by the department of public health and human services pursuant to 40-5-209.
- (3) (a) Except as provided in subsection (3)(b), contributions ordered under 41-5-403 and this section and each modification of an existing order are enforceable by immediate or delinquency income withholding, or both, under Title 40, chapter 5, part 4. An order for contribution that is inconsistent with this section is nevertheless subject to withholding for the payment of the contribution without need for an amendment of the support order or for any further action by the court.

1	(b) A court-ordered exception from contributions under 41-5-403 or this section must be in writing
2	and must be included in the order. An exception from the immediate income withholding requirement may
3	be granted if the court finds that there is:
4	(i) good cause not to require immediate income withholding; or
5	(ii) an alternative arrangement between the department and the person who is ordered to pay
6	contributions.
7	(c) A finding of good cause not to require immediate income withholding must, at a minimum, be
8	based upon:
9	(i) a written determination and explanation by the court of the reasons why the implementation of
0	immediate income withholding is not in the best interests of the youth; and
11	(ii) proof of timely payment of previously ordered support in cases involving modification of
2	contributions ordered under this section.
3	(d) An alternative arrangement must:
4	(i) provide sufficient security to ensure compliance with the arrangement;
15	(ii) be in writing and be signed by a representative of the department and the person required to
6	make contributions; and
7	(iii) if approved by the court, be entered into the record of the proceeding.
8	(4) Upon a showing of a change in the financial ability of the youth's parents or guardians to pay,
9	the court may modify its order for the payment of contributions required under 41-5-403 or subsection (2).
20	(5) (a) If the court orders the payment of contributions under 41-5-403 or this section, the
21	department shall apply to the department of public health and human services for support enforcement
22	services pursuant to Title IV-D of the Social Security Act.
23	(b) The department of public health and human services may collect and enforce a contribution
24	order under 41-5-403 or this section by any means available under law, including the remedies provided
25	for in Title 40, chapter 5, parts 2 and 4.

NEW SECTION. Section 36. Disposition -- medical or psychological evaluation of youth -- costs.

(1) The youth court may order a youth to receive a medical or psychological evaluation at any time prior to final disposition if the youth waives the youth's constitutional rights in the manner provided for in 41-5-303. Except as provided in subsection (2), the county determined by the court as the residence of ı	the youth is responsible for the cost of the evaluation. A county may contract with the department of other

2	public or private agencies to obtain evaluation services ordered by the court.
3	(2) The youth court shall determine the financial ability of the youth's parents or guardians to pay
4	the cost of an evaluation ordered by the court under subsection (1). If they are financially able, the court
5	shall order the youth's parents or guardians to pay all or part of the cost of the evaluation.
6	(3) The youth court may not order evaluation of a youth at a state youth correctional facility unless
7	the youth is found to be a delinquent youth or is alleged to have committed an offense that is transferable
8	to district court under 41-5-206.
9	(4) An evaluation of a youth may not be performed at the Montana state hospital unless the youth
10	is transferred to the district court under 41-5-206, 41-5-208, or 41-5-1105.
12	NEW SECTION. Section 37. Restitution. (1) In determining whether restitution, as authorized by
13	41-5-403 and 41-5-523, is appropriate in a particular case, the following factors may be considered in
14	addition to any other evidence:
15	(a) age of the youth;
16	(b) ability of the youth to pay;
17	(c) ability of the parents, legal guardian, or those that contributed to the youth's delinquency or
18	need for supervision to pay;
19	(d) amount of damage to the victim; and
20	(e) legal remedies of the victim. However, the ability of the victim or the victim's insurer to stand
21	any loss may not be considered in any case.
22	(2) Restitution paid by a youth or a youth's parents or guardians is subject to subrogation as
23	provided in 46-18-248.

3	state youth correctional facility regarding the discharge of a youth from the facility.

- (2) The committee consists of not less than five members and must include persons who are knowledgeable about the youth, treatment and placement options, and other resources appropriate to address the needs of the youth. Members may include:
 - (a) two representatives of the department;
 - (b) a representative of the department of public health and human services;
- (c) either the chief probation officer or the youth's probation officer;
 - (d) a mental health professional;
 - (e) a representative of a school district located within the boundaries of the judicial district;
 - (f) if an Indian child or children are involved, someone, preferably an Indian person, knowledgeable about Indian culture and family matters:
 - (g) a parent or guardian; and
- 15 (h) a youth services provider.
- 16 (3) Committee members serve without compensation.
- 17 (4) Notwithstanding the provisions of 41-5-527, the committee may be convened by the department or the probation officer of the youth court."

Section 39. Section 41-5-527, MCA, is amended to read:

- "41-5-527. Youth placement committee to submit recommendation to department -- acceptance or rejection of recommendation by department. (1) Prior to commitment of a youth to the department pursuant to 41-5-523 or [section 29], a youth placement committee must be convened. The committee shall submit in writing to the department and to the youth court judge its primary and alternative recommendations for placement of the youth.
- (2) If the department accepts either of the committee's recommendations, it shall promptly notify the committee in writing.
- (3) If the department rejects both of the committee's recommendations, it shall promptly notify the committee in writing of the reasons for rejecting the recommendations and shall make an appropriate placement for the youth.

. (4)	Within	72	hours	after	making	а	decision	on	а	placement	or	change	of	placement,	the department	shall no	otify	the yo	outh co	ourt of th	те	decision a	and	of	the placem	ent	or chang	ge d	of placement	t."

Section 40. Section 41-5-530, MCA, is amended to read:

"41-5-530. Parental contributions account -- allocation of proceeds. (1) There is a parental contributions account in the state special revenue fund.

- (2) Contributions paid by the parents and guardians of youth under 41-3-406, 41-5-403, 41-5-523 [section 35], or 41-5-524 must be deposited in the account.
- (3) All money in the account, except any amount required to be returned to federal or county sources, is allocated to the department of public health and human services to carry out its duties under 52-1-103."

- Section 41. Section 41-5-1004, MCA, is amended to read:
- "41-5-1004. Distribution of grants -- limitation of funding -- restrictions on use. (1) The board shall award grants on an equitable basis, giving preference to services that will be used on a regional basis.
 - (2) The board shall award grants to eligible counties:
- 17 (a) in a block grant in an amount not to exceed 50% of the approved, estimated cost of secure detention; or
 - (b) on a matching basis in an amount not to exceed:
 - (i) 75% of the approved cost of providing holdovers, attendant care, and other alternatives to secure detention, except for shelter care. Shelter care must be paid as provided by law.
 - (ii) 50% of the approved cost of programs for the transportation of youth to appropriate detention or shelter care facilities, including regional detention facilities.
 - (3) Based on funding available after the board has funded block grants under subsection (2), the board shall, in cases of extreme hardship in which the transfer of youth court cases to the adult system has placed considerable financial strain on a county's resources, award grants to eligible counties to fund up to 75% of the actual costs of secure detention of youth awaiting transfer. Hardship cases will be addressed at the end of the fiscal year and will be awarded by the board based upon a consideration of the applicant county's past 3 years' expenditures for youth detention and upon consideration of the particular case or cases that created the hardship expenditure for which the hardship grant is requested.

(4) Grants under 41-5-1002 may not be used to pay for the cost of youth evaluations	The cost of evaluations must be paid as provided for in 41-5-523 [section 36]."

Section 42. Section 41-5-1104, MCA, is amended to read:

"41-5-1104. Disposition in extended jurisdiction prosecutions. (1) If a youth in an extended jurisdiction prosecution pleads guilty to or is found guilty of an offense described in 41-5-1102(1)(b), the court shall:

- (a) impose one or more juvenile dispositions under 41 5 523 [section 29]; and
- (b) impose an adult criminal sentence, the execution of which must be stayed on the condition that the youth not violate the provisions of the disposition order and not commit a new offense. If the youth violates the conditions of the stay or commits a new offense, the adult criminal sentence must be executed as provided in 41-5-1105.
- (2) Except as provided in subsection (3), if a youth in an extended jurisdiction prosecution is convicted of an offense not described in 41-5-1102(1)(b), the court shall adjudicate the youth delinquent and order a disposition under 41-5-523 [section 29].
- (3) If a youth in an extended jurisdiction prosecution pleads guilty to an offense not described in 41-5-1102(1)(b), the court may impose, with the youth's consent, a disposition provided under subsection (1)(b) of this section. If the youth does not consent to disposition under subsection (1)(b), the court shall impose a disposition as provided under subsection (2)."

- Section 43. Section 46-24-207, MCA, is amended to read:
- "46-24-207. Victims and witnesses of juvenile felony offenses -- consultation -- notification of proceedings. (1) The attorney general shall ensure that the services and assistance that must be provided under this chapter to a victim or witness of a crime are also provided to the victim or witness of a juvenile felony offense.
- (2) In a proceeding filed under Title 41, chapter 5, part $14 or 15, the county attorney or a designee shall consult with the victim of a juvenile felony offense or, in the case of a minor victim or a homicide victim, with the victim's family regarding the disposition of the case, including:
 - (a) a dismissal of the petition filed under 41-5-501;
- (b) a reduction of the charge to misdemeanor;

- 33 - HB 114

- (c) the release of the youth from detention or shelter care pending the adjudicatory hearing; and
- (d) the disposition of the youth.
- (3) (a) Whenever possible, a person described in subsection (3)(b) who provides the youth court with a current address and telephone number must receive prompt advance notification of youth court case proceedings, including:
 - (i) the filing of a petition under 41-5-501;
 - (ii) the release of the youth from detention or shelter care; and
- (iii) proceedings in the adjudication of the petition, including, when applicable, entry of a consent decree under 41-5-524, the setting of a date for the adjudicatory hearing under 41-5-521, the setting of a date for the dispositional hearing under 41-5-522, the disposition made, and the release of the youth from a youth correctional facility.
- (b) A person entitled to notification under this subsection (3) must be a victim of a juvenile felony offense, an adult relative of the victim if the victim is a minor, or an adult relative of a homicide victim.
- (c) The court shall provide to the department the list of people entitled to notification under this subsection (3), and the department is responsible to provide the notification.
- (4) For purposes of this section, "juvenile felony offense" means an offense committed by a juvenile that, if committed by an adult, would constitute a felony offense. The term includes any offense for which a juvenile may be declared a serious juvenile offender, as defined in 41-5-103."

Section 44. Section 52-5-129, MCA, is amended to read:

"52-5-129. Hearing on alleged violation of aftercare agreement -- right to appeal outcome. (1) When it is alleged by an aftercare counselor that a youth has violated the terms of the youth's aftercare agreement, the youth must be granted a hearing at the site of the alleged violation or in the county in which the youth is residing or is found within 10 days after notice has been served on the youth or the youth is detained, whichever is earlier. The purpose of the hearing is to determine whether the youth committed the violation and, if so, whether the violation is of such a nature that the youth should be returned to the youth correctional facility from which the youth was released or a different plan for treatment should be pursued by the department of corrections.

- (2) The youth, upon advice of an attorney, may waive the right to a hearing.
- (3) With regard to this hearing, the youth must be given:

- 34 -

- (a) written notice of the alleged violation of the aftercare agreement, including notice of the purpose of the hearing;
 - (b) a disclosure of the evidence against the youth and the facts constituting the alleged violation;
- (c) the opportunity to be heard in person and to present witnesses and documentary evidence to controvert the evidence against the youth and to show that there are compelling reasons that justify or mitigate the violation;
 - (d) the opportunity to have the referee hearings officer subpoena witnesses;
 - (e) the right to confront and cross-examine adverse witnesses;
 - (f) the right to be represented by an attorney;
 - (g) a record of the hearing; and
 - (h) notice that a written statement as to the evidence relied upon in reaching the final decision and the reasons for the final decision will be provided by the referee hearings officer.
 - (4) The department shall appoint a referee hearings officer, who may not be an employee of the department, to conduct the hearing. In the conduct of the hearing, the department may request the county attorney's assistance as necessary. The department shall adopt rules necessary to effect a prompt and full review.
 - (5) If the referee hearings officer finds, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the youth did in fact commit the violation, the referee hearings officer shall make a recommendation to the department for the placement of the youth. In making this recommendation, the referee hearings officer may consider mitigating circumstances. Final approval rests with the department and must be made within 10 days of the referee's hearings officer's recommendation.
 - (6) The youth may appeal from the decision at the hearing to the district court of the county in which the hearing was held by serving and filing a notice of appeal with the court within 10 days of the department's decision. The youth may obtain a written transcript of the hearing from the department by giving written notice of appeal. The district court, upon receipt of a notice of appeal, shall order the department to promptly certify to the court a record of all proceedings before the department and shall proceed to a prompt hearing on the appeal based upon the record on appeal. The decision of the department may not be altered except for abuse of discretion or manifest injustice.
 - (7) Pending the hearing on a violation and pending the department's decision, a youth may not be detained except when the youth's detention or care is required to protect the person or property of the youth or of others or the youth may abscond or be removed from the community. The department shall determine the place and manner of detention and is responsible for the cost of the detention. Procedures for taking into custody and detention of a youth charged with violation of the youth's aftercare agreement are as provided in 41-5-303, 41-5-306, 41-5-311, and 41-5-314, [sections 12 through 14], and [sections 18 through 21].

(8) If the decision is made to return the youth to the youth correctional facility from which the youth was released and the youth appeals that decision, the youth shall await the outcome of the appeal at the facility."

Section 45. Section 53-9-107, MCA, is amended to read:

- "53-9-107. Public inspection and disclosure of division's records. (1) Except as provided in subsections (2) and (3), the records the division maintains in its possession in the administration of this part are open to public inspection and disclosure.
- (2) Confidential criminal justice information obtained by the division is subject to the confidentiality provisions of the Montana Criminal Justice Information Act of 1979, Title 44, chapter 5. Information regarding youth court proceedings obtained by the division is subject to the confidentiality provisions of Title 41, chapter 5, part 6.
- (3) In assuring that the right of individual privacy so essential to the well-being of a free society may not be infringed without the showing of a compelling state interest, the following public records of the division are exempt from disclosure:
- (a) information of a personal nature, such as personal, medical, or similar information, if the public disclosure thereof would constitute an unreasonable invasion of privacy, unless the public interest by clear and convincing evidence requires disclosure in the particular instance. The party seeking disclosure shall have has the burden of showing that public disclosure would not constitute an unreasonable invasion of privacy.
- (b) any public records or information, the disclosure of which is prohibited by federal law or regulations.
- (4) If any public record of the division contains material which that is not exempt under subsection (3), as well as material which that is exempt from disclosure, the division shall separate the exempt and nonexempt and make the nonexempt material available for examination."

1 NEW SECTION. Section 46. Repealer. Sections 41-5-310 and 41-5-312, MCA, are repealed.

- 3 NEW SECTION. Section 47. Code commissioner instructions. (1)(a) The code commissioner is

13	BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MONTANA:
14
15	Section 1. Section 7-6-501, MCA, is amended to read:
16	"7-6-501. Definitions. As used in 7-6-502 and this section, unless the context requires otherwise,
17	the following definitions apply:
18	(1) "Detention" means the holding or temporary placement of a youth in a facility other than the
19	youth's own home for the purpose of ensuring the continued custody of the youth at any time after the
20	youth is taken into custody and before final disposition of his case.
21	(2) "Juvenile detention program" means services to provide for the lawful detention or shelter care
22	of youth. The term includes:
23	(a) youth evaluations ordered by the court under 41-5-523, [section 29], or [section 36]; and
24	(b) programs for the transportation of youth to appropriate detention facilities or shelter care
25	facilities.
26	(3) "Local government" has the same meaning as provided in 7-12-1103.
27	(4) "Shelter care" has the same meaning as provided in 41-5-103.
28	(5) "Youth" means an individual who is less than 18 years of age who is alleged to be a delinquent
29	youth or youth in need of supervision as those terms are defined in 41-5-103."
30

1	Section 2. Section 7-32-2244, MCA, is amended to read:
2	"7-32-2244. Detention of juveniles. Juveniles may be held in a detention center only in accordance
3	with 41 5 301 through 41 5 307, 41-5 309, and 41 5 311 Title 41, chapter 5, part 3."
5	Section 3. Section 41-5-103, MCA, is amended to read:
6	"41-5-103. Definitions. As used in the Montana Youth Court Act, unless the context requires
7	otherwise, the following definitions apply:
8	(1) "Adult" means an individual who is 18 years of age or older.
9	(2) "Agency" means any entity of state or local government authorized by law to be responsible
10	for the care or rehabilitation of youth.

12	(4) "Correctional facility" means a public or private residential facility used for the placement of
13	delinquent youth or individuals convicted of criminal offenses.
14	(5) "Court", when used without further qualification, means the youth court of the district court.
15	(6) "Custodian" means a person, other than a parent or guardian, to whom legal custody of the
16	youth has been given but does not include a person who has only physical custody.
17	(7) "Delinquent youth" means a youth:
18	(a) who has committed an offense that, if committed by an adult, would constitute a criminal
19	offense; or
20	(b) who, having been placed on probation as a delinquent youth or a youth in need of supervision,
21	violates any condition of probation.
22	(8) "Department" means the department of corrections provided for in 2-15-2301.
23	(9) "Detention" means the holding or temporary placement of a youth in the youth's home under
24	home arrest or in a facility other than the youth's own home for the purpose of ensuring the continued
25	custody of the youth at any time after the youth is taken into custody and before final disposition of the
26	youth's case.
27	(10) "Detention facility" means a physically restricting facility designed to prevent a youth from
28	departing at will. The term includes a youth detention facility, short-term detention center, and regional detention facility.

