

Changing Your Name When Your Safety Is at Risk

Note: Use these instructions and forms to change your name when your safety is at risk.

These instructions and forms may not be right for your case. They can not take the place of advice from a lawyer. Talk to a lawyer if you have any questions.

Do not change these forms. If you change the forms, you might lose language you need.

What Forms Will I Need to Change My Name When My Safety Is at Risk?

If you are over 18, you will need to fill out and file the following forms to change your name under sealed record:

- Petition for Name Change
- Order Sealing Record and Setting Hearing
- Order for Name Change Under Sealed Record
- Affidavit of Inability to Pay (only if you cannot afford filing fees)

The Petition asks the court to change your name and schedule a hearing.

The Order Sealing Record and Setting Hearing will be filled out by the judge. The Order will tell you whether the judge is going to seal your record. It will also tell you when and where your hearing will be held.

The Order for Name Change under Sealed Record will be filled out by the judge. The Order will grant your name change and will order changes to your birth records.

The Affidavit of Inability to Pay asks the court to waive filing fees in your case. If you can not afford to pay the filing fees, ask your clerk of district court for an affidavit of inability to pay. This form may be called something else in your district.

What Words Do I Need to Know?

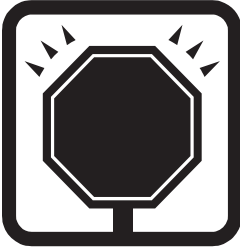

Sealed Record- Sealed record means all court papers relating to your name change will be kept from the public. The court will keep your papers in a file, but will not let anyone else see them. The court may allow your name change to go forward under sealed record if your safety is at risk.

Petitioner- A Petitioner is someone who files an action in court. If you are asking the Court to change your name, you are the Petitioner.

Who Can Use the Form?

You can use these forms if you:

- Want to change your name;
- Are over 18 years old;
- Are not changing your name in order to avoid debt, hide a criminal record, or for any other improper reason; and
- Making your name change public would put your safety at risk.

Note: You can only use these forms if making your name change public would put your safety at risk. If your safety is not at risk, please use [adult name change] or [minor child name change].

These forms can only be used to change the name of an adult. If you want to change the name of a child whose safety is at risk, please talk to a lawyer.

Talk to a lawyer if you have any questions.