30

(11) "Final disposition" means the implementation of a court order for the disposition or placement

1	of a youth as provided in 41-5-523 or [section 29].
2	(12) "Foster home" means a private residence licensed by the department of public health and
3	human services for placement of a youth.
4	(13) "Guardianship" means the status created and defined by law between a youth and an adult
5	with the reciprocal rights, duties, and responsibilities. "Guardian" means an adult:
6	(a) who is responsible for a youth and has reciprocal rights, duties, and responsibilities with the
7	youth; and
8	(b) whose status is created and defined by law.
9	(14) "Holdover" means a room, office, building, or other place approved by the board of crime
10	control for the temporary detention and supervision of youth in a physically unrestricting setting for a period
11	not to exceed 24 hours while the youth is awaiting a probable cause hearing, release, or transfer to an
12	appropriate detention or shelter care facility. The term does not include a jail.
13	(15) "Jail" means a facility used for the confinement of adults accused or convicted of crimina
14	offenses. The term includes a lockup or other facility used primarily for the temporary confinement of adults
15	after arrest.
16	(16) "Judge", when used without further qualification, means the judge of the youth court.
17	(17) (a) "Legal custody" means the legal status created by order of a court of competent jurisdiction
18	that gives a person the right and duty to:
19	(i) have physical custody of the youth;
20 -	(ii) determine with whom the youth shall live and for what period;
21	(iii) protect, train, and discipline the youth; and
22	(iv) provide the youth with food, shelter, education, and ordinary medical care.
23	(b) An individual granted legal custody of a youth shall personally exercise the individual's rights
24	and duties as guardian unless otherwise authorized by the court entering the order.
25	(18) "Mentally ill" means suffering from a mental disorder that has not resulted in self-inflicted
26	injury or injury to others or the imminent threat of injury but that:
27	(a) has resulted in behavior that creates serious difficulty in protecting the person's life or health
28	even with the available assistance of family, friends, or others;
29	(b) is treatable, with a reasonable prospect of success;
30	(c) has deprived the person of the capacity to make an informed decision concerning treatment;

1	(d) has resulted in the person's refusing or being unable to consent to voluntary admission for
2	treatment; and
3	(e) poses a significant risk of the person's becoming seriously mentally ill or will, if untreated,
4	predictably result in further serious deterioration in the mental condition of the person. Predictability may
5	be established by the patient's medical history.
6	$\frac{(18)(19)(18)}{(18)}$ "Necessary parties" includes the youth, and the youth's parents, guardian, custodian,
7	or spouse.
8	(19)(20)(19) "Parent" means the natural or adoptive parent but does not include a person whose
9	parental rights have been judicially terminated, nor does it include the putative father of an illegitimate youth
10	unless the putative father's paternity is established by an adjudication or by other clear and convincing
11	proof.
12	(20)(21)(20) "Probable cause hearing" means the hearing provided for in 41-5-303 [section 12].
13	(21)(22)(21) "Regional detention facility" means a youth detention facility established and
14	maintained by two or more counties, as authorized in 41-5-811.
15	(22)(23)(22) "Restitution" means payments in cash to the victim or with services to the victim or
16	the general community when these payments are made pursuant to an informal adjustment, consent decree,
17	or other youth court order.
18	(23)(24)(23) "Secure detention facility" means any public or private facility that:
19	(a) is used for the temporary placement of youth or individuals accused or convicted of criminal
20	offenses; and
21	(b) is designed to physically restrict the movements and activities of youth or other individuals held
22	in lawful custody of the facility.
23	(24)(25)(24) "Serious juvenile offender" means a youth who has committed an offense that would
24	be considered a felony offense if committed by an adult and that is an offense against a person, an offense
25	against property, or an offense involving dangerous drugs.
26	(25)(25) "Shelter care" means the temporary substitute care of youth in physically unrestricting
27	facilities.

30

- 4 - HB 114

1	for the temporary placement or care of youth, for a period not to exceed 96 hours excluding weekends and
2	legal holidays, pending a probable cause hearing, release, or transfer of the youth to an appropriate
3	detention facility or shelter care facility.
4	(28)(29)(28) "State youth correctional facility" means a residential facility used for the placement
5	and rehabilitation of delinquent youth, such as the Pine Hills school in Miles City and the Mountain View
6	school in Helena.
7	(29)(30)(29) "Substitute care" means full-time care of youth in a residential setting for the purpose
8	of providing food, shelter, security and safety, guidance, direction, and, if necessary, treatment to youth
9	who are removed from or are without the care and supervision of their parents or guardian.
10	(30)(31)(30) "Youth" means an individual who is less than 18 years of age without regard to sex
11	or emancipation.
12	(31)(32)(31) "Youth court" means the court established pursuant to this chapter to hear all
13	proceedings in which a youth is alleged to be a delinquent youth, a youth in need of supervision, or a youth
14	in need of care and includes the youth court judge and probation officers.
15	(32)(33)(32) "Youth detention facility" means a secure detention facility licensed by the department
16	for the temporary substitute care of youth that:
17	(a) is operated, administered, and staffed separately and independently of a jail; and
18	(b) is used exclusively for the lawful detention of alleged or adjudicated delinquent youth.
19	(33)(34)(33) "Youth in need of care" has the meaning provided for in 41-3-102.
20	(34)(35)(34) "Youth in need of supervision" means a youth who commits an offense prohibited by
21	law that, if committed by an adult, would not constitute a criminal offense, including but not limited to a
22	youth who:
23	(a) violates any Montana municipal or state law regarding use of alcoholic beverages by minors;
24	(b) continues to exhibit behavior beyond the control of the youth's parents, foster parents, physical
25	custodian, or guardian despite the attempt of the youth's parents, foster parents, physical custodian, or
26	guardian to exert all reasonable efforts to mediate, resolve, or control the youth's behavior; or
28	discretion, chooses to regard as a youth in need of supervision."
29

Section 4. Section 41-5-208, MCA, is amended to read:

1	"41-5-208. Transfer to district court after prosecution disposition in district court limitation
2	on jurisdiction. (1) To ensure continued compliance with the court's disposition under 41-5-523 [section
3	29], at any time after a youth reaches 18 years of age but before the youth reaches 21 years of age, the
4	youth court judge may transfer jurisdiction to district court and order the transfer of supervisory
5	responsibility and the youth's case files to the department.
6	(2) If a youth whose case has been transferred to district court under this section violates a
7	disposition imposed under 41-5-523 [section 29], the district court may impose conditions as provided
8	under 46-18-201 through 46-18-203.
9	(3) If, at the time of transfer, the youth is incarcerated in a state youth correctional facility, the
10	district court may order that the youth, after reaching 18 years of age:
11	(a) be incarcerated in a state adult correctional facility, boot camp, or prerelease center; or
12	(b) be supervised by the department.
15
16	Section 5. Section 41-5-301, MCA, is amended to read:
17	"41-5-301. Preliminary investigation and disposition inquiry referral of youth in need of care.
18	(1) Whenever the court receives information from any agency or person, based upon reasonable grounds,
19	that a youth is or appears to be a delinquent youth or a youth in need of supervision or, being subject to
20	a court order or consent order, has violated the terms of an order, a probation officer shall make a
21	preliminary inquiry into the matter.
22	(2)—The probation officer may:
23	(a) require the presence of any person relevant to the inquiry;
24	(b) request subpoenas from the judge to accomplish this purpose;
25	(c) require investigation of the matter by any law enforcement agency or any other appropriate
26	state or local agency.
27	(3)(2) If the probation officer determines that the facts indicate that the youth is a youth in need
28	of care, the matter must be immediately referred to the department of public health and human services.
29	(4) (a) The probation officer in the conduct of the preliminary inquiry shall:
30	(i) advise the youth of the youth's rights under this chapter and the constitutions of the state of

1	Montana and the United States;
2	(ii) determine whether the matter is within the jurisdiction of the court;
3	(iii) determine, if the youth is in detention or shelter care, whether detention or shelter care should
4	be continued based upon criteria set forth in 41-5-305.
5	(b) Once relevant information is secured, the probation officer shall:
6	(i) determine whether the interest of the public or the youth requires that further action be taken
7	(ii) terminate the inquiry upon the determination that no further action be taken; and
8	(iii) release the youth immediately upon the determination that the filing of a petition is no
9	authorized.
10	(5) The probation officer upon determining that further action is required may:
11	(a) provide counseling, refer the youth and the youth's parents to another agency providing
12	appropriate services, or take any other action or make any informal adjustment that does not involve
13	probation or detention;
14	(b) provide for treatment or adjustment involving probation or other disposition authorized under
15	41-5-401 through 41-5-403 if the treatment or adjustment is voluntarily accepted by the youth's parents
16	or guardian and the youth, if the matter is referred immediately to the county attorney for review, and it
17	the probation officer proceeds no further unless authorized by the county attorney; or
18	(c) refer the matter to the county attorney for filing a petition charging the youth to be a delinquent
19	youth or a youth in need of supervision.
20	(6) The county attorney may apply to the youth court for permission to file a petition charging a
21	youth to be a delinquent youth or a youth in need of supervision. The application must be supported by
22	evidence that the youth court-may require. If it appears that there is probable cause to believe that the
23	allegations of the petition are true, the youth court shall grant leave to file the petition.
24	(7) A petition charging a youth hold in detention must be filed within 7 working days from the date
25	the youth was first taken into custody or the petition must be dismissed and the youth released unless good
26	cause is shown to further detain the youth.
27	(8) If a potition is not filed under this section, the complainant and victim, if any, must be informed
28	by the probation officer of the action and the reasons for not filing and must be advised of the right to
29	submit the matter to the county attorney for review. The county attorney, upon receiving a request for

3	NEW SECTION. Section 6. Preliminary inquiry procedure. (1) In conducting a preliminary inquiry
4	under 41-5-301, the probation officer shall:
5	(a) advise the youth of the youth's rights under this chapter and the constitutions of the state of
6	Montana and the United States;
7	(b) determine whether the matter is within the jurisdiction of the court;
8	(c) determine, if the youth is in detention or shelter care, whether detention or shelter care should
9	be continued based upon criteria set forth in 41-5-305 and [section 16].
0	(2) In conducting a preliminary inquiry, the probation officer may:
1	(a) require the presence of any person relevant to the inquiry;
12	(b) request subpoenas from the judge to accomplish this purpose;
13	(c) require investigation of the matter by any law enforcement agency or any other appropriate
14	state or local agency.
15
16	NEW SECTION. Section 7. Preliminary inquiry determinations release. Once relevant
17	information is secured after a preliminary inquiry under 41-5-301, the probation officer shall:
18	(1) determine whether the interest of the public or the youth requires that further action be taken;
19	(2) terminate the inquiry upon the determination that no further action be taken; and
20	(3) release the youth immediately upon the determination that the filing of a petition is not
23	NEW SECTION. Section 8. Preliminary inquiry dispositions available to probation officer. Upon
24	determining that further action is required after a preliminary inquiry under 41-5-301, the probation officer
25	may:
26	(1) arrange informal disposition as provided in [section 9]; or
27	(2) refer the matter to the county attorney for filing a petition charging the youth to be a delinquent
28	youth or a youth in need of supervision.
30	NEW SECTION. Section 9. Informal disposition. After a preliminary inquiry under 41-5-301, the

probation officer upon determining that further action is required and that referral to the county attorney is not required may:

- (1) provide counseling, refer the youth and the youth's parents to another agency providing appropriate services, or take any other action or make any informal adjustment that does not involve probation or detention; or
- (2) provide for treatment or adjustment involving probation or other disposition authorized under 41-5-401 through 41-5-403 if the treatment or adjustment is voluntarily accepted by the youth's parents or guardian and the youth, if the matter is referred immediately to the county attorney for review, and if the probation officer proceeds no further unless authorized by the county attorney.

NEW SECTION. Section 10. Petition -- county attorney -- procedure -- release from custody. (1) The county attorney may apply to the youth court for permission to file a petition charging a youth to be a delinquent youth or a youth in need of supervision. The application must be supported by evidence that the youth court may require. If it appears that there is probable cause to believe that the allegations of the petition are true, the youth court shall grant leave to file the petition.

- (2) A petition charging a youth held in detention must be filed within 7 working days from the date the youth was first taken into custody or the petition must be dismissed and the youth released unless good cause is shown to further detain the youth.
- (3) If a petition is not filed under this section, the complainant and victim, if any, must be informed by the probation officer of the action and the reasons for not filing and must be advised of the right to submit the matter to the county attorney for review. The county attorney, upon receiving a request for review, shall consider the facts, consult with the probation officer, and make the final decision as to whether a petition is filed.

Section 11. Section 41-5-303, MCA, is amended to read:

"41-5-303. Rights of youth taken into custody -- questioning — hearing for probable cause — detention -- waiver of rights. (1) When a youth is taken into custody for questioning upon a matter that could result in a petition alleging that the youth is either a delinquent youth or a youth in need of supervision, the following requirements must be met:

(a) The youth must be advised of his the youth's right against self-incrimination and his the youth's

29

30

1	right to counsel.
2	(b) The youth may waive these rights under the following situations:
3	(i) when the youth is 16 years of age or older, the youth may make an effective waiver;
4	(ii) when the youth is under the age of 16 years and the youth and a parent or guardian agree, they
5	may make an effective waiver; and
6	(iii) when the youth is under the age of 16 years and the youth and his parent or guardian do not
7	agree, the youth may make an effective waiver only with advice of counsel.
8	(e)(b) The investigating officer, probation officer, or person assigned to give notice shall
9	immediately notify the parents, guardian, or legal custodian of the youth that the youth has been taken into
10	custody, the reasons for taking the youth into custody, and where the youth is being held. If the parents,
11	guardian, or legal custodian cannot be found through diligent efforts, a close relative or friend chosen by
12	the youth must be notified.
13	(2) A youth may waive the rights listed in subsection (1) under the following situations:
14	(a) when the youth is 16 years of age or older, the youth may make an effective waiver;
15	(b) when the youth is under 16 years of age and the youth and the youth's parent or guardian
16	agree, they may make an effective waiver; or
17	(c) when the youth is under 16 years of age and the youth and the youth's parent or guardian do
18	not agree, the youth may make an effective waiver only with advice of counsel.
19	(2) Unless a youth has been released, a hearing must be held within 24 hours after the youth is
20	taken into custody, excluding weekends and legal holidays, to determine whether there is probable cause
21	to believe that the youth is a delinquent youth or a youth in need of supervision.
22	(3) The probable cause hearing required under subsection (2) may be held by the youth court, a
23	justice of the peace, a municipal or city judge, or a magistrate having jurisdiction in the case as provided
24	in 41-5-203. If the probable cause hearing is held by a justice of the peace, a municipal or city judge, or
25	a magistrate, a record of the hearing must be made by a court reporter or by a tape recording of the
26	hearing.

(5) A parent, guardian, or legal custodian of the youth may be held in contempt of court for failing to be present at or to participate in the probable cause hearing unless he:

1	(a) cannot be located through diligent efforts of the investigating peace officer or peace officers;
2	Of
3	(b) is excused by the court for good cause.
4	(6) At the probable cause hearing, a guardian ad litem may be appointed as provided in 41-5-512.
5	(7) If it is determined that there is probable cause to believe the youth is a delinquent youth or is
6	a youth in need of supervision, the court having jurisdiction in the case shall determine whether the youth
7	should be retained in custody. If the court determines that continued custody of the youth is necessary and
8	if the youth meets the criteria in 41-5-305, the youth may be placed in a detention facility or shelter care
9	facility as provided in 41 5 306 but may not be placed in a jail or other facility used for the confinement
10	of adults accused or convicted of criminal offenses.
11	(8) If probable cause is not found or if a probable cause hearing is not held within the time specified
14	NEW SECTION. Section 12. Custody hearing for probable cause. (1) When a youth is taken
15	into custody for questioning, a hearing to determine whether there is probable cause to believe the youth
16	is a delinquent youth or a youth in need of supervision must be held within 24 hours, excluding weekends
17	and legal holidays. A hearing is not required if the youth is released prior to the time of the required
18	hearing.
19	(2) The probable cause hearing required under subsection (1) may be held by the youth court, a
20	justice of the peace, a municipal or city judge, or a magistrate having jurisdiction in the case as provided
21	in 41-5-203. If the probable cause hearing is held by a justice of the peace, a municipal or city judge, or
22	a magistrate, a record of the hearing must be made by a court reporter or by a tape recording of the
23	hearing.
24	(3) A probable cause hearing may be conducted by telephone if other means of conducting the
25	hearing are impractical. All written orders and findings of the court in a hearing conducted by telephone
26	must bear the name of the judge or magistrate presiding in the case and the hour and date the order or
27	findings were issued.
29	NEW SECTION. Section 13. Custody hearing for probable cause procedure. (1) At a probable cause hearing held pursuant to [section 12], the youth must be informed of the youth's constitutional rights

1	and the youth's rights under this chapter.
2	(2) A parent, guardian, or custodian of the youth may be held in contempt of court for failing to
3	be present at or to participate in the probable cause hearing unless the parent, guardian, or custodian:
4	(a) cannot be located through diligent efforts of the investigating peace officer or peace officers;
5	or
6	(b) is excused by the court for good cause.
7	(3) At the probable cause hearing, a guardian ad litem may be appointed as provided in 41-5-512.
9	NEW SECTION. Section 14. Custody hearing for probable cause determinations detention
10	release. (1) If, at a probable cause hearing held pursuant to [section 12], it is determined that there is
11	probable cause to believe the youth is a delinquent youth or a youth in need of supervision, the court
12	having jurisdiction in the case shall determine whether the youth should be retained in custody. If the court
13	determines that continued custody of the youth is necessary and if the youth meets the criteria in 41-5-305
14	or [section 16], the youth may be placed in a detention facility or shelter care facility as provided in
15	[sections 18 through 21] but may not be placed in a jail or other facility used for the confinement of adults
16	accused or convicted of criminal offenses.
17	(2) If probable cause is not found or if a probable cause hearing is not held within the time specified
18	in [section 12], the youth must be immediately released from custody.
19
20	Section 15. Section 41-5-305, MCA, is amended to read:
21	"41-5-305. Criteria for placement of youth in secure detention facilities or shelter care facilities.
22	(1) A youth may not be placed in a secure detention facility unless only if the youth:
23	$\frac{(a)(1)}{(a)}$ he has allegedly committed an act that if committed by an adult would constitute a criminal
24	offense and the alleged offense is one specified in 41-5-206;
25	(b)(2) he is alleged to be a delinquent youth and:
26	(i)(a) he has escaped from a correctional facility or secure detention facility;
27	(ii)(b) he has violated a valid court order or an aftercare agreement;
28	(iii)(c) his the youth's detention is required to protect persons or property;
29	(iv)(d) he the youth has pending court or administrative action or is awaiting a transfer to another jurisdiction and may abscond or be removed from the jurisdiction of the court;

ı	(44)(e) there are not adequate assurances that he the youth will appear for court when required; or
2	(vi)(f) he the youth meets additional criteria for secure detention established by the youth court in
3	the judicial district that has current jurisdiction over him the youth; or
4	(c)(3) he has been adjudicated delinquent and is awaiting final disposition of his the youth's case.
5	(2) A youth may not be placed in a shelter care facility unless:
6	(a) the youth and his family need shelter care to address their problematic situation when it is not
7	possible for the youth to remain at home;
8	(b) the youth needs to be protected from physical or emotional harm;
9	(c) the youth needs to be deterred or prevented from immediate repetition of his troubling behavior;
10	(d) shelter care is necessary to assess the youth and his environment;
11	(e) shelter care is necessary to provide adequate time for case planning and disposition; or
12	(f) shelter care is necessary to intervene in a crisis situation and provide intensive services or
14
15	NEW SECTION. Section 16. Criteria for placement of youth in shelter care facilities. A youth may
16	be placed in a shelter care facility only if:
17	(1) the youth and the youth's family need shelter care to address their problematic situation and
18	it is not possible for the youth to remain at home;
19	(2) the youth needs to be protected from physical or emotional harm;
20	(3) the youth needs to be deterred or prevented from immediate repetition of troubling behavior;
21	(4) shelter care is necessary to assess the youth and the youth's environment;
22	(5) shelter care is necessary to provide adequate time for case planning and disposition; or
23	(6) shelter care is necessary to intervene in a crisis situation and provide intensive services or
24	attention that might alleviate the problem and reunite the family.
25
26	Section 17. Section 41-5-306, MCA, is amended to read:
27	"41-5-306. Place of shelter care or detention Limitation on placement of youth in need of care.
28	(1) After a probable cause hearing provided for in 41-5-303, a youth alleged to be a youth in need of
29	supervision may be placed only:
30	(a) in a licensed youth foster home as defined in 41-3-1102;

1	(b) in a facility operated by a licensed child welfare agency;
2	(c) in a licensed youth group home as defined in 41-3-1102; or
3	(d) under home arrest, either in the youth's own home or in one of the facilities described in
4	subsections (1)(a) through (1)(c), as provided in Title 46, chapter 18, part 10.
5	(2) A youth alleged to be a youth in need of care may be placed only in the facilities listed in
6	subsection (1) shelter care, as provided in [section 20], and may not be placed in a jail or other facility
7	intended or used for the confinement of adults accused or convicted of criminal offenses.
8	(3) After a probable cause hearing provided for in 41-5-303, a youth alleged to be a delinquent
9	youth may be placed only:
10	(a) in the facilities described in subsection (1);
11	(b) under home arrest as provided in subsection (1);
12	(c) in a short-term detention center;
13	(d) in a youth detention facility; or
16	NEW SECTION. Section 18. Limitation on placement of youth in need of supervision. (1) After
17	a probable cause hearing provided for in [section 12], a youth alleged to be a youth in need of supervision
18	may be placed only in shelter care, as provided in [section 20].
19	(2) A youth alleged or found to be a youth in need of supervision may not be placed in a jail, secure
20	detention facility, or correctional facility.
22	NEW SECTION. Section 19. Limitation on placement of delinquent youth. After a probable cause
23	hearing provided for in [section 12], a youth alleged to be a delinquent youth may be placed only:
24	(1) in shelter care, in the facilities described in [section 20];
25	(2) under home arrest as provided in [section 20];
26	(3) in detention, as provided in [section 21]; or
27	(4) in a community youth court program.
28
29	NEW SECTION. Section 20. Place of shelter care. Placement in shelter care means placement in
30	one of the following:

1	(1) in a licensed youth foster home as defined in 41-3-1102;
2	(2) in a facility operated by a licensed child welfare agency;
3	(3) in a licensed youth group home as defined in 41-3-1102; or
4	(4) under home arrest as provided in Title 46, chapter 18, part 10, either in the youth's own home
5	or in one of the facilities described in subsections (1) through (3).
7	NEW SECTION. Section 21. Place of detention. Placement in detention means placement in one
8	of the following facilities:
9	(1) a short-term detention center; or
10	(2) a youth detention facility, including a regional detention facility.
11,
12	Section 22. Section 41-5-307, MCA, is amended to read:
13	"41-5-307. Release or delivery from custody detention shelter care. (1) Whenever a peace
14	officer believes, on reasonable grounds, that a youth can be released to a responsible person who has
15	custody of the youth, then the peace officer may release the youth to that person upon receiving a written
16	promise from the person to bring the youth before the probation officer at a time and place specified in the
17	written promise, or a peace officer may release the youth under any other reasonable circumstances.
18	(2) Whenever the peace officer believes, on reasonable grounds, that the youth must be detained,
19	the peace officer shall notify the probation officer immediately and shall, as soon as practicable, provide
20	the probation officer with a written report of his the peace officer's reasons for holding the youth in
21	detention. If it is necessary to hold the youth pending appearance before the youth court, then the youth
22	must be held in a place of detention, as provided in [section 21], that is approved by the youth court.
23	(3) If the peace officer believes that the youth must be sheltered, the peace officer shall notify the
24	probation officer immediately and shall provide a written report of his the peace officer's reasons for placing
25	the youth in shelter care. If the youth is then held, the youth must be placed in a shelter care facility
26	approved by the youth court."
27
28	Section 23. Section 41-5-311, MCA, is amended to read:
29	"41-5-311. Youth not to be detained in jail exceptions time limitations. (1) A youth may not be detained or otherwise placed in a jail or other adult detention facility except as provided in 41-5-206 and

1	this section.
2	(2) A youth who has allegedly committed an offense that if committed by an adult would constitute
3	a criminal offense may be temporarily detained in a jail or other adult detention facility for a period not to
4	exceed:
5	(a) 6 hours, but in no case overnight, for the purpose of identification, processing, or transfer of
6	the youth to an appropriate detention facility or shelter care facility; or
7	(b) 24 hours, excluding weekends and legal holidays, if the youth is awaiting a probable cause
8	hearing pursuant to 41 5 303 [section 12].
9	(3) The exception provided for in subsection (2)(b) applies only if:
10	(a) the court having jurisdiction over the youth is outside a metropolitan statistical area;
11	(b) alternative facilities are not available or alternative facilities do not provide adequate security;
12	and
13	(c) the youth is kept in an area that provides physical as well as sight and sound separation from
14	adults accused or convicted of criminal offenses.
15	(4) Whenever, despite all good faith efforts to comply with the time limitations specified in
16	subsection (2), the limitations are exceeded, this circumstance does not serve as grounds for dismissal of
17	the case nor does this circumstance constitute a defense in a subsequent delinquency or criminal
19
20	Section 24. Section 41-5-403, MCA, is amended to read:
21	"41-5-403. Disposition permitted under informal adjustment contributions by parents or
22	guardians for youth's care. (1) The following dispositions may be imposed by informal adjustment:
23	(a) probation;
24	(b) placement of the youth in substitute care in a youth care facility, as defined in 41-3-1102, and
25	as determined by the department;
26	(c) placement of the youth with a private agency responsible for the care and rehabilitation of the youth as determined by the department;

29

30

(e) placement of the youth under home arrest as provided in Title 46, chapter 18, part 10.

(d) restitution upon approval of the youth court judge and subject to the provisions of [section 37];

(2) In determining whether restitution is appropriate in a particular case, the following factors may ı	De considered in addition to any other evidence;

2	(a) age of the youth;
3	(b) ability of the youth to pay;
4	(c) ability of the parents, logal guardian, or persons contributing to the youth's delinquency or need
5	for supervision to pay;
6	(d) amount of damage to the victim; and
7	(e) legal remedies of the victim. However, the ability of the victim or the victim's insurer to stand
8	any loss may not be considered in any case.
9	(3)(2) If the youth violates an aftercare agreement as provided for in 52-5-126, the youth must be
10	returned to the court for further disposition. A youth may not be placed in a state youth correctional facility
11	under informal adjustment.
12	(4)(3) If the youth is placed in substitute care requiring payment by the department, the court, as
13	provided in [section 35], shall examine the financial ability of the youth's parents or guardians to pay a
14	contribution covering all or part of the costs for the care, placement, and treatment of the youth, including
15	the costs of necessary medical, dental, and other health care.
16	(5)(4) If the court determines that the youth's parents or guardians are financially able to pay a
17	contribution as provided in subsection (4)(3), the court shall order the youth's parents or guardians to pay
18	an amount based on the uniform child support guidelines adopted by the department of public health and
19	human services pursuant to 40-5-209.
20	(6) (a) Except as provided in subsection (6)(b), contributions ordered under this section and each
21	modification of an existing order are enforceable by immediate or delinquency income withholding, or both,
22	under Title 40, chapter 5, part 4. An order for contribution that is inconsistent with this section is
23	nevertheless subject to withholding for the payment of the contribution without need for an amendment
24	of the support order or for any further action by the court.
25	(b) A court-ordered exception from contributions under this section must be in-writing and be
26	included in the order. An exception from the immediate income withholding requirement may be granted
27	if the court finds there is:
28	(i) good-cause not-to require immediate income withholding; or
29	(ii) an alternative arrangement between the department and the person who is ordered to pay

contributions.

55th Legislature HB0114.02

1	(c) A finding of good cause not to require immediate income withholding must, at a minimum, be
2	based upon:
3	(i) a written determination and explanation by the court of the reasons why the implementation of
4	immediate income withholding is not in the best interests of the child; and
5	(ii) proof of timely payment of previously ordered support in cases involving modification o
6	contributions ordered under this section.
7	(d) An alternative arrangement must:
8	(i) provide sufficient security to ensure compliance with the arrangement;
9	(ii) be in writing and be signed by a representative of the department and the person required to
10	make contributions; and
11	(iii) if approved by the court, be entered into the record of the proceeding.
12	(7) (a) If the court orders the payment of contributions under this section, the department shall
13	apply to the department of public health and human services for support enforcement services pursuant
14	to Title IV-D of the Social Security Act.
15	(b) The department of public health and human services may collect and enforce a contribution
16	order under this section by any means available under law, including the remedies provided for in Title 40,
18
19	Section 25. Section 41-5-502, MCA, is amended to read:
20	"41-5-502. Summons. (1) After a petition has been filed, summons must be served directly to:
21	(a) the youth;
22	(b) his the youth's parent or parents having actual custody of the youth or his the youth's guardian
23	or custodian, as the case may be; and
24	(c) other persons as the court may direct.
25	(2) The summons must:
26	(a) require the parties to whom it is directed to appear personally before the court at the time fixed
27	by the summons to answer the allegations of the petition;
28	(b) advise the parties of their right to counsel under the Montana Youth Court Act; and
29	(c) have attached to it a copy of the petition.
30	(3) The court may endorse upon the summons an order directing the person or persons having the physical custody or control of the youth to bring the youth to the hearing.

- (4) If it appears to the court that the youth needs to be placed in detention or shelter care, the judge may endorse on the summons an order directing the officer serving the summons to at once take the youth into custody and to take him the youth to the place of detention or shelter care designated by the court, subject to the rights of the youth and parent or person having legal custody of the youth as set forth in the provisions of the Montana Youth Court Act relating to detention and shelter care criteria and postdetention proceedings.
- (5) If any a youth is placed in detention or shelter care under any provision of this chapter pending an adjudication, the court shall, as soon as practicable, conduct a probable cause hearing as provided in 41-5-303 [section 12].
- (6) The youth court judge may also admit the youth to bail in accordance with Title 46, chapter 9."

Section 26. Section 41-5-521, MCA, is amended to read:

- "41-5-521. Adjudicatory hearing. (1) Prior to any adjudicatory hearing, the court shall determine whether the youth admits or denies the offenses alleged in the petition. If the youth denies all offenses alleged in the petition, the youth or the youth's parent, guardian, or attorney may demand a jury trial on the contested offenses. In the absence of a demand, a jury trial is waived. If the youth denies some offenses and admits others, the contested offenses may be dismissed in the discretion of the youth court judge. The adjudicatory hearing must be set immediately and accorded a preferential priority.
- (2) An adjudicatory hearing must be held to determine whether the contested offenses are supported by proof beyond a reasonable doubt in cases involving a youth alleged to be delinquent or in need of supervision. If the hearing is before a jury, the jury's function is to determine whether the youth committed the contested offenses. If the hearing is before the youth court judge without a jury, the judge shall make and record findings on all issues. If the allegations of the petitions are not established at the hearing, the youth court shall dismiss the petition and discharge the youth from custody.
- (3) An adjudicatory hearing must be recorded verbatim by whatever means the court considers appropriate.
- (4) The youth charged in a petition must be present at the hearing and, if brought from detention to the hearing, may not appear clothed in institutional clothing.

- (5) In a hearing on a petition under this section, the general public may not be excluded, except that in the court's discretion, the general public may be excluded if the petition does not allege alleges that the youth is delinquent in need of supervision.
- (6) If, on the basis of a valid admission by a youth of the allegations of the petition or after the hearing required by this section, a youth is found to be a delinquent youth or a youth in need of supervision, the court shall schedule a dispositional hearing under this chapter.
- (7) When a jury trial is required in a case, it may be held before a jury selected as provided in Title 25, chapter 7, part 2, and in Rule 47, M.R.Civ.P."

Section 27. Section 41-5-522, MCA, is amended to read:

- "41-5-522. Dispositional hearing. (1) As soon as practicable after a youth is found to be a delinquent youth or a youth in need of supervision, the court shall conduct a dispositional hearing. The dispositional hearing may involve a determination of the financial ability of the youth's parents or guardians to pay a contribution for the cost of care, commitment, and treatment of the youth as required in 41-5-523 [section 35].
- (2) Before conducting the dispositional hearing, the court shall direct that a social summary or predisposition report be made in writing by a probation officer concerning the youth, the youth's family, the youth's environment, and other matters relevant to the need for care or rehabilitation or disposition of the case. The youth court may have the youth examined, and the results of the examination must be made available to the court as part of the social summary or predisposition report. The court may order the examination of a parent or guardian whose ability to care for or supervise a youth is at issue before the court. The results of the examination must be included in the social summary or predisposition report. The youth or the youth's parents, guardian, or counsel has the right to subpoena all persons who have prepared any portion of the social summary or predisposition report and has the right to cross-examine the parties at the dispositional hearing.
- (3) Defense counsel must be furnished with a copy of the social summary or predisposition report and psychological report prior to the dispositional hearing.
- (4) The dispositional hearing must be conducted in the manner set forth in subsections (3), (4), and (5) of 41-5-521. The court shall hear all evidence relevant to a proper disposition of the case best serving the interests of the youth and the public. The evidence must include but is not limited to the social

1	summary and predisposition report provided for in subsection (2) of this section.
2	(5) If the court finds that it is in the best interest of the youth, the youth or the youth's parents
3	or guardian may be temporarily excluded from the hearing during the taking of evidence on the issues of
4	need for treatment and rehabilitation.
5	(6) In determining whether restitution, as authorized by 41 5 523, is appropriate in a particular
6	case, the following factors may be considered in addition to any other evidence:
7	(a) age of the youth;
8	(b) ability of the youth to pay;
9	(c) ability of the parents, legal guardian, or those that contributed to the youth's delinquency or
10	need for supervision to pay;
11	(d) amount of damage to the victim; and
12	(e) logal remedies of the victim. However, the ability of the victim or the victim's insurer to stand
14
15	Section 28. Section 41-5-523, MCA, is amended to read:
16	"41-5-523. Disposition of youth in need of supervision — sentence to correctional facility
17	commitment to department placement and evaluation of youth restrictions. (1) If a youth is found to
18	be a delinquent youth or a youth in need of supervision, the youth court may enter its judgment making
19	one or more of the following dispositions:
20	(a) retain jurisdiction in a disposition provided under subsection (1)(b) or (1)(d);
21	(b)(1) place the youth on probation;. The youth court retains jurisdiction in a disposition under this
22	subsection.
23	(c) subject to subsections (1)(n)(i), (2)(a), (2)(b), and (6), sentence a youth to one of the state
24	youth correctional facilities established under 52-5-101 and, as part of the sentence, deny the youth
25	eligibility for release without the express approval of the sentencing judge until the youth reaches 18 years
26	of age. A youth may not be sentenced to a state youth correctional facility unless the department informs
27	the judge that space is available for the youth at that facility. The centencing judge may not place
28	limitations on the release unless recommended by the youth placement committee.
29	(d) require a youth found to be delinquent to register as a sex offender pursuant to 46-18-254 and

46-23-506;

1	(e)(2) place the youth in an in-state residence that ensures that the youth is accountable, provides
2	for rehabilitation, and protects the public. Before placement, the sentencing judge shall seek and consider
3	placement recommendations from the youth placement committee. The judge may not place the youth in
4	an in-state residence unless the department informs the judge that resources are available for placement
5	of the youth at that residence.
6	$\frac{(f)(3)(a)}{(a)}$ commit the youth to the department. In an order committing a youth to the department:
7	(i) the court shall determine whether continuation in the youth's own home would be contrary to
8	the welfare of the youth and whether reasonable efforts have been made to prevent or eliminate the need
9	for removal of the youth from the youth's home;
10	(b) The department may not place a youth in need of supervision in a state youth correctional
11	facility.
12	(ii) in the case of a delinquent youth who is determined by the court to be a serious juvenile
13	effender, the judge may specify that the youth be placed in a state youth correctional facility if the judge
14	finds that the placement is necessary for the protection of the public. The court may order the department
15	to notify the court within 5 working days before the proposed release of a youth from a youth correctional
16	facility. Once a youth is committed to the department for placement in a state youth correctional facility,
17	the department is responsible for determining an appropriate date of release into an appropriate placement.
18	(g)(4) order restitution by the youth or the youth's parents or guardians, subject to the provisions
19	of [section 37];

1	from the department for services outside the state of Montana without the department's approval, except
2	that a youth may not be placed by a youth court in a residential treatment facility as defined in 50-5-101.
3	Only the department may, pursuant to subsection (1)(f), place a youth in a residential treatment facility.;
4	(n)(11) subject to the provisions of [section 31], commit the youth to a mental health facility if,
5	based upon the testimony of a professional person as defined in 53-21-102, the court finds that the youth
6	is seriously mentally ill as defined in 53-21-102. The youth is entitled to all rights provided by 53-21-114
7	through 53-21-119.;
8	(i) A youth adjudicated mentally ill or seriously mentally ill as defined in 53-21-102 may not be
9	committed or sentenced to a state youth correctional facility.
10	(ii) A youth adjudicated to be mentally ill or seriously mentally ill after placement in or sentencing
11	to a state youth correctional facility must be moved to a more appropriate placement in response to the
12	youth's montal health needs and consistent with the disposition alternatives available in 53-21-127.
13	(e)(12) place the youth under home arrest as provided in Title 46, chapter 18, part 10.
14	(2) When a youth is committed to the department, the department shall determine the appropriate
15	placement and rehabilitation program for the youth after considering the recommendations made under
16	41-5-527 by the youth placement committee. Placement is subject to the following limitations:
17	(a) A youth in need of supervision or adjudicated delinquent for commission of an act that would
18	not be a criminal offense if committed by an adult may not be placed in a state youth correctional facility.
19	(b) A youth may not be held in a state youth correctional facility for a period of time in excess of
20	the maximum period of imprisonment that could be imposed on an adult convicted of the effense or
21	offenses that brought the youth under the jurisdiction of the youth court. This section does not limit the
22	power of the department to enter into an aftercare agreement with the youth pursuant to 52-5-126.
23	(c) A youth may not be placed in or transferred to a penal institution or other facility used for the
24	execution of sentence of adults convicted of crimes.
25	(3) A youth placed in a state youth correctional facility or other facility or program operated by the
26	department or who signs an aftercare agreement under 52-5-126 must be supervised by the department.
27	A youth who is placed in any other placement by the department, the youth court, or the youth court's
28	juvenile probation officer must be supervised by the probation officer of the youth court having jurisdiction
29	ever the youth under 41-5-205 whether or not the youth is committed to the department. Supervision by

1	(a) submitting information and documentation necessary for the person, committee, or team that
2	is making the placement recommendation to determine an appropriate placement for the youth;
3	(b) securing approval for payment of special education costs from the youth's school district of
4	residence or the office of public instruction, as required in Title 20, chapter 7, part 4;
5	(c) submitting an application to a facility in which the youth may be placed; and
6	(d) case management of the youth.
7	(4) The youth court may order a youth to receive a medical or psychological evaluation at any time
8	prior to final disposition if the youth waives the youth's constitutional rights in the manner provided for in
9	41 5-303. The county-determined by the court as the residence of the youth is responsible for the cost of
10	the evaluation, except as provided in subsection (5). A county may contract with the department or other
11	public or private agencies to obtain evaluation services ordered by the court.
12	(5) The youth court shall determine the financial ability of the youth's parents to pay the cost of
13	an evaluation ordered by the court under subsection (4). If they are financially able, the court shall order
14	the youth's parents to pay all or part of the cost of the evaluation.
15	(6) The youth court may not order placement or evaluation of a youth at a state youth correctional
16	facility unless the youth is found to be a delinquent youth or is alleged to have committed an offense that
17	is transferable to criminal court under 41-5-206.
18	(7) An evaluation of a youth may not be performed at the Montana state hospital unless the youth
19	is transferred to the district court under 41 5 206, 41 5 208, or 41 5 1105.
20	(8) An order of the court may be modified at any time. In the case of a youth committed to the
21	department, an order pertaining to the youth may be modified only upon notice to the department and
22	subsequent hearing.
23	(9) Whenever the court commits a youth to the department, it shall transmit with the dispositional
24	judgment copies of medical reports, social history material, education records, and any other clinical,
25	predisposition, or other reports and information pertinent to the care and treatment of the youth.
26	(10) If a youth is committed to the department, the court shall examine the financial ability of the
27	youth's parents or guardians to pay a contribution covering all or part of the costs for the care,
28	commitment, and treatment of the youth, including the costs of necessary medical, dental, and other health
29	care.

(11) If the court determines that the youth's parents or guardians are financially able to pay a

1	contribution as provided in subsection (10), the court shall order the youth's parents or guardians to pay
2	an amount based on the uniform child support guidelines adopted by the department of public health and
3	human services pursuant to 40-5-209.
4	(12) (a) Except as provided in subsection (12)(b), contributions ordered under this section and each
5	modification of an existing order are enforceable by immediate or delinquency income withholding, or both,
6	under Title 40, chapter 5, part 4. An order for contribution that is inconsistent with this section is
7	nevertheless subject to withholding for the payment of the contribution without need for an amendment
8	of the support order or for any further action by the court.
9	(b) A court-ordered exception from contributions under this section must be in writing and be
10	included in the order. An exception from the immediate income withholding requirement may be granted
11	if the court finds there is:
12	(i) good cause not to require immediate income withholding; or
13 -	(ii) an alternative arrangement between the department and the person who is ordered to pay
14	contributions.
15	(c) A finding of good cause not to require immediate income withholding must, at a minimum, be
16	based upon:
17	(i)—a written determination and explanation by the court of the reasons why the implementation of
18	immediate income withholding is not in the best interests of the youth; and
19	(ii) proof of timely payment of previously ordered support in cases involving modification of
20	contributions ordered under this section.
21	(d) An alternative arrangement must:
22	(i) provide sufficient security to ensure compliance with the arrangement;
23	(ii) be in writing and be signed by a representative of the department and the person required to
24	make-contributions; and
25	(iii) if approved by the court, be entered into the record of the proceeding.
26	(13) Upon a showing of a change in the financial ability of the youth's parents or guardians to pay,
27	the court may modify its order for the payment of contributions required under subsection (11).
28	(14) (a) If the court orders the payment of contributions under this section, the department shall
29	apply to the department of public health and human services for support enforcement services pursuant
30	to Title IV-D of the Social Security Act.

(b) The department of public health and human services may collect and enforce a contribution order under this section by any means available under law, including the remedies provided for in Title 40,
chapter 5, parts 2 and 4."

NEW SECTION. Section 29. Disposition of delinquent youth -- restrictions. (1) If a youth is found to be a delinquent youth, the youth court may enter its judgment making one or more of the following dispositions:

- (a) any one or more of the dispositions provided in 41-5-523;
- (b) subject to 41-5-523(3)(b), [sections 30(1), 31(2)], and subsection (2) of this section, sentence a youth to one of the state youth correctional facilities established under 52-5-101 and, as part of the sentence, deny the youth eligibility for release without the express approval of the sentencing judge until the youth reaches 18 years of age. A youth may not be sentenced to a state youth correctional facility unless the department informs the judge that space is available for the youth at that facility. The sentencing judge may not place limitations on the release unless recommended by the youth placement committee.
- (c) require a youth found to be delinquent, as the result of the commission of an offense that would be a violation of 45-5-501 through 45-5-504, 45-5-507, or 45-5-511 if committed by an adult, to register as a sex offender pursuant to 46-18-254 and 46-23-506. The youth court retains jurisdiction in a disposition under this subsection.
- (d) in the case of a delinquent youth who is determined by the court to be a serious juvenile offender, the judge may specify that the youth be placed in a state youth correctional facility if the judge finds that the placement is necessary for the protection of the public. The court may order the department to notify the court within 5 working days before the proposed release of a youth from a youth correctional facility. Once a youth is committed to the department for placement in a state youth correctional facility, the department is responsible for determining an appropriate date of release into an appropriate placement.
- (2) The youth court may not order placement of a youth at a state youth correctional facility unless the youth is found to be a delinquent youth or is alleged to have committed an offense that is transferable to criminal court under 41-5-206.

NEW SECTION. Section 30. Disposition -- commitment to department -- restrictions on placement. When a youth is committed to the department, the department shall determine the appropriate placement and rehabilitation program for the youth after considering the recommendations made under 41-5-527 by the youth placement committee. Placement is subject to the limitations contained in 41-5-523(3)(b) and the following limitations:

- (1) A youth may not be held in a state youth correctional facility for a period of time in excess of the maximum period of imprisonment that could be imposed on an adult convicted of the offense or offenses that brought the youth under the jurisdiction of the youth court. This section does not limit the power of the department to enter into an aftercare agreement with the youth pursuant to 52-5-126.
- (2) A youth may not be placed in or transferred to a penal institution or other facility used for the execution of sentence of adults convicted of crimes.
- (3) The department may not place a youth adjudicated delinquent for commission of an act that would not be a criminal offense if committed by an adult in a state youth correctional facility.

NEW SECTION. Section 31. Disposition -- finding of mentally ill or seriously mentally ill -- rights -- limitation on placement. (1) A youth who is found to be seriously mentally ill as defined in 53-21-102 is entitled to all rights provided by 53-21-114 through 53-21-119.

- (2) A youth who, prior to placement or sentencing, is found to be mentally ill, as defined in 41-5-103, or seriously mentally ill, as defined in 53-21-102, may not be committed or sentenced to a state youth correctional facility.
- (3) A youth who is found to be mentally ill or seriously mentally ill after placement in or sentencing to a state youth correctional facility must be moved to a more appropriate placement in response to the youth's mental health needs and consistent with the disposition alternatives available in 53-21-127.

NEW SECTION. Section 32. Disposition -- commitment to department -- supervision. (1) A youth placed in a state youth correctional facility or other facility or program operated by the department or who signs an aftercare agreement under 52-5-126 must be supervised by the department.

- (2) A youth who is placed in any other placement by the department, the youth court, or the youth court's juvenile probation officer must be supervised by the probation officer of the youth court having jurisdiction over the youth under 41-5-205 whether or not the youth is committed to the department. Supervision by the youth probation officer includes but is not limited to:
 - (a) submitting information and documentation necessary for the person, committee, or team that is n	naking the	placement	recommendation	to de	etermine	an ap	propriate	placement	for t	the v	outh:

------	------------	-----------	----------------	-------	----------	-------	-----------	-----------	-------	-------	-------

- (b) securing approval for payment of special education costs from the youth's school district of residence or the office of public instruction, as required in Title 20, chapter 7, part 4;
 - (c) submitting an application to a facility in which the youth may be placed; and
 - (d) case management of the youth.

NEW SECTION. Section 33. Disposition -- commitment to department -- transfer of records. Whenever the court commits a youth to the department, it shall transmit with the dispositional judgment copies of medical reports, social history material, education records, and any other clinical, predisposition, or other reports and information pertinent to the care and treatment of the youth.

- NEW SECTION. Section 34. Modification of court orders -- notice to department -- hearing. (1) An order of the court may be modified at any time.
- (2) In the case of a youth committed to the department, an order pertaining to the youth may be modified only upon notice to the department and subsequent hearing.

- NEW SECTION. Section 35. Contribution for costs -- order for contribution -- exceptions -- collection. (1) If a youth is committed to the department, the court shall examine the financial ability of the youth's parents or guardians to pay a contribution covering all or part of the costs for the care, commitment, and treatment of the youth, including the costs of necessary medical, dental, and other health care.
- (2) If the court determines that the youth's parents or guardians are financially able to pay a contribution as provided in subsection (1), the court shall order the youth's parents or guardians to pay an amount based on the uniform child support guidelines adopted by the department of public health and human services pursuant to 40-5-209.
- (3) (a) Except as provided in subsection (3)(b), contributions ordered under 41-5-403 and this section and each modification of an existing order are enforceable by immediate or delinquency income withholding, or both, under Title 40, chapter 5, part 4. An order for contribution that is inconsistent with this section is nevertheless subject to withholding for the payment of the contribution without need for an amendment of the support order or for any further action by the court.

1	(b) A court-ordered exception from contributions under 41-5-403 or this section must be in writing
2	and must be included in the order. An exception from the immediate income withholding requirement may
3	be granted if the court finds that there is:
4	(i) good cause not to require immediate income withholding; or
5	(ii) an alternative arrangement between the department and the person who is ordered to pay
6	contributions.
7	(c) A finding of good cause not to require immediate income withholding must, at a minimum, be
8	based upon:
9	(i) a written determination and explanation by the court of the reasons why the implementation of
10	immediate income withholding is not in the best interests of the youth; and
11	(ii) proof of timely payment of previously ordered support in cases involving modification of
12	contributions ordered under this section.
13	(d) An alternative arrangement must:
14	(i) provide sufficient security to ensure compliance with the arrangement;
15	(ii) be in writing and be signed by a representative of the department and the person required to
16	make contributions; and
17	(iii) if approved by the court, be entered into the record of the proceeding.
18	(4) Upon a showing of a change in the financial ability of the youth's parents or guardians to pay,
19	the court may modify its order for the payment of contributions required under 41-5-403 or subsection (2).
20	(5) (a) If the court orders the payment of contributions under 41-5-403 or this section, the
21	department shall apply to the department of public health and human services for support enforcement
22	services pursuant to Title IV-D of the Social Security Act.
23	(b) The department of public health and human services may collect and enforce a contribution
24	order under 41-5-403 or this section by any means available under law, including the remedies provided
25	for in Title 40, chapter 5, parts 2 and 4.
26
27	NEW SECTION. Section 36. Disposition medical or psychological evaluation of youth costs.
28	(1) The youth court may order a youth to receive a medical or psychological evaluation at any time prior
29	to final disposition if the youth waives the youth's constitutional rights in the manner provided for in

41-5-303. Except as provided in subsection (2), the county determined by the court as the residence of the youth is responsible for the cost of the evaluation. A county may contract with the department or other public or private agencies to obtain evaluation services ordered by the court.

- (2) The youth court shall determine the financial ability of the youth's parents or guardians to pay the cost of an evaluation ordered by the court under subsection (1). If they are financially able, the court shall order the youth's parents or guardians to pay all or part of the cost of the evaluation.
- (3) The youth court may not order evaluation of a youth at a state youth correctional facility unless the youth is found to be a delinquent youth or is alleged to have committed an offense that is transferable to district court under 41-5-206.
- 9 (4) An evaluation of a youth may not be performed at the Montana state hospital unless the youth is transferred to the district court under 41-5-206, 41-5-208, or 41-5-1105.

- NEW SECTION. Section 37. Restitution. (1) In determining whether restitution, as authorized by 41-5-403 and 41-5-523, is appropriate in a particular case, the following factors may be considered in addition to any other evidence:
- 15 (a) age of the youth;
- 16 (b) ability of the youth to pay;
- 17 (c) ability of the parents, legal guardian, or those that contributed to the youth's delinquency or 18 need for supervision to pay;
- 19 (d) amount of damage to the victim; and
- 20 (e) legal remedies of the victim. However, the ability of the victim or the victim's insurer to stand 21 any loss may not be considered in any case.

(1) Prior to commitment of a youth to the department pursuant to 41-5-523 or [section 29], a youth placement committee must be convened. The committee shall submit in writing to the department and to the youth court judge its primary and alternative recommendations for placement of the youth.
- (2) If the department accepts either of the committee's recommendations, it shall promptly notify the committee in writing.
- (3) If the department rejects both of the committee's recommendations, it shall promptly notify the committee in writing of the reasons for rejecting the recommendations and shall make an appropriate placement for the youth.

- Section 40. Section 41-5-530, MCA, is amended to read:
- 5 "41-5-530. Parental contributions account -- allocation of proceeds. (1) There is a parental contributions account in the state special revenue fund.
 - (2) Contributions paid by the parents and guardians of youth under 41-3-406, 41-5-403, 41-5-523 [section 35], or 41-5-524 must be deposited in the account.
 - (3) All money in the account, except any amount required to be returned to federal or county sources, is allocated to the department of public health and human services to carry out its duties under 52-1-103."

- Section 41. Section 41-5-1004, MCA; is amended to read:
- "41-5-1004. Distribution of grants -- limitation of funding -- restrictions on use. (1) The board shall award grants on an equitable basis, giving preference to services that will be used on a regional basis.
 - (2) The board shall award grants to eligible counties:
- (a) in a block grant in an amount not to exceed 50% of the approved, estimated cost of secure detention; or
 - (b) on a matching basis in an amount not to exceed:
- (i) 75% of the approved cost of providing holdovers, attendant care, and other alternatives to secure detention, except for shelter care. Shelter care must be paid as provided by law.
- (ii) 50% of the approved cost of programs for the transportation of youth to appropriate detention or shelter care facilities, including regional detention facilities.
- (3) Based on funding available after the board has funded block grants under subsection (2), the board shall, in cases of extreme hardship in which the transfer of youth court cases to the adult system has placed considerable financial strain on a county's resources, award grants to eligible counties to fund up to 75% of the actual costs of secure detention of youth awaiting transfer. Hardship cases will be addressed at the end of the fiscal year and will be awarded by the board based upon a consideration of the applicant county's past 3 years' expenditures for youth detention and upon consideration of the particular case or cases that created the hardship expenditure for which the hardship grant is requested.

(4) Grants under 41-5-1002 may not be used to pay for the cost of youth evaluations.	The cost of evaluations must be paid as provided for in 41-5-523 [section 36]."

Section 42. Section 41-5-1104, MCA, is amended to read:

5 "41-5-1104. Disposition in extended jurisdiction prosecutions. (1) If a youth in an extended jurisdiction prosecution pleads guilty to or is found guilty of an offense described in 41-5-1102(1)(b), the court shall:

- (a) impose one or more juvenile dispositions under 41-5-523 [section 29]; and
- (b) impose an adult criminal sentence, the execution of which must be stayed on the condition that the youth not violate the provisions of the disposition order and not commit a new offense. If the youth violates the conditions of the stay or commits a new offense, the adult criminal sentence must be executed as provided in 41-5-1105.
- (2) Except as provided in subsection (3), if a youth in an extended jurisdiction prosecution is convicted of an offense not described in 41-5-1102(1)(b), the court shall adjudicate the youth delinquent and order a disposition under 41-5-523 [section 29].
- (3) If a youth in an extended jurisdiction prosecution pleads guilty to an offense not described in 41-5-1102(1)(b), the court may impose, with the youth's consent, a disposition provided under subsection (1)(b) of this section. If the youth does not consent to disposition under subsection (1)(b), the court shall impose a disposition as provided under subsection (2)."

- Section 43. Section 46-24-207, MCA, is amended to read:
- "46-24-207. Victims and witnesses of juvenile felony offenses -- consultation -- notification of proceedings. (1) The attorney general shall ensure that the services and assistance that must be provided under this chapter to a victim or witness of a crime are also provided to the victim or witness of a juvenile felony offense.
- (2) In a proceeding filed under Title 41, chapter 5, part 514 or 15, the county attorney or a designee shall consult with the victim of a juvenile felony offense or, in the case of a minor victim or a homicide victim, with the victim's family regarding the disposition of the case, including:
 - (a) a dismissal of the petition filed under 41-5-501;
- (b) a reduction of the charge to misdemeanor;

- 1 (c) the release of the youth from detention or shelter care pending the adjudicatory hearing; and
- 2 (d) the disposition of the youth.
 - (3) (a) Whenever possible, a person described in subsection (3)(b) who provides the youth court with a current address and telephone number must receive prompt advance notification of youth court case proceedings, including:
 - (i) the filing of a petition under 41-5-501;
 - (ii) the release of the youth from detention or shelter care; and
 - (iii) proceedings in the adjudication of the petition, including, when applicable, entry of a consent decree under 41-5-524, the setting of a date for the adjudicatory hearing under 41-5-521, the setting of a date for the dispositional hearing under 41-5-522, the disposition made, and the release of the youth from a youth correctional facility.
 - (b) A person entitled to notification under this subsection (3) must be a victim of a juvenile felony offense, an adult relative of the victim if the victim is a minor, or an adult relative of a homicide victim.
 - (c) The court shall provide to the department the list of people entitled to notification under this subsection (3), and the department is responsible to provide the notification.
 - (4) For purposes of this section, "juvenile felony offense" means an offense committed by a juvenile that, if committed by an adult, would constitute a felony offense. The term includes any offense for which a juvenile may be declared a serious juvenile offender, as defined in 41-5-103."

Section 44. Section 52-5-129, MCA, is amended to read:

"52-5-129. Hearing on alleged violation of aftercare agreement -- right to appeal outcome. (1) When it is alleged by an aftercare counselor that a youth has violated the terms of the youth's aftercare agreement, the youth must be granted a hearing at the site of the alleged violation or in the county in which the youth is residing or is found within 10 days after notice has been served on the youth or the youth is detained, whichever is earlier. The purpose of the hearing is to determine whether the youth committed the violation and, if so, whether the violation is of such a nature that the youth should be returned to the youth correctional facility from which the youth was released or a different plan for treatment should be pursued by the department of corrections.

- (2) The youth, upon advice of an attorney, may waive the right to a hearing.
- (3) With regard to this hearing, the youth must be given:

- 1 (a) written notice of the alleged violation of the aftercare agreement, including notice of the purpose of the hearing;
 - (b) a disclosure of the evidence against the youth and the facts constituting the alleged violation;
 - (c) the opportunity to be heard in person and to present witnesses and documentary evidence to controvert the evidence against the youth and to show that there are compelling reasons that justify or mitigate the violation;
 - (d) the opportunity to have the referee hearings officer subpoena witnesses;
 - (e) the right to confront and cross-examine adverse witnesses;
 - (f) the right to be represented by an attorney;
- 10 (g) a record of the hearing; and
 - the reasons for the final decision will be provided by the referee hearings officer.
 - (4) The department shall appoint a referee hearings officer, who may not be an employee of the department, to conduct the hearing. In the conduct of the hearing, the department may request the county attorney's assistance as necessary. The department shall adopt rules necessary to effect a prompt and full review.
 - (5) If the referee hearings officer finds, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the youth did in fact commit the violation, the referee hearings officer shall make a recommendation to the department for the placement of the youth. In making this recommendation, the referee hearings officer may consider mitigating circumstances. Final approval rests with the department and must be made within 10 days of the referee's hearings officer's recommendation.
 - (6) The youth may appeal from the decision at the hearing to the district court of the county in which the hearing was held by serving and filing a notice of appeal with the court within 10 days of the department's decision. The youth may obtain a written transcript of the hearing from the department by giving written notice of appeal. The district court, upon receipt of a notice of appeal, shall order the department to promptly certify to the court a record of all proceedings before the department and shall proceed to a prompt hearing on the appeal based upon the record on appeal. The decision of the department may not be altered except for abuse of discretion or manifest injustice.
 - (7) Pending the hearing on a violation and pending the department's decision, a youth may not be detained except when the youth's detention or care is required to protect the person or property of the youth or of others or the youth may abscond or be removed from the community. The department shall determine the place and manner of detention and is responsible for the cost of the detention. Procedures for taking into custody and detention of a youth charged with violation of the youth's aftercare agreement are as provided in 41-5-303, 41-5-306, 41-5-311, and 41-5-314, [sections 12 through 14], and [sections 18 through 21].

(8) If the decision is made to return the youth to the youth correctional facility from which the youth was released and the youth appeals that decision, the youth shall await the outcome of the appeal at the facility."

Section 45. Section 53-9-107, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-9-107. Public inspection and disclosure of division's records. (1) Except as provided in subsections (2) and (3), the records the division maintains in its possession in the administration of this part are open to public inspection and disclosure.

- (2) Confidential criminal justice information obtained by the division is subject to the confidentiality provisions of the Montana Criminal Justice Information Act of 1979, Title 44, chapter 5. Information regarding youth court proceedings obtained by the division is subject to the confidentiality provisions of Title 41, chapter 5, part 6.
- (3) In assuring that the right of individual privacy so essential to the well-being of a free society may not be infringed without the showing of a compelling state interest, the following public records of the division are exempt from disclosure:
- (a) information of a personal nature, such as personal, medical, or similar information, if the public disclosure thereof would constitute an unreasonable invasion of privacy, unless the public interest by clear and convincing evidence requires disclosure in the particular instance. The party seeking disclosure shall have has the burden of showing that public disclosure would not constitute an unreasonable invasion of privacy.
- (b) any public records or information, the disclosure of which is prohibited by federal law or regulations.
- (4) If any public record of the division contains material which that is not exempt under subsection (3), as well as material which that is exempt from disclosure, the division shall separate the exempt and nonexempt and make the nonexempt material available for examination."

4	(F) THE FOLLOWING SECTIONS IN THIS BILL MUST READ AS FOLLOWS:
5	"Section 5. Section 41-5-301, MCA, is amended to read:
6	"41-5-301. Preliminary investigation and disposition inquiry referral of youth in need of care. (1)
7	Whenever the court receives information from any an agency or person, based upon reasonable grounds,
8	that a youth is or appears to be a delinquent youth or a youth in need of supervision intervention or, being
9	that the youth is subject to a court order or consent order, and has violated the terms of an order, a
10	probation officer or an assessment officer shall make a preliminary inquiry into the matter.
11	(2) The probation officer may:
12	(a) require the presence of any person relevant to the inquiry;
13	(b) request subpoenas from the judge to accomplish this purpose;
14	(c) require investigation of the matter by any law enforcement agency or any other appropriate
15	state or local agency.
16	(3)(2) If the probation officer or assessment officer determines that the facts indicate that the youth
17	is a youth in need of care, the matter must be immediately referred to the department of public health and
18	human services.
19	(4) (a) The probation officer in the conduct of the preliminary inquiry shall:
20	(i) advise the youth of the youth's rights under this chapter and the constitutions of the state of
21	Montana and the United States;
22	(ii) determine whether the matter is within the jurisdiction of the court;
23	(iii) determine, if the youth is in detention or shelter care, whether detention or shelter care should
24	be continued based upon criteria set forth in 41-5-305.
25	(b) Once relevant information is secured, the probation officer shall:
26	(i) determine whether the interest of the public or the youth requires that further action be taken;
27	(ii) terminate the inquiry upon the determination that no further action be taken; and
28	(iii) release the youth immediately upon the determination that the filing of a petition is not
29	authorized.
30	(5) The probation officer upon determining that further action is required may:

55th Legislature HB0114.02

(a) provide counceling, refer the youth and the youth's parents to another agency providing appropriate services, or take any other action or make any informal adjustment that does not involve probation or detention;

- (b) provide for treatment or adjustment involving probation or other disposition authorized under 41-5-401 through 41-5-403 if the treatment or adjustment is voluntarily accepted by the youth's parents or guardian and the youth, if the matter is referred immediately to the county attorney for review, and if the probation officer proceeds no further unless authorized by the county attorney; or
- (c) refer the matter to the county attorney for filing a petition charging the youth to be a delinquent youth or a youth in need of supervision.
- (6) The county attorney may apply to the youth court for permission to file a petition charging a youth to be a delinquent youth or a youth in need of supervision. The application must be supported by evidence that the youth court may require. If it appears that there is probable cause to believe that the allegations of the petition are true, the youth court shall grant leave to file the petition.
- (7) A petition charging a youth held in detention must be filed within 7 working days from the date the youth was first taken into custody or the petition must be dismissed and the youth released unless good cause is shown to further detain the youth.
- (8) If a petition is not filed under this section, the complainant and victim, if any, must be informed by the probation officer of the action and the reasons for not filing and must be advised of the right to submit the matter to the county attorney for review. The county attorney, upon receiving a request for review, shall consider the facts, consult with the probation officer, and make the final decision as to whether a petition is filed."
- NEW SECTION. Section 6. Preliminary inquiry -- procedure -- youth assessment. (1) In conducting a preliminary inquiry under 41-5-301, the probation officer or assessment officer shall:
- (a) advise the youth of the youth's rights under this chapter and the constitutions of the state of Montana and the United States;
 - (b) determine whether the matter is within the jurisdiction of the court;
- (c) determine, if the youth is in detention, a youth assessment center, or shelter care, whether detention, placement in a youth assessment center, or shelter care should be continued or modified based upon criteria set forth in 41-5-305, [section 16], and [section 47].
 - (2) In conducting a preliminary inquiry, the probation officer or assessment officer may:

- 40 -

HB 114

1	(a) require the presence of any person relevant to the inquiry;
2	(b) request subpoenas from the judge to accomplish this purpose;
3	(c) require investigation of the matter by any law enforcement agency or any other appropria
4	state or local agency;
5	(d) perform a youth assessment pursuant to [section 46].
6	(3) The probation officer or assessment officer shall collect the following information regarding
7	outh:

9	(b) a description of prior and current offenses, including criminal history;
10	(c) a listing of known or suspected associates;
11	(d) any gang or drug involvement;
12	(e) field investigation data;
13	(f) motor vehicle ownership and offense data, if any;
14	(g) whether the youth is a suspect in other criminal investigations;
15	(h) history of any victimization of others by the youth;
16	(i) the youth's status offense history;
17	(j) existence of active warrants;
18	(k) school, employment, and family histories;
19	(I) social and medical services histories;
20	(m) prior conduct in a youth detention or correctional facility, if any.
21	NEW SECTION. Section 7. Preliminary inquiry determinations release. Once releva
22	nformation is secured after a preliminary inquiry under 41-5-301, the probation officer or assessme
23	officer shall:
24	(1) determine whether the interest of the public or the youth requires that further action be take
25	(2) terminate the inquiry upon the determination that no further action be taken; and
26	(3) release the youth immediately upon the determination that the filing of a petition is n
27	authorized.
28	NEW SECTION. Section 8. Preliminary inquiry dispositions available to probation officer. Up
29	determining that further action is required after a preliminary inquiry under 41-5-301, the probation offic
30	or assessment officer may:

(1)	arrange informal	disposition as	provided in	[section 9]; or
-----	------------------	----------------	-------------	-----------------

(2) refer the matter to the county attorney for filing a petition in youth court charging the youth to be a delinquent youth or a youth in need of intervention or for filing an information in the district court as provided in 41-5-206.

NEW SECTION. Section 9. Informal disposition. After a preliminary inquiry under 41-5-301, the probation officer or assessment officer upon determining that further action is required and that referral to the county attorney is not required may:

- (1) provide counseling, refer the youth and the youth's family to another agency providing appropriate services, or take any other action or make any informal adjustment that does not involve probation or detention; or
- (2) provide for treatment or adjustment involving probation or other disposition authorized under 41-5-401 through 41-5-403 if the treatment or adjustment is voluntarily accepted by the youth's parents or guardian and the youth, if the matter is referred immediately to the county attorney for review, and if the probation officer or assessment officer proceeds no further unless authorized by the county attorney.

NEW SECTION. Section 10. Petition -- county attorney -- procedure -- release from custody. (1) The county attorney may apply to the youth court for permission to file a petition charging a youth to be a delinquent youth or a youth in need of intervention. The application must be supported by evidence that the youth court may require. If it appears that there is probable cause to believe that the allegations of the petition are true, the youth court shall grant leave to file the petition.

- (2) A petition charging a youth who is held in detention or a youth assessment center must be filed within 7 working days from the date the youth was first taken into custody or the petition must be dismissed and the youth released unless good cause is shown to further detain the youth.
- (3) If a petition is not filed under this section, the complainant and victim, if any, must be informed by the probation officer or assessment officer of the action and the reasons for not filing and must be advised of the right to submit the matter to the county attorney for review. The county attorney, upon receiving a request for review, shall consider the facts, consult with the probation officer or assessment officer, and make the final decision as to whether a petition is filed.

NEW SECTION. Section 14. Custody -- hearing for probable cause -- determinations -- detention -- release. (1) If, at a probable cause hearing held pursuant to [section 12], it is determined that there is probable cause to believe that the youth is a delinquent youth or a youth in need of intervention, the court

3	41-5-305, [section 16], or [section 47], the youth may be placed in a detention facility, a youth assessment
4	center, or a shelter care facility as provided in [sections 18 through 21] but may not be placed in a jail or
5	other facility used for the confinement of adults accused or convicted of criminal offenses.
6	(2) If probable cause is not found or if a probable cause hearing is not held within the time specified
7	in [section 12], the youth must be immediately released from custody.
8	Section 17. Section 41-5-306, MCA, is amended to read:
9	"41-5-306. Place of shelter care or detention Limitation on placement of youth in need of care.
10	(1) After a probable cause hearing provided for in 41-5-303, a youth alleged to be a youth in need of
11	supervision may be placed only:
12	(a) in a licensed youth fector home as defined in 41-3-1102;

3	(e) poses a significant risk of the person's becoming seriously mentally ill or will, if untreated,
4	predictably result in further serious deterioration in the mental condition of the person. Predictability may
5	be established by the patient's medical history.
6	$\frac{(18)(19)(18)}{(18)}$ "Necessary parties" includes the youth, and the youth's parents, guardian, custodian,
7	or spouse.
8	(19)(20)(19) "Parent" means the natural or adoptive parent but does not include a person whose
9	parental rights have been judicially terminated, nor does it include the putative father of an illegitimate youth
10	unless the putative father's paternity is established by an adjudication or by other clear and convincing
11	proof.
12	(20)(21)(20) "Probable cause hearing" means the hearing provided for in 41-5-303 [section 12].
13	(21)(22)(21) "Regional detention facility" means a youth detention facility established and
14	maintained by two or more counties, as authorized in 41-5-811.
15	(22)(23)(22) "Restitution" means payments in cash to the victim or with services to the victim or
16	the general community when these payments are made pursuant to an informal adjustment, consent decree,
17	or other youth court order.
18	(23)(24)(23) "Secure detention facility" means any public or private facility that:
19	(a) is used for the temporary placement of youth or individuals accused or convicted of criminal
20	offenses; and
21	(b) is designed to physically restrict the movements and activities of youth or other individuals held
22	in lawful custody of the facility.
23	(24)(25)(24) "Serious juvenile offender" means a youth who has committed an offense that would
24	be considered a felony offense if committed by an adult and that is an offense against a person, an offense
25	against property, or an offense involving dangerous drugs.
26	(25)(25) "Shelter care" means the temporary substitute care of youth in physically unrestricting
27	facilities.
28	(26)(27)(26) "Shelter care facility" means a facility used for the shelter care of youth. The term is
29	limited to the facilities enumerated in 41-5-306(1) [section 20].
30	(27)(28)(27) "Short-term detention center" means a detention facility licensed by the department

2	legal holidays, pending a probable cause hearing, release, or transfer of the youth to an appropriate
3	detention facility or shelter care facility.

5	and rehabilitation of delinquent youth, such as the Pine Hills school in Miles City and the Mountain View
6	school in Helena.
7	(29)(30)(29) "Substitute care" means full-time care of youth in a residential setting for the purpose
8	of providing food, shelter, security and safety, guidance, direction, and, if necessary, treatment to youth
9	who are removed from or are without the care and supervision of their parents or guardian.
10	(30)(31)(30) "Youth" means an individual who is less than 18 years of age without regard to sex
11	or emancipation.
12	(31)(32)(31) "Youth court" means the court established pursuant to this chapter to hear all
13	proceedings in which a youth is alleged to be a delinquent youth, a youth in need of supervision, or a youth
14	in need of care and includes the youth court judge and probation officers.
15	(32)(33)(32) "Youth detention facility" means a secure detention facility licensed by the department
16	for the temporary substitute care of youth that:
17	(a) is operated, administered, and staffed separately and independently of a jail; and
18	(b) is used exclusively for the lawful detention of alleged or adjudicated delinquent youth.
19	(33)(34)(33) "Youth in need of care" has the meaning provided for in 41-3-102.
20	(34)(35)(34) "Youth in need of supervision" means a youth who commits an offense prohibited by
21	law that, if committed by an adult, would not constitute a criminal offense, including but not limited to a
22	youth who:
23	(a) violates any Montana municipal or state law regarding use of alcoholic beverages by minors;
24	(b) continues to exhibit behavior beyond the control of the youth's parents, foster parents, physical
25	custodian, or guardian despite the attempt of the youth's parents, foster parents, physical custodian, or
26	guardian to exert all reasonable efforts to mediate, resolve, or control the youth's behavior; or
27	(c) has committed any of the acts of a delinquent youth but whom the youth court, in its
28	discretion, chooses to regard as a youth in need of supervision."

Section 4. Section 41-5-208, MCA, is amended to read:

"41-5-208. Transfer to district court after prosecution disposition in district court limitation
on jurisdiction. (1) To ensure continued compliance with the court's disposition under 41-5-523 [section 29], at any time after a youth reaches 18 years of age but before the youth reaches 21 years of age, the youth court judge may transfer jurisdiction to district court and order the transfer of supervisory responsibility and the youth's case files to the department.
(2) If a youth whose case has been transferred to district court under this section violates a disposition imposed under 41-5-523 [section 29], the district court may impose conditions as provided under 46-18-201 through 46-18-203.
(3) If, at the time of transfer, the youth is incarcerated in a state youth correctional facility, the district court may order that the youth, after reaching 18 years of age:
(a) be incarcerated in a state adult correctional facility, boot camp, or prerelease center; or
(b) be supervised by the department.
(4) The district court's jurisdiction over a case transferred under this section terminates when the youth reaches 25 years of age."

(3)(2) If the probation officer determines that the facts indicate that the youth is a youth in need

1	Montana and the United States;
2	(ii) determine whether the matter is within the jurisdiction of the court;
3	(iii) determine, if the youth is in detention or shelter care, whether detention or shelter care should
4	be continued based upon criteria set forth in 41 5-305.
5	(b) Once relevant information is secured, the probation officer shall:
6	(i) determine whether the interest of the public or the youth requires that further action be taken
7	(ii) terminate the inquiry upon the determination that no further action be taken; and
8	(iii) release the youth immediately upon the determination that the filing of a petition is no
9	authorized.
10	(5) The probation officer upon determining that further action is required may:
11	(a) provide counseling, refer the youth and the youth's parents to another agency providing
12	appropriate services, or take any other action or make any informal adjustment that does not involve
13	probation or detention;
14	(b) provide for treatment or adjustment involving probation or other disposition authorized under
15	41-5-401 through 41-5-403 if the treatment or adjustment is voluntarily accepted by the youth's parente
16	or guardian and the youth, if the matter is referred immediately to the county attorney for review, and i
17	the probation officer proceeds no further unless authorized by the county attorney; or
18	(c) refer the matter to the county attorney for filing a petition charging the youth to be a delinquen-
19	youth or a youth in need of supervision.
20	(6) The county attorney may apply to the youth court for permission to file a petition charging a
21	youth to be a delinquent youth or a youth in need of supervision. The application must be supported by
22	evidence that the youth court may require. If it appears that there is probable cause to believe that the
23	allegations of the petition are true, the youth court shall grant leave to file the petition.
24	(7) A petition charging a youth hold in detention must be filed within 7 working days from the date
25	the youth was first taken into custody or the petition must be dismissed and the youth released unless good
26	cause is shown to further detain the youth.
27	(8)—If a potition is not filed under this section, the complainant and victim, if any, must be informed
28	by the probation officer of the action and the reasons for not filing and must be advised of the right to
29	submit the matter to the county attorney for review. The county attorney, upon receiving a request for
30	review, shall consider the facts, consult with the probation officer, and make the final decision as to review, shall consider the facts, consult with the probation officer, and make the final decision as to

3	NEW SECTION. Section 6. Preliminary inquiry procedure. (1) In conducting a preliminary inquiry
4	under 41-5-301, the probation officer shall:
5	(a) advise the youth of the youth's rights under this chapter and the constitutions of the state of
6	Montana and the United States;
7	(b) determine whether the matter is within the jurisdiction of the court;
8	(c) determine, if the youth is in detention or shelter care, whether detention or shelter care should
9	be continued based upon criteria set forth in 41-5-305 and [section 16].
10	(2) In conducting a preliminary inquiry, the probation officer may:
11	(a) require the presence of any person relevant to the inquiry;
12	(b) request subpoenas from the judge to accomplish this purpose;
13	(c) require investigation of the matter by any law enforcement agency or any other appropriate
14	state or local agency.
15
16	NEW SECTION. Section 7. Preliminary inquiry determinations release. Once relevant
17	information is secured after a preliminary inquiry under 41-5-301, the probation officer shall:
18	(1) determine whether the interest of the public or the youth requires that further action be taken;
19	(2) terminate the inquiry upon the determination that no further action be taken; and
20	(3) release the youth immediately upon the determination that the filing of a petition is not
22
23	NEW SECTION. Section 8. Preliminary inquiry dispositions available to probation officer. Upon
24	determining that further action is required after a preliminary inquiry under 41-5-301, the probation officer
25	may:
26	(1) arrange informal disposition as provided in [section 9]; or
27	(2) refer the matter to the county attorney for filing a petition charging the youth to be a delinquent
28	youth or a youth in need of supervision.
30	NEW SECTION. Section 9. Informal disposition. After a preliminary inquiry under 41-5-301, the

probation officer upon determining that further action is required and that referral to the county attorney is not required may:

- (1) provide counseling, refer the youth and the youth's parents to another agency providing appropriate services, or take any other action or make any informal adjustment that does not involve probation or detention; or
- (2) provide for treatment or adjustment involving probation or other disposition authorized under 41-5-401 through 41-5-403 if the treatment or adjustment is voluntarily accepted by the youth's parents or guardian and the youth, if the matter is referred immediately to the county attorney for review, and if the probation officer proceeds no further unless authorized by the county attorney.

- NEW SECTION. Section 10. Petition -- county attorney -- procedure -- release from custody. (1) The county attorney may apply to the youth court for permission to file a petition charging a youth to be a delinquent youth or a youth in need of supervision. The application must be supported by evidence that the youth court may require. If it appears that there is probable cause to believe that the allegations of the petition are true, the youth court shall grant leave to file the petition.
- (2) A petition charging a youth held in detention must be filed within 7 working days from the date the youth was first taken into custody or the petition must be dismissed and the youth released unless good cause is shown to further detain the youth.
- (3) If a petition is not filed under this section, the complainant and victim, if any, must be informed by the probation officer of the action and the reasons for not filing and must be advised of the right to submit the matter to the county attorney for review. The county attorney, upon receiving a request for review, shall consider the facts, consult with the probation officer, and make the final decision as to whether a petition is filed.

- Section 11. Section 41-5-303, MCA, is amended to read:
- "41-5-303. Rights of youth taken into custody -- questioning -- hearing for probable cause -- detention -- waiver of rights. (1) When a youth is taken into custody for questioning upon a matter that could result in a petition alleging that the youth is either a delinquent youth or a youth in need of supervision, the following requirements must be met:
 - (a) The youth must be advised of his the youth's right against self-incrimination and his the youth's

1	right to counsel.
2	(b) The youth may waive these rights under the following situations:
3	(i) when the youth is 16 years of age or older, the youth may make an effective waiver;
4	(ii) when the youth is under the age of 16 years and the youth and a parent or guardian agree, they
5	may make an effective waiver; and
6	(iii) when the youth is under the age of 16 years and the youth and his parent or guardian do no
7	agree, the youth may make an effective waiver only with advice of counsel.
8	(e)(b) The investigating officer, probation officer, or person assigned to give notice shall
9	immediately notify the parents, guardian, or legal custodian of the youth that the youth has been taken into
10	custody, the reasons for taking the youth into custody, and where the youth is being held. If the parents,
11	guardian, or legal custodian cannot be found through diligent efforts, a close relative or friend chosen by
12	the youth must be notified.
13	(2) A youth may waive the rights listed in subsection (1) under the following situations:
14	(a) when the youth is 16 years of age or older, the youth may make an effective waiver;
15	(b) when the youth is under 16 years of age and the youth and the youth's parent or guardian
16	agree, they may make an effective waiver; or
17	(c) when the youth is under 16 years of age and the youth and the youth's parent or guardian do
18	not agree, the youth may make an effective waiver only with advice of counsel.
19	(2) Unless a youth has been released, a hearing must be held within 24 hours after the youth is
20	taken into custody, excluding weekends and logal helidays, to determine whether there is probable cause
21	to believe that the youth is a delinquent youth or a youth in need of supervision.
22	(3) The probable cause hearing required under subsection (2) may be held by the youth court, a
23	justice of the peace, a municipal or sity judge, or a magistrate having jurisdiction in the case as provided
24	in 41-5-203. If the probable cause hearing is held by a justice of the peace, a municipal or city judge, or
25	a magistrate, a record of the hearing must be made by a court reporter or by a tape recording of the
26	hearing.
27	(4) At the probable cause hearing, the youth must be informed of his constitutional rights and his
28	rights under this chapter.
29	(5) A parent, guardian, or legal sustedian of the youth may be held in contempt of court for failing to be present at or to participate in the probable cause hearing unless he:

Ţ	(a)—cannot be located through diligent efforts of the investigating peace officer or peace officers;
2	Of
3	(b) is excused by the court for good cause.
4	(6) At the probable cause hearing, a guardian ad litem may be appointed as provided in 41-5-512.
5	(7) If it is determined that there is probable cause to believe the youth is a delinquent youth or is
6	a youth in need of supervision, the court having jurisdiction in the case shall determine whether the youth
7	should be retained in custody. If the court determines that continued custody of the youth is necessary and
8	if the youth meets the criteria in 41-5-305, the youth may be placed in a detention facility or shelter care
9	facility as provided in 41-5-306 but may not be placed in a jail or other facility used for the confinement
10	of adults accused or convicted of criminal offenses.
11	(8) If probable cause is not found or if a probable cause hearing is not held within the time specified
14	NEW SECTION. Section 12. Custody hearing for probable cause. (1) When a youth is taken
15	into custody for questioning, a hearing to determine whether there is probable cause to believe the youth
16	is a delinquent youth or a youth in need of supervision must be held within 24 hours, excluding weekends
17	and legal holidays. A hearing is not required if the youth is released prior to the time of the required
18	hearing.
19	(2) The probable cause hearing required under subsection (1) may be held by the youth court, a
20	justice of the peace, a municipal or city judge, or a magistrate having jurisdiction in the case as provided
21	in 41-5-203. If the probable cause hearing is held by a justice of the peace, a municipal or city judge, or
22	a magistrate, a record of the hearing must be made by a court reporter or by a tape recording of the
23	hearing.

(3) A probable cause hearing may be conducted by telephone if other means of conducting the hearing are impractical. All written orders and findings of the court in a hearing conducted by telephone must bear the name of the judge or magistrate presiding in the case and the hour and date the order or findings were issued.

20	detention facility, or correctional facility.
22	NEW SECTION. Section 19. Limitation on placement of delinquent youth. After a probable cause
23	hearing provided for in [section 12], a youth alleged to be a delinquent youth may be placed only:
24	(1) in shelter care, in the facilities described in [section 20];
25	(2) under home arrest as provided in [section 20];
26	(3) in detention, as provided in [section 21]; or
27	(4) in a community youth court program.
28
29	NEW SECTION. Section 20. Place of shelter care. Placement in shelter care means placement in
30	one of the following:

1	(1) in a licensed youth foster home as defined in 41-3-1102;
2	(2) in a facility operated by a licensed child welfare agency;
3	(3) in a licensed youth group home as defined in 41-3-1102; or
4	(4) under home arrest as provided in Title 46, chapter 18, part 10, either in the youth's own home
5	or in one of the facilities described in subsections (1) through (3).
7	NEW SECTION. Section 21. Place of detention. Placement in detention means placement in one
8	of the following facilities:
9	(1) a short-term detention center; or
10	(2) a youth detention facility, including a regional detention facility.
11
12	Section 22. Section 41-5-307, MCA, is amended to read:
13	"41-5-307. Release or delivery from custody detention shelter care. (1) Whenever a peace
14	officer believes, on reasonable grounds, that a youth can be released to a responsible person who had
15	custody of the youth, then the peace officer may release the youth to that person upon receiving a written
16	promise from the person to bring the youth before the probation officer at a time and place specified in the
17	written promise, or a peace officer may release the youth under any other reasonable circumstances.
18	(2) Whenever the peace officer believes, on reasonable grounds, that the youth must be detained
19	the peace officer shall notify the probation officer immediately and shall, as soon as practicable, provide
20	the probation officer with a written report of his the peace officer's reasons for holding the youth in
21	detention. If it is necessary to hold the youth pending appearance before the youth court, then the youth
22	must be held in a place of detention, as provided in [section 21], that is approved by the youth court.
23	(3) If the peace officer believes that the youth must be sheltered, the peace officer shall notify the
24	probation officer immediately and shall provide a written report of his the peace officer's reasons for placing
25	the youth in shelter care. If the youth is then held, the youth must be placed in a shelter care facility

- (2) A youth who has allegedly committed an offense that if committed by an adult would constitute a criminal offense may be temporarily detained in a jail or other adult detention facility for a period not to exceed:
- (a) 6 hours, but in no case overnight, for the purpose of identification, processing, or transfer of the youth to an appropriate detention facility or shelter care facility; or
- (b) 24 hours, excluding weekends and legal holidays, if the youth is awaiting a probable cause hearing pursuant to 41 5 303 [section 12].
 - (3) The exception provided for in subsection (2)(b) applies only if:
 - (a) the court having jurisdiction over the youth is outside a metropolitan statistical area;
- 11 (b) alternative facilities are not available or alternative facilities do not provide adequate security;

 12 and
 - (c) the youth is kept in an area that provides physical as well as sight and sound separation from adults accused or convicted of criminal offenses.
 - (4) Whenever, despite all good faith efforts to comply with the time limitations specified in subsection (2), the limitations are exceeded, this circumstance does not serve as grounds for dismissal of the case nor does this circumstance constitute a defense in a subsequent delinquency or criminal proceeding."

- Section 24. Section 41-5-403, MCA, is amended to read:
- "41-5-403. Disposition permitted under informal adjustment -- contributions by parents or guardians for youth's care. (1) The following dispositions may be imposed by informal adjustment:
- 23 (a) probation;
 - (b) placement of the youth in substitute care in a youth care facility, as defined in 41-3-1102, and as determined by the department;
 - (c) placement of the youth with a private agency responsible for the care and rehabilitation of the youth as determined by the department;
- 28 (d) restitution upon approval of the youth court judge and subject to the provisions of [section 37];
- 29 (e) placement of the youth under home arrest as provided in Title 46, chapter 18, part 10.
- 30 (2) In determining whether restitution is appropriate in a particular case, the following factors may

1	be considered in addition to any other evidence:
2	(a) age of the youth;
3	(b) ability of the youth to pay;
4	(c) ability of the parents, legal guardian, or persons contributing to the youth's delinquency or need
5	for supervision to pay;
6	(d) amount of damage to the victim; and
7	(e) legal remedies of the victim. However, the ability of the victim or the victim's insurer to stand
8	any loss may not be considered in any case.
9	(3)(2) If the youth violates an aftercare agreement as provided for in 52-5-126, the youth must be
10	returned to the court for further disposition. A youth may not be placed in a state youth correctional facility
11	under informal adjustment.
12	(4)(3) If the youth is placed in substitute care requiring payment by the department, the court, as
13	provided in [section 35], shall examine the financial ability of the youth's parents or guardians to pay a
14	contribution covering all or part of the costs for the care, placement, and treatment of the youth, including
15	the costs of necessary medical, dental, and other health care.
16	$\frac{(5)(4)}{(5)}$ If the court determines that the youth's parents or guardians are financially able to pay a
17	contribution as provided in subsection (4)(3), the court shall order the youth's parents or guardians to pay
18	an amount based on the uniform child support guidelines adopted by the department of public health and
19	human services pursuant to 40-5-209.
20	(6) (a) Except as provided in subsection (6)(b), contributions ordered under this section and each
21	modification of an existing order are enforceable by immediate or delinquency income withholding, or both,
22	under Title 40, chapter 5, part 4. An order for contribution that is inconsistent with this section is
23	nevertheless subject to withholding for the payment of the contribution without need for an amendment
24	of the support order or for any further action by the court.
25	(b) A court ordered exception from contributions under this section must be in writing and be
26	included in the order. An exception from the immediate income withholding requirement may be granted
27	if the court finds there is:
28	(i) good cause not to require immediate income withholding; or
29	(ii) an alternative arrangement between the department and the person who is ordered to pay
30	contributions.

1	(c) A finding of good cause not to require immediate income withholding must, at a minimum, be
2	based upon:
3	(i) a written determination and explanation by the court of the reasons why the implementation of
4	immediate income withholding is not in the best interests of the child; and
5	(ii) proof of timely payment of previously ordered support in cases involving modification of
6	contributions ordered under this section.
7	(d) An alternative arrangement must:
8	(i) provide sufficient security to ensure compliance with the arrangement;
9	(ii) be in writing and be signed by a representative of the department and the person required to
10	make-contributions; and
11	(iii) if approved by the court, be entered into the record of the proceeding.
12	(7) (a) If the court orders the payment of contributions under this section, the department shall
13	apply to the department of public health and human services for support enforcement services pursuant
14	to Title IV-D of the Social Security Act.
15	(b) The department of public health and human services may collect and enforce a contribution
16	order under this section by any means available under law, including the remedies provided for in Title 40,
18
19	Section 25. Section 41-5-502, MCA, is amended to read:
20	"41-5-502. Summons. (1) After a petition has been filed, summons must be served directly to:
21	(a) the youth;
22	(b) his the youth's parent or parents having actual custody of the youth or his the youth's guardian
23	or custodian, as the case may be; and
24	(c) other persons as the court may direct.
25	(2) The summons must:
26	(a) require the parties to whom it is directed to appear personally before the court at the time fixed
27	by the summons to answer the allegations of the petition;
28	(b) advise the parties of their right to counsel under the Montana Youth Court Act; and
29	(c) have attached to it a copy of the petition.
30	(3) The court may endorse upon the summons an order directing the person or persons having the physical custody or control of the youth to bring the youth to the hearing.

- (4) If it appears to the court that the youth needs to be placed in detention or shelter care, the judge may endorse on the summons an order directing the officer serving the summons to at once take the youth into custody and to take him the youth to the place of detention or shelter care designated by the court, subject to the rights of the youth and parent or person having legal custody of the youth as set forth in the provisions of the Montana Youth Court Act relating to detention and shelter care criteria and postdetention proceedings.
- (5) If any a youth is placed in detention or shelter care under any provision of this chapter pending an adjudication, the court shall, as soon as practicable, conduct a probable cause hearing as provided in 41-5-303 [section 12].
- (6) The youth court judge may also admit the youth to bail in accordance with Title 46, chapter 9."

Section 26. Section 41-5-521, MCA, is amended to read:

- "41-5-521. Adjudicatory hearing. (1) Prior to any adjudicatory hearing, the court shall determine whether the youth admits or denies the offenses alleged in the petition. If the youth denies all offenses alleged in the petition, the youth or the youth's parent, guardian, or attorney may demand a jury trial on the contested offenses. In the absence of a demand, a jury trial is waived. If the youth denies some offenses and admits others, the contested offenses may be dismissed in the discretion of the youth court judge. The adjudicatory hearing must be set immediately and accorded a preferential priority.
- (2) An adjudicatory hearing must be held to determine whether the contested offenses are supported by proof beyond a reasonable doubt in cases involving a youth alleged to be delinquent or in need of supervision. If the hearing is before a jury, the jury's function is to determine whether the youth committed the contested offenses. If the hearing is before the youth court judge without a jury, the judge shall make and record findings on all issues. If the allegations of the petitions are not established at the hearing, the youth court shall dismiss the petition and discharge the youth from custody.
- (3) An adjudicatory hearing must be recorded verbatim by whatever means the court considers appropriate.
- (4) The youth charged in a petition must be present at the hearing and, if brought from detention to the hearing, may not appear clothed in institutional clothing.

- (5) In a hearing on a petition under this section, the general public may not be excluded, except that in the court's discretion, the general public may be excluded if the petition does not allege alleges that the youth is delinquent in need of supervision.
- (6) If, on the basis of a valid admission by a youth of the allegations of the petition or after the hearing required by this section, a youth is found to be a delinquent youth or a youth in need of supervision, the court shall schedule a dispositional hearing under this chapter.
- (7) When a jury trial is required in a case, it may be held before a jury selected as provided in Title 25, chapter 7, part 2, and in Rule 47, M.R.Civ.P."

Section 27. Section 41-5-522, MCA, is amended to read:

- "41-5-522. Dispositional hearing. (1) As soon as practicable after a youth is found to be a delinquent youth or a youth in need of supervision, the court shall conduct a dispositional hearing. The dispositional hearing may involve a determination of the financial ability of the youth's parents or guardians to pay a contribution for the cost of care, commitment, and treatment of the youth as required in 41-5-523 [section 35].
- (2) Before conducting the dispositional hearing, the court shall direct that a social summary or predisposition report be made in writing by a probation officer concerning the youth, the youth's family, the youth's environment, and other matters relevant to the need for care or rehabilitation or disposition of the case. The youth court may have the youth examined, and the results of the examination must be made available to the court as part of the social summary or predisposition report. The court may order the examination of a parent or guardian whose ability to care for or supervise a youth is at issue before the court. The results of the examination must be included in the social summary or predisposition report. The youth or the youth's parents, guardian, or counsel has the right to subpoena all persons who have prepared any portion of the social summary or predisposition report and has the right to cross-examine the parties at the dispositional hearing.
- (3) Defense counsel must be furnished with a copy of the social summary or predisposition report and psychological report prior to the dispositional hearing.
- (4) The dispositional hearing must be conducted in the manner set forth in subsections (3), (4), and (5) of 41-5-521. The court shall hear all evidence relevant to a proper disposition of the case best serving the interests of the youth and the public. The evidence must include but is not limited to the social

- Section 28. Section 41-5-523, MCA, is amended to read:
- "41-5-523. Disposition of youth in need of supervision sentence to correctional facility—commitment to department—placement and evaluation of youth restrictions. (1) If a youth is found to be a delinquent youth or a youth in need of supervision, the youth court may enter its judgment making one or more of the following dispositions:
- 20 (a) retain jurisdiction in a disposition provided under subsection (1)(b) or (1)(d);
 - (b)(1) place the youth on probation; The youth court retains jurisdiction in a disposition under this subsection.
 - (c) subject to subsections (1)(n)(i), (2)(a), (2)(b), and (6), sentence a youth to one of the state youth correctional facilities established under 52.5.101 and, as part of the sentence, deny the youth eligibility for release without the express approval of the sentencing judge until the youth reaches 18 years of age. A youth may not be sentenced to a state youth correctional facility unless the department informs the judge that space is available for the youth at that facility. The sentencing judge may not place limitations on the release unless recommended by the youth placement committee.
- 29 (d) require a youth found to be delinquent to register as a sex offender pursuant to 46-18-254 and 30 46-23-506;

1	$\frac{(e)(2)}{2}$ place the youth in an in-state residence that ensures that the youth is accountable, provides
2	for rehabilitation, and protects the public. Before placement, the sentencing judge shall seek and consider
3	placement recommendations from the youth placement committee. The judge may not place the youth in
4	an in-state residence unless the department informs the judge that resources are available for placement
5	of the youth at that residence.
6	$\frac{(f)(3)(a)}{(a)}$ commit the youth to the department. In an order committing a youth to the department:
7	(ii) the court shall determine whether continuation in the youth's own home would be contrary to
8	the welfare of the youth and whether reasonable efforts have been made to prevent or eliminate the need
9	for removal of the youth from the youth's home;
10	(b) The department may not place a youth in need of supervision in a state youth correctional
11	facility.
12	(ii) in the case of a delinquent youth who is determined by the court to be a serious juvenile
13	offender, the judge may specify that the youth be placed in a state youth correctional facility if the judge
14	finds that the placement is necessary for the protection of the public. The court may order the department
15	to notify the court within 6 working days before the proposed release of a youth from a youth correctional
16	facility. Once a youth is committed to the department for placement in a state youth correctional facility,
17	the department is responsible for determining an appropriate date of release into an appropriate placement.
18	(g)(4) order restitution by the youth or the youth's parents or quardians, subject to the provisions
19	of [section 37];
20	(h)(5) impose a fine as authorized by law if the violation alleged would constitute a criminal offense
21	if committed by an adult;
22	(i)(6) require the performance of community service;
23	$\frac{1}{1}$ require the youth, the youth's parents or guardians, or the persons having legal custody of
24	the youth to receive counseling services;
25	(k)(8) require the medical and psychological evaluation of the youth, the youth's parents or
26	guardians, or the persons having legal custody of the youth;
27	(1)(9) require the parents, guardians, or other persons having legal custody of the youth to furnish
28	services the court may designate;

relief that the court considers beneficial to the youth and the community and that does not obligate funding

(m)(10) subject to the provisions of subsection (11), order further care, treatment, evaluation, or

2	that a youth may not be placed by a youth court in a residential treatment facility as defined in 50-5-101
3	Only the department may, pursuant to subsection (1)(f), place a youth in a residential treatment facility.
4	(n)(11) subject to the provisions of [section 31], commit the youth to a mental health facility if
5	based upon the testimony of a professional person as defined in 53-21-102, the court finds that the youth
6	is seriously mentally ill as defined in 53-21-102 . The youth is entitled to all rights provided by 53-21-11
7	through 53-21-119-;
8	(i) A youth adjudicated mentally ill or seriously mentally ill as defined in 53-21-102 may not be
9	committed or sentenced to a state youth correctional facility.
0	(ii) A youth adjudicated to be mentally ill or seriously mentally ill after placement in or sentencing
1	to a state youth correctional facility must be moved to a more appropriate placement in response to the
2	youth's mental health needs and consistent with the disposition alternatives available in 53-21-127.
3	(e)(12) place the youth under home arrest as provided in Title 46, chapter 18, part 10.
4	. (2) When a youth is committed to the department, the department shall determine the appropriate
5	placement and rehabilitation program for the youth after considering the recommendations made under
6	41-5-527 by the youth placement committee. Placement is subject to the following limitations:
7	(a) A youth in need of supervision or adjudicated delinquent for commission of an act that would
8	not be a criminal offense if committed by an adult may not be placed in a state youth correctional facility.
9	(b) A youth may not be held in a state youth correctional facility for a period of time in excess of
20	the maximum period of imprisonment that could be imposed on an adult convicted of the offense or
21	offenses that brought the youth under the jurisdiction of the youth court. This section does not limit the
22	power of the department to enter into an aftercare agreement with the youth pursuant to 52-5-126.
23	(c) A youth may not be placed in or transferred to a ponal institution or other facility used for the
24	execution of sentence of adults convicted of crimes.
25	(3) A youth placed in a state youth correctional facility or other facility or program operated by the
26	department or who signs an aftercare agreement under 52 5-126 must be supervised by the department.
27	A youth who is placed in any other placement by the department, the youth court, or the youth court's
28	juvenile probation officer must be supervised by the probation officer of the youth court having jurisdiction
29	over the youth under 41-5-205 whether or not the youth is committed to the department. Supervision by
30	the youth probation officer includes but is not limited to:

from the department for services outside the state of Montana without the department's approval, except

55th Legislature HB0114.02

1	(a) submitting information and documentation necessary for the person, committee, or team that
2	is making the placement recommendation to determine an appropriate placement for the youth;
3	(b) securing approval for payment of special education costs from the youth's school district of
4	residence or the office of public instruction, as required in Title 20, chapter 7, part 4;
5	(c) submitting an application to a facility in which the youth may be placed; and
6	(d) case management of the youth.
7	(4) The youth court may order a youth to receive a medical or psychological evaluation at any time
8	prior to final disposition if the youth waives the youth's constitutional rights in the manner provided for in
9	41-5-303. The county determined by the court as the residence of the youth is responsible for the cost of
10	the evaluation, except as provided in subsection (δ). A county may contract with the department or other
11	public or private agencies to obtain evaluation services ordered by the court.
12	(5) The youth court shall determine the financial ability of the youth's parents to pay the cost of
13	an evaluation ordered by the court under subsection (4). If they are financially able, the court shall order
14	the youth's parents to pay all or part of the cost of the evaluation.
15	(6) The youth court may not order placement or evaluation of a youth at a state youth correctional
16	facility unless the youth is found to be a delinquent youth or is alleged to have committed an offense that
17	is transferable to criminal court under 41-5-206.
18	(7) An evaluation of a youth may not be performed at the Montana state hospital unless the youth
19	is transferred to the district court under 41-5-206, 41-5-208, or 41-5-1105.
20	(8) An order of the court may be modified at any time. In the case of a youth committed to the
21	department, an order pertaining to the youth may be modified only upon notice to the department and
22	subsequent hearing.
23	(9) Whenever the court commits a youth to the department, it shall transmit with the dispositional
24	judgment copies of medical reports, social history material, education records, and any other clinical,
25	predisposition, or other reports and information pertinent to the care and treatment of the youth.
26	(10) If a youth is committed to the department, the court shall examine the financial ability of the
27	youth's parents or guardians to pay a contribution covering all or part of the costs for the care,
28	commitment, and treatment of the youth, including the costs of necessary medical, dental, and other health
29	care.

(11) If the court determines that the youth's parents or guardians are financially able to pay a

1	contribution as provided in subsection (10), the court shall order the youth's parents or guardians to pay
2	an amount based on the uniform child support guidelines adopted by the department of public health and
3	human services pursuant to 40-5-209.
4	(12) (a) Except as provided in subsection (12)(b), contributions ordered under this section and each
5	modification of an existing order are enforceable by immediate or delinquency income withholding, or both,
6	under Title 40, chapter 5, part 4. An order for contribution that is inconsistent with this section is
7	nevertheless subject to withholding for the payment of the contribution without need for an amendment
8	of the support order or for any further action by the court.
9	(b) A court-ordered exception from contributions under this section must be in writing and be
10	included in the order. An exception from the immediate income withholding requirement may be granted
11	if the court finds there is:
12	(i) good cause not to require immediate income withholding; or
13	(ii) an alternative arrangement between the department and the person who is ordered to pay
14	contributions.
15	(c) A finding of good cause not to require immediate income withholding must, at a minimum, be
16	based upon:
17	(i) a written determination and explanation by the court of the reasons why the implementation of
18	immediate income withholding is not in the best-interests of the youth; and
19	(iii) proof of timely payment of previously ordered support in cases involving modification of
20	contributions ordered under this section.
21	(d) An alternative arrangement must:
22	(i) provide sufficient security to ensure compliance with the arrangement;
23	(ii) be in writing and be signed by a representative of the department and the person required to
24	make contributions; and
25	(iii) if approved by the court, be entered into the record of the proceeding.
26	(13) Upon a showing of a change in the financial ability of the youth's parents or guardians to pay,
27	the court may modify its order for the payment of contributions required under subsection (11).
28	(14) (a) If the court-orders the payment of contributions under this section, the department shall
29	apply to the department of public health and human services for support enforcement services pursuant
30	to Title IV-D of the Social Security Act.

55th Legislature HB0114.02

(b) The department of public health and human services may collect and enforce a contribution order under this section by any means available under law, including the remedies provided for in Title 40, chapter 5, parts 2 and 4."

NEW SECTION. Section 29. Disposition of delinquent youth -- restrictions. (1) If a youth is found to be a delinquent youth, the youth court may enter its judgment making one or more of the following dispositions:

- (a) any one or more of the dispositions provided in 41-5-523;
- (b) subject to 41-5-523(3)(b), [sections 30(1), 31(2)], and subsection (2) of this section, sentence a youth to one of the state youth correctional facilities established under 52-5-101 and, as part of the sentence, deny the youth eligibility for release without the express approval of the sentencing judge until the youth reaches 18 years of age. A youth may not be sentenced to a state youth correctional facility unless the department informs the judge that space is available for the youth at that facility. The sentencing judge may not place limitations on the release unless recommended by the youth placement committee.
- (c) require a youth found to be delinquent, as the result of the commission of an offense that would be a violation of 45-5-501 through 45-5-504, 45-5-507, or 45-5-511 if committed by an adult, to register as a sex offender pursuant to 46-18-254 and 46-23-506. The youth court retains jurisdiction in a disposition under this subsection.
- (d) in the case of a delinquent youth who is determined by the court to be a serious juvenile offender, the judge may specify that the youth be placed in a state youth correctional facility if the judge finds that the placement is necessary for the protection of the public. The court may order the department to notify the court within 5 working days before the proposed release of a youth from a youth correctional facility. Once a youth is committed to the department for placement in a state youth correctional facility, the department is responsible for determining an appropriate date of release into an appropriate placement.
- (2) The youth court may not order placement of a youth at a state youth correctional facility unless the youth is found to be a delinquent youth or is alleged to have committed an offense that is transferable to criminal court under 41-5-206.

NEW SECTION. Section 30. Disposition -- commitment to department -- restrictions on placement.

When a youth is committed to the department, the department shall determine the appropriate placement

and rehabilitation program for the youth after considering the recommendations made under 41-5-527 by the youth placement committee. Placement is subject to the limitations contained in 41-5-523(3)(b) and the following limitations:

- (1) A youth may not be held in a state youth correctional facility for a period of time in excess of the maximum period of imprisonment that could be imposed on an adult convicted of the offense or offenses that brought the youth under the jurisdiction of the youth court. This section does not limit the power of the department to enter into an aftercare agreement with the youth pursuant to 52-5-126.
- (2) A youth may not be placed in or transferred to a penal institution or other facility used for the execution of sentence of adults convicted of crimes.
- (3) The department may not place a youth adjudicated delinquent for commission of an act that would not be a criminal offense if committed by an adult in a state youth correctional facility.

- NEW SECTION. Section 31. Disposition -- finding of mentally ill or seriously mentally ill -- rights -- limitation on placement. (1) A youth who is found to be seriously mentally ill as defined in 53-21-102 is entitled to all rights provided by 53-21-114 through 53-21-119.
- (2) A youth who, prior to placement or sentencing, is found to be mentally ill, as defined in 41-5-103, or seriously mentally ill, as defined in 53-21-102, may not be committed or sentenced to a state youth correctional facility.
- (3) A youth who is found to be mentally ill or seriously mentally ill after placement in or sentencing to a state youth correctional facility must be moved to a more appropriate placement in response to the youth's mental health needs and consistent with the disposition alternatives available in 53-21-127.

- NEW SECTION. Section 32. Disposition -- commitment to department -- supervision. (1) A youth placed in a state youth correctional facility or other facility or program operated by the department or who signs an aftercare agreement under 52-5-126 must be supervised by the department.
- (2) A youth who is placed in any other placement by the department, the youth court, or the youth court's juvenile probation officer must be supervised by the probation officer of the youth court having jurisdiction over the youth under 41-5-205 whether or not the youth is committed to the department. Supervision by the youth probation officer includes but is not limited to:
 - (a) submitting information and documentation necessary for the person, committee, or team that is making the placement r	recommendation to determine a	n appropriate	placement for	r the youth;

---------------------------	-------------------------------	---------------	---------------	--------------

- (b) securing approval for payment of special education costs from the youth's school district of residence or the office of public instruction, as required in Title 20, chapter 7, part 4;
 - (c) submitting an application to a facility in which the youth may be placed; and
 - (d) case management of the youth.

NEW SECTION. Section 33. Disposition -- commitment to department -- transfer of records. Whenever the court commits a youth to the department, it shall transmit with the dispositional judgment copies of medical reports, social history material, education records, and any other clinical, predisposition, or other reports and information pertinent to the care and treatment of the youth.

NEW SECTION. Section 34. Modification of court orders -- notice to department -- hearing. (1)

An order of the court may be modified at any time.

(2) In the case of a youth committed to the department, an order pertaining to the youth may be modified only upon notice to the department and subsequent hearing.

NEW SECTION. Section 35. Contribution for costs -- order for contribution -- exceptions -- collection. (1) If a youth is committed to the department, the court shall examine the financial ability of the youth's parents or guardians to pay a contribution covering all or part of the costs for the care, commitment, and treatment of the youth, including the costs of necessary medical, dental, and other health care.

- (2) If the court determines that the youth's parents or guardians are financially able to pay a contribution as provided in subsection (1), the court shall order the youth's parents or guardians to pay an amount based on the uniform child support guidelines adopted by the department of public health and human services pursuant to 40-5-209.
- (3) (a) Except as provided in subsection (3)(b), contributions ordered under 41-5-403 and this section and each modification of an existing order are enforceable by immediate or delinquency income withholding, or both, under Title 40, chapter 5, part 4. An order for contribution that is inconsistent with this section is nevertheless subject to withholding for the payment of the contribution without need for an amendment of the support order or for any further action by the court.

1	(b) A court-ordered exception from contributions under 41-5-403 or this section must be in writing
2	and must be included in the order. An exception from the immediate income withholding requirement may
3	be granted if the court finds that there is:
4	(i) good cause not to require immediate income withholding; or
5	(ii) an alternative arrangement between the department and the person who is ordered to pay
6	contributions.
7	(c) A finding of good cause not to require immediate income withholding must, at a minimum, be
8	based upon:
9	(i) a written determination and explanation by the court of the reasons why the implementation of
10	immediate income withholding is not in the best interests of the youth; and
11	(ii) proof of timely payment of previously ordered support in cases involving modification of
12	contributions ordered under this section.
13	(d) An alternative arrangement must:
14	(i) provide sufficient security to ensure compliance with the arrangement;
15	(ii) be in writing and be signed by a representative of the department and the person required to
16	make contributions; and
17	(iii) if approved by the court, be entered into the record of the proceeding.
18	(4) Upon a showing of a change in the financial ability of the youth's parents or guardians to pay,
19	the court may modify its order for the payment of contributions required under 41-5-403 or subsection (2).
20	(5) (a) If the court orders the payment of contributions under 41-5-403 or this section, the
21	department shall apply to the department of public health and human services for support enforcement
22	services pursuant to Title IV-D of the Social Security Act.
23	(b) The department of public health and human services may collect and enforce a contribution
24	order under 41-5-403 or this section by any means available under law, including the remedies provided
25	for in Title 40, chapter 5, parts 2 and 4.
26
27	NEW SECTION. Section 36. Disposition medical or psychological evaluation of youth costs.
28	(1) The youth court may order a youth to receive a medical or psychological evaluation at any time prior
29	to final disposition if the youth waives the youth's constitutional rights in the manner provided for in
30	41-5-303. Except as provided in subsection (2), the county determined by the court as the residence of

1	the youth is responsible for the cost of the evaluation. A county may contract with the department or other
2	public or private agencies to obtain evaluation services ordered by the court.

- (2) The youth court shall determine the financial ability of the youth's parents or guardians to pay the cost of an evaluation ordered by the court under subsection (1). If they are financially able, the court shall order the youth's parents or quardians to pay all or part of the cost of the evaluation.
- (3) The youth court may not order evaluation of a youth at a state youth correctional facility unless the youth is found to be a delinquent youth or is alleged to have committed an offense that is transferable to district court under 41-5-206.
- (4) An evaluation of a youth may not be performed at the Montana state hospital unless the youth is transferred to the district court under 41-5-206, 41-5-208, or 41-5-1105.

- NEW SECTION. Section 37. Restitution. (1) In determining whether restitution, as authorized by 41-5-403 and 41-5-523, is appropriate in a particular case, the following factors may be considered in addition to any other evidence:
- (a) age of the youth;
- (b) ability of the youth to pay;
- 17 (c) ability of the parents, legal guardian, or those that contributed to the youth's delinquency or 18 need for supervision to pay;
 - (d) amount of damage to the victim; and
 - (e) legal remedies of the victim. However, the ability of the victim or the victim's insurer to stand any loss may not be considered in any case.
 - (2) Restitution paid by a youth or a youth's parents or guardians is subject to subrogation as provided in 46-18-248.

- Section 38. Section 41-5-525, MCA, is amended to read:
- 26 "41-5-525. Youth placement committees -- composition. (1) In each judicial district, the department shall establish a youth placement committee for the purposes of:
- 28 (a) recommending an appropriate placement of a youth referred to the department under 41-5-403; 29 or

2	[section 29]. However, the committee may not substitute its judgment for that of the superintendent of a
3	state youth correctional facility regarding the discharge of a youth from the facility.

- (2) The committee consists of not less than five members and must include persons who are knowledgeable about the youth, treatment and placement options, and other resources appropriate to address the needs of the youth. Members may include:
 - (a) two representatives of the department;
- (b) a representative of the department of public health and human services;
- 9 (c) either the chief probation officer or the youth's probation officer;
- 10 (d) a mental health professional;
- 11 (e) a representative of a school district located within the boundaries of the judicial district;
 - (f) if an Indian child or children are involved, someone, preferably an Indian person, knowledgeable about Indian culture and family matters;
 - (g) a parent or guardian; and
 - (h) a youth services provider.
- 16 (3) Committee members serve without compensation.
- 17 (4) Notwithstanding the provisions of 41-5-527, the committee may be convened by the department or the probation officer of the youth court."

Section 39. Section 41-5-527, MCA, is amended to read:

- "41-5-527. Youth placement committee to submit recommendation to department -- acceptance or rejection of recommendation by department. (1) Prior to commitment of a youth to the department pursuant to 41-5-523 or [section 29], a youth placement committee must be convened. The committee shall submit in writing to the department and to the youth court judge its primary and alternative recommendations for placement of the youth.
- (2) If the department accepts either of the committee's recommendations, it shall promptly notify the committee in writing.
- (3) If the department rejects both of the committee's recommendations, it shall promptly notify the committee in writing of the reasons for rejecting the recommendations and shall make an appropriate placement for the youth.

(4)	Within	72	hours	after	making	а	decision	on	а	placement	or	change	of	placement,	the department	shall no	tify	the yo	outh co	ourt of th	ne	decision	and ·	of	the placem	ent	or chang	ge d	of placement	. "

- Section 40. Section 41-5-530, MCA, is amended to read:
- 5 "41-5-530. Parental contributions account -- allocation of proceeds. (1) There is a parental contributions account in the state special revenue fund.
 - (2) Contributions paid by the parents and guardians of youth under 41-3-406, 41-5-403, 41-5-523 [section 35], or 41-5-524 must be deposited in the account.
 - (3) All money in the account, except any amount required to be returned to federal or county sources, is allocated to the department of public health and human services to carry out its duties under 52-1-103."

- Section 41. Section 41-5-1004, MCA, is amended to read:
- "41-5-1004. Distribution of grants -- limitation of funding -- restrictions on use. (1) The board shall award grants on an equitable basis, giving preference to services that will be used on a regional basis.
 - (2) The board shall award grants to eligible counties:
- (a) in a block grant in an amount not to exceed 50% of the approved, estimated cost of secure detention; or
 - (b) on a matching basis in an amount not to exceed:
- (i) 75% of the approved cost of providing holdovers, attendant care, and other alternatives to secure detention, except for shelter care. Shelter care must be paid as provided by law.
- (ii) 50% of the approved cost of programs for the transportation of youth to appropriate detention or shelter care facilities, including regional detention facilities.
- (3) Based on funding available after the board has funded block grants under subsection (2), the board shall, in cases of extreme hardship in which the transfer of youth court cases to the adult system has placed considerable financial strain on a county's resources, award grants to eligible counties to fund up to 75% of the actual costs of secure detention of youth awaiting transfer. Hardship cases will be addressed at the end of the fiscal year and will be awarded by the board based upon a consideration of the applicant county's past 3 years' expenditures for youth detention and upon consideration of the particular case or cases that created the hardship expenditure for which the hardship grant is requested.

(4) Grants under 41-5-1002 may not be used to pay for the cost of youth evaluation	is. The cast of evaluations must be paid as provided for in 41-5-523 [section 36]."

Section 42. Section 41-5-1104, MCA, is amended to read:

"41-5-1104. Disposition in extended jurisdiction prosecutions. (1) If a youth in an extended jurisdiction prosecution pleads guilty to or is found guilty of an offense described in 41-5-1102(1)(b), the court shall:

- (a) impose one or more juvenile dispositions under 41-5-523 [section 29]; and
- (b) impose an adult criminal sentence, the execution of which must be stayed on the condition that the youth not violate the provisions of the disposition order and not commit a new offense. If the youth violates the conditions of the stay or commits a new offense, the adult criminal sentence must be executed as provided in 41-5-1105.
- (2) Except as provided in subsection (3), if a youth in an extended jurisdiction prosecution is convicted of an offense not described in 41-5-1102(1)(b), the court shall adjudicate the youth delinquent and order a disposition under 41-5-523 [section 29].
- (3) If a youth in an extended jurisdiction prosecution pleads guilty to an offense not described in 41-5-1102(1)(b), the court may impose, with the youth's consent, a disposition provided under subsection (1)(b) of this section. If the youth does not consent to disposition under subsection (1)(b), the court shall impose a disposition as provided under subsection (2)."

- Section 43. Section 46-24-207, MCA, is amended to read:
- "46-24-207. Victims and witnesses of juvenile felony offenses -- consultation -- notification of proceedings. (1) The attorney general shall ensure that the services and assistance that must be provided under this chapter to a victim or witness of a crime are also provided to the victim or witness of a juvenile felony offense.
- (2) In a proceeding filed under Title 41, chapter 5, part 514 or 15, the county attorney or a designee shall consult with the victim of a juvenile felony offense or, in the case of a minor victim or a homicide victim, with the victim's family regarding the disposition of the case, including:
 - (a) a dismissal of the petition filed under 41-5-501;
 - (b) a reduction of the charge to misdemeanor;

HB0114.02

- 1 (c) the release of the youth from detention or shelter care pending the adjudicatory hearing; and
- 2 (d) the disposition of the youth.
 - (3) (a) Whenever possible, a person described in subsection (3)(b) who provides the youth court with a current address and telephone number must receive prompt advance notification of youth court case proceedings, including:
 - (i) the filing of a petition under 41-5-501;
 - (ii) the release of the youth from detention or shelter care; and
 - (iii) proceedings in the adjudication of the petition, including, when applicable, entry of a consent decree under 41-5-524, the setting of a date for the adjudicatory hearing under 41-5-521, the setting of a date for the dispositional hearing under 41-5-522, the disposition made, and the release of the youth from a youth correctional facility.
 - (b) A person entitled to notification under this subsection (3) must be a victim of a juvenile felony offense, an adult relative of the victim if the victim is a minor, or an adult relative of a homicide victim.
 - (c) The court shall provide to the department the list of people entitled to notification under this subsection (3), and the department is responsible to provide the notification.
 - (4) For purposes of this section, "juvenile felony offense" means an offense committed by a juvenile that, if committed by an adult, would constitute a felony offense. The term includes any offense for which a juvenile may be declared a serious juvenile offender, as defined in 41-5-103."

Section 44. Section 52-5-129, MCA, is amended to read:

"52-5-129. Hearing on alleged violation of aftercare agreement -- right to appeal outcome. (1) When it is alleged by an aftercare counselor that a youth has violated the terms of the youth's aftercare agreement, the youth must be granted a hearing at the site of the alleged violation or in the county in which the youth is residing or is found within 10 days after notice has been served on the youth or the youth is detained, whichever is earlier. The purpose of the hearing is to determine whether the youth committed the violation and, if so, whether the violation is of such a nature that the youth should be returned to the youth correctional facility from which the youth was released or a different plan for treatment should be pursued by the department of corrections.

- (2) The youth, upon advice of an attorney, may waive the right to a hearing.
- (3) With regard to this hearing, the youth must be given:

- 1 (a) written notice of the alleged violation of the aftercare agreement, including notice of the purpose of the hearing;
 - (b) a disclosure of the evidence against the youth and the facts constituting the alleged violation;
 - (c) the opportunity to be heard in person and to present witnesses and documentary evidence to controvert the evidence against the youth and to show that there are compelling reasons that justify or mitigate the violation;
 - (d) the opportunity to have the referee hearings officer subpoena witnesses;
 - (e) the right to confront and cross-examine adverse witnesses;
 - (f) the right to be represented by an attorney;
- 10 (g) a record of the hearing; and
 - (h) notice that a written statement as to the evidence relied upon in reaching the final decision and the reasons for the final decision will be provided by the referee hearings officer.
 - (4) The department shall appoint a referee hearings officer, who may not be an employee of the department, to conduct the hearing. In the conduct of the hearing, the department may request the county attorney's assistance as necessary. The department shall adopt rules necessary to effect a prompt and full review.
 - (5) If the referee hearings officer finds, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the youth did in fact commit the violation, the referee hearings officer shall make a recommendation to the department for the placement of the youth. In making this recommendation, the referee hearings officer may consider mitigating circumstances. Final approval rests with the department and must be made within 10 days of the referee's hearings officer's recommendation.
 - (6) The youth may appeal from the decision at the hearing to the district court of the county in which the hearing was held by serving and filing a notice of appeal with the court within 10 days of the department's decision. The youth may obtain a written transcript of the hearing from the department by giving written notice of appeal. The district court, upon receipt of a notice of appeal, shall order the department to promptly certify to the court a record of all proceedings before the department and shall proceed to a prompt hearing on the appeal based upon the record on appeal. The decision of the department may not be altered except for abuse of discretion or manifest injustice.
 - (7) Pending the hearing on a violation and pending the department's decision, a youth may not be detained except when the youth's detention or care is required to protect the person or property of the youth or of others or the youth may abscond or be removed from the community. The department shall determine the place and manner of detention and is responsible for the cost of the detention. Procedures for taking into custody and detention of a youth charged with violation of the youth's aftercare agreement are as provided in 41-5-303, 41-5-306, 41-5-311, and 41-5-314, [sections 12 through 14], and [sections 18 through 21].

(8) If the decision is made to return the youth to the youth correctional facility from which the youth was released and the youth appeals that decision, the youth shall await the outcome of the appeal at the facility."

Section 45. Section 53-9-107, MCA, is amended to read:

- "53-9-107. Public inspection and disclosure of division's records. (1) Except as provided in subsections (2) and (3), the records the division maintains in its possession in the administration of this part are open to public inspection and disclosure.
- (2) Confidential criminal justice information obtained by the division is subject to the confidentiality provisions of the Montana Criminal Justice Information Act of 1979, Title 44, chapter 5. Information regarding youth court proceedings obtained by the division is subject to the confidentiality provisions of Title 41, chapter 5, part 6.
- (3) In assuring that the right of individual privacy so essential to the well-being of a free society may not be infringed without the showing of a compelling state interest, the following public records of the division are exempt from disclosure:
- (a) information of a personal nature, such as personal, medical, or similar information, if the public disclosure thereof would constitute an unreasonable invasion of privacy, unless the public interest by clear and convincing evidence requires disclosure in the particular instance. The party seeking disclosure shall have has the burden of showing that public disclosure would not constitute an unreasonable invasion of privacy.
- (b) any public records or information, the disclosure of which is prohibited by federal law or regulations.
- (4) If any public record of the division contains material which that is not exempt under subsection (3), as well as material which that is exempt from disclosure, the division shall separate the exempt and nonexempt and make the nonexempt material available for examination."

4	(F) THE FOLLOWING SECTIONS IN THIS BILL MUST READ AS FOLLOWS:
5	"Section 5. Section 41-5-301, MCA, is amended to read:
6	"41-5-301. Preliminary investigation and disposition inquiry referral of youth in need of care. (1)
7	Whenever the court receives information from any an agency or person, based upon reasonable grounds,
8	that a youth is or appears to be a delinquent youth or a youth in need of supervision intervention or, being
9	that the youth is subject to a court order or consent order, and has violated the terms of an order, a
10	probation officer or an assessment officer shall make a preliminary inquiry into the matter.
11	(2) The probation officer may:
12	(a) require the presence of any person relevant to the inquiry;
13	(b) request subpoenas from the judge to accomplish this purpose;
14	(e) require investigation of the matter by any law enforcement agency or any other appropriate
15	state or local agency.
16	(3)(2) If the probation officer or assessment officer determines that the facts indicate that the youth
17	is a youth in need of care, the matter must be immediately referred to the department of public health and
18	human services.
19	(4) (a) The probation officer in the conduct of the preliminary inquiry shall:
20	(i) advise the youth of the youth's rights under this chapter and the constitutions of the state of
21	Montana and the United States;
22	(ii) determine whether the matter is within the jurisdiction of the court;
23	(iii) determine, if the youth is in detention or shelter care, whether detention or shelter care should
24	be continued based upon criteria set forth in 41-5-305.
25	(b) Once relevant information is secured, the probation officer shall:
26	(i) determine whether the interest of the public or the youth requires that further action be taken;
27	(ii) terminate the inquiry upon the determination that no further action be taken; and
28	(iii) release the youth immediately upon the determination that the filing of a petition is not
29	authorized.
30	(5) The probation officer upon determining that further action is required may:

55th Legislature HB0114.02

1	(a) provide counseling, refer the youth and the youth's parents to another agency providing
2	appropriate services, or take any other action or make any informal adjustment that does not involve
3	probation or detention;
4	(b) provide for treatment or adjustment involving probation or other disposition authorized under
5	41-5-401 through 41-5-403 if the treatment or adjustment is voluntarily accepted by the youth's parents
6	or guardian and the youth, if the matter is referred immediately to the county attorney for review, and if
7	the probation officer proceeds no further unless authorized by the county attorney; or
8	(c) refer the matter to the county attorney for filing a potition charging the youth to be a delinquent
9	youth or a youth in need of supervision.
10	(6) The county attorney may apply to the youth court for permission to file a petition charging a
11	youth to be a delinquent youth or a youth in need of supervision. The application must be supported by
12	evidence that the youth court may require. If it appears that there is probable cause to believe that the
13	allegations of the petition are true, the youth court shall grant leave to file the petition.
14	(7) A petition charging a youth held in detention must be filed within 7 working days from the date
15	the youth was first taken into custody or the petition must be dismissed and the youth released unless good
16	cause is shown to further detain the youth.
17	(8) If a petition is not filed under this section, the complainant and victim, if any, must be informed
18	by the probation officer of the action and the reasons for not filing and must be advised of the right to
19	submit the matter to the county attorney for review. The county attorney, upon receiving a request for
20	review, shall consider the facts, consult with the probation officer, and make the final decision as to
21	whether a petition is filed."
22	NEW SECTION. Section 6. Preliminary inquiry procedure youth assessment. (1) In conducting
23	a preliminary inquiry under 41-5-301, the probation officer or assessment officer shall:

- (a) advise the youth of the youth's rights under this chapter and the constitutions of the state of
- Montana and the United States;
 - (b) determine whether the matter is within the jurisdiction of the court;
- (c) determine, if the youth is in detention, a youth assessment center, or shelter care, whether detention, placement in a youth assessment center, or shelter care should be continued or modified based upon criteria set forth in 41-5-305, [section 16], and [section 47].
 - (2) In conducting a preliminary inquiry, the probation officer or assessment officer may:

- 40 -

1	(a) require the presence of any person relevant to the inquiry;
2	(b) request subpoenas from the judge to accomplish this purpose;
3	(c) require investigation of the matter by any law enforcement agency or any other appropriate
4	state or local agency;
5	(d) perform a youth assessment pursuant to [section 46].
6	(3) The probation officer or assessment officer shall collect the following information regarding a
7	youth:
8	(a) biographical data;
9	(b) a description of prior and current offenses, including criminal history;
10	(c) a listing of known or suspected associates;
11	(d) any gang or drug involvement;
12	(e) field investigation data;
13	(f) motor vehicle ownership and offense data, if any;
14	(g) whether the youth is a suspect in other criminal investigations;
15	(h) history of any victimization of others by the youth;
16	(i) the youth's status offense history;
17	(j) existence of active warrants;
18	(k) school, employment, and family histories;
19	(I) social and medical services histories;
20	(m) prior conduct in a youth detention or correctional facility, if any.
21	NEW SECTION. Section 7. Preliminary inquiry determinations release. Once relevant
22	information is secured after a preliminary inquiry under 41-5-301, the probation officer or assessment
23	officer shall:
24	(1) determine whether the interest of the public or the youth requires that further action be taken;
25	(2) terminate the inquiry upon the determination that no further action be taken; and
26	(3) release the youth immediately upon the determination that the filing of a petition is not
27	authorized.
28	NEW SECTION. Section 8. Preliminary inquiry dispositions available to probation officer. Upon
29	determining that further action is required after a preliminary inquiry under 41-5-301, the probation officer
30	or assessment officer may:

(1)	arrange	informal	disposition	as	provided	in	Section	91:	or
-----	---------	----------	-------------	----	----------	----	---------	-----	----

(2) refer the matter to the county attorney for filing a petition in youth court charging the youth to be a delinquent youth or a youth in need of intervention or for filing an information in the district court as provided in 41-5-206.

NEW SECTION. Section 9. Informal disposition. After a preliminary inquiry under 41-5-301, the probation officer or assessment officer upon determining that further action is required and that referral to the county attorney is not required may:

- (1) provide counseling, refer the youth and the youth's family to another agency providing appropriate services, or take any other action or make any informal adjustment that does not involve probation or detention; or
- (2) provide for treatment or adjustment involving probation or other disposition authorized under 41-5-401 through 41-5-403 if the treatment or adjustment is voluntarily accepted by the youth's parents or guardian and the youth, if the matter is referred immediately to the county attorney for review, and if the probation officer or assessment officer proceeds no further unless authorized by the county attorney.

NEW SECTION. Section 10. Petition -- county attorney -- procedure -- release from custody. (1) The county attorney may apply to the youth court for permission to file a petition charging a youth to be a delinquent youth or a youth in need of intervention. The application must be supported by evidence that the youth court may require. If it appears that there is probable cause to believe that the allegations of the petition are true, the youth court shall grant leave to file the petition.

- (2) A petition charging a youth who is held in detention or a youth assessment center must be filed within 7 working days from the date the youth was first taken into custody or the petition must be dismissed and the youth released unless good cause is shown to further detain the youth.
- (3) If a petition is not filed under this section, the complainant and victim, if any, must be informed by the probation officer or assessment officer of the action and the reasons for not filing and must be advised of the right to submit the matter to the county attorney for review. The county attorney, upon receiving a request for review, shall consider the facts, consult with the probation officer or assessment officer, and make the final decision as to whether a petition is filed.

NEW SECTION. Section 14. Custody -- hearing for probable cause -- determinations -- detention -- release. (1) If, at a probable cause hearing held pursuant to [section 12], it is determined that there is probable cause to believe that the youth is a delinquent youth or a youth in need of intervention, the court

1	having jurisdiction in the case shall determine whether the youth should be retained in custody. If the court
2	determines that continued custody of the youth is necessary and if the youth meets the criteria in
3	41-5-305, [section 16], or [section 47], the youth may be placed in a detention facility, a youth assessment
4	center, or a shelter care facility as provided in [sections 18 through 21] but may not be placed in a jail or
5	other facility used for the confinement of adults accused or convicted of criminal offenses.
6	(2) If probable cause is not found or if a probable cause hearing is not held within the time specified
7	in (section 12), the youth must be immediately released from custody.
8	Section 17. Section 41-5-306, MCA, is amended to read:
9	"41-5-306. Place of shelter care or detention Limitation on placement of youth in need of care.
10	(1) After a probable cause hearing provided for in 41-5-303, a youth alleged to be a youth in need of
11	supervision may be placed only:
12	(a) in a licensed youth foster home as defined in 41-3-1102;
13	(b) in a facility operated by a licensed child welfare agency;
14	(c) in a licensed youth group home as defined in 41 3-1102; or
15	(d) under home arrest, either in the youth's own home or in one of the facilities described in
16	subsections (1)(a) through (1)(c), as provided in Title 46, chapter 18, part 10.
17	(2) A youth alleged to be a youth in need of care may be placed only in the facilities listed in
18	subsection (1) by the department of public health and human services as provided in Title 41, chapter 3,
19	and may not be placed in a youth assessment center, youth detention facility, jail, or other facility intended
20	or used for the confinement of adults accused or convicted of criminal offenses.
21	(3) After a probable cause hearing provided for in 41-5-303, a youth alleged to be a delinquent
22	youth may be placed only:
23	(a) in the facilities described in subsection (1);
24	(b) under home arrest as provided in subsection (1);
25	(c) in a short-term detention conter;
26	(d) in a youth detention facility; or
27	(e) in a community youth court program."
28	NEW SECTION. Section 20. Place of shelter care. Placement in shelter care means placement in
29	one of the following:
30	(1) in a licensed youth care facility as defined in 41-3-1102; or

(2) under home arr	est, with or without a monitoring de	evice, as provided in Title 46, chapter 18, part 10, either in the youth	s own home or in a facility describe	ed in subsection (1).

- (3) All money in the account, except any amount required to be returned to federal or county sources, is allocated to the department of public health and human services to carry out its duties under 52-1-103."
 - Section 40: Section 41-5-530, MCA, is amended to read:
- 7 "41-5-530. Parental contributions account -- allocation of proceeds. (1) There is a parental contributions account in the state special revenue fund.
 - (2) Contributions paid by the parents and guardians of youth under 41-3-406, 41-5-403, 41-5-523 [section 35-41 of Senate Bill No. 48, second reading copy of the second house], or 41-5-524 must be deposited in the account.
 - (3) All money in the account, except any amount required to be returned to federal or county sources, is allocated to the department of public health and human services to carry out its duties under 52-1-103."
