IN THE MATTER of Proposed Adoption of New Rules Regarding the Montana Telecommunications Act and New Rules for Minimum Rate Case Filing Requirements for Telephone Utilities	)))))	NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING ON PROPOSED ADOPTION OF NEW RULES REGARDING THE TELECOMMUNICATIONS ACT AND NEW RULES FOR MINIMUM RATE CASE FILING REQUIREMENTS FOR TELEPHONE UTILITIES

TO: All Interested Persons

1. On March 6, 1986, in the Commission Conference Room 2701 Prospect Avenue, Helena, Montana at 9 a.m., a hearing will be held to consider the proposed adoption of rules regarding the Montana Telecommunications Act and minimum rate case filing requirements for telecommunications utilities.

2. The proposed rules do not replace or modify any section currently found in the Administrative Rules of Montana.

3. The proposed rules provide as follows:

Rule I PURPOSE (1) It remains the policy of the State of Montana to maintain universal basic telecommunications service at affordable rates. To the extent that it is consistent with maintaining universal service, it is further the State's policy to encourage competition in the telecommunications industry, thereby allowing access by the public to advances in telecommunications technology. It is the purpose of the Montana Telecommunications Act and these rules to provide a regulatory framework that will allow an orderly transition, where appropriate, from a regulated telecommunications industry to a competitive market environment. Nothing in these rules preempts, abrogates, or otherwise affects any right, liability, or obligation arising from any federal or state law regarding unfair business practices or anticompetitve activity.

(2) Regulatory jurisdiction exists over basic telecommunications service that is two-way switched, voice grade access and transport of communications originating and terminating in this state and nonvoice grade access and transport if intended to be converted to or from voice-grade access and transport. The Commission retains the power to protect ratepayer interests by totally regulating the rates for telecommunication services that are provided on a monopoly basis.

(3) These rules, adopted pursuant to the Montana Telecommunications Act and in accordance with the Montana Administrative Procedures Act, may be cited as the Montana Telecommunications Act Rules.

(4) "Regulated telecommunications service" means two-way switched, voice-grade access and transport of communications originating and terminating in this state and nonvoice-grade access and transport if intended to be converted to or from voice-grade access and transport. (2) Commission review to determine the proper allocation between regulated and nonregulated service may be in a rate case or the Commission may initiate an investigation.

(2) The Commission may establish specific rates, tariffs, or fares for the provision of regulated telecommunications service to the public. Alternatively, the Commission may authorize the provision of regulated telecommunications service under such terms and conditions as may best serve the State's telecommunications policy.

(3) The Commission may initiate a determination of whether alternatives to rate setting are appropriate or the telecommunications provider or an interested party may request a determination. If the Commission initiates the determination it must notify all parties on the telecommunications mailing list that it intends to consider alternatives to rate setting and may give any additional notice it deems appropriate. If a telecommunications provider or an interested party petitions the Commission for an alternative to rate setting it shall notify all parties on the telecommunications mailing list. To make its determination the Commission may use contested case procedure, require a public hearing, or, if there is no material factual question, act without a hearing.

Rule XV PROCEDURES TO REQUIRE RE-TARIFFING (1) The Commission retains the right to require retariffing. A determination that a service should be retariffed is dependent on the factors listed in Rule XIII (1)(a) through (e).

(2) Any interested party may petition the Commission for a redetermination of whether an alternative to rate setting is appropriate. The burden of proof is on the party attempting to establish that the service should be tariffed. Such a request will be considered a complaint subject to the requirements of ARM 38.2.2101 through 38.2.2107.

(3) If the Commission intends to redetermine whether alternatives to rate setting are appropriate, it shall notify the telecommunication provider and all those on the telecommunications mailing list. If there is no material factual question the Commission may make its determination without a hearing. Any interested party may comment by filing written comments within 20 days of notification that the Commission intends to redetermine whether alternatives to rate setting are appropriate.

(3) The Commission shall approve or deny the application within ten days of receipt of the completed application. If the Commission takes no action within ten days, the application is granted. The Commission may by order defer action for up to five days.

CERTIFIED TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE FEBRUARY 3, 1986.

BEFORE THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE STATE OF MONTANA

In the matter of the proposed adoption of interpretive rules relative to the implementation of Public Law 98-435 -- Voting Accessibility for Elderly and Handicapped Act	))))	NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING ON INTERPRETIVE RULES I - XIV FOR THE IMPLEMENTATION OF PUBLIC LAW 98-435 -- VOTING ACCESSIBILITY FOR THE ELDERLY AND HANDICAPPED ACT

TO: All Interested Persons

1. On March 5, 1986 at 10:00 a.m., a public hearing will be held in Room 104, State Capitol Building at Helena, Montana to consider the adoption of interpretive rules to define and determine "voting accessibility for the elderly and handicapped", and to establish and maintain uniformity in the surveying of polling places, pursuant to Public Law 98-435. These rules are advisory only, but may be considered a correct interpretation of the law.

2. The proposed rules do not replace or modify any rules currently found in the Administrative Rules of Montana. The secretary of state intends to seek specific statutory authority for the adoption of substantive rules during the 1987 Legislative session.

3. The proposed rules provide as follows:

RULE I INTRODUCTION, SCOPE AND INTENT (1) Public Law 98-435 was passed by the 98th Congress to promote the fundamental right to vote by improving access for handicapped and elderly individuals to all polling places in Montana.

(2) The purpose of these rules is to establish minimum guidelines to be used in determining whether facilities used for voting in certain elections are accessible to handicapped and elderly electors pursuant to Public Law 98-435.

(3) Where accessibility is determined to be impractical or impossible, these rules will establish procedures intended to provide an alternative means of casting a ballot for elderly and handicapped electors.

(4) It is the intent of the secretary of state's office that county governing bodies and election administrators work together and proceed in good faith to develop long-range plans for achieving the most practical state of compliance possible by 1990.

(5) The title of Public Law 98-435 is the Voting Accessibility for the Elderly and Handicapped Act. For the purpose of clarity and throughout these rules, PL 98-435 shall be referred to as the Voting Accessibility Act.

(6) These rules shall only apply to elections conducted under 13-1-104(1) and 13-1-107, MCA.

RULE VI. Not adopted.

(3) The Insurance Commissioner received written comments and testimony at the hearing both in support of the proposed rules and in opposition to the proposed rules. The Insurance Commissioner has reviewed the rules adopted by the Human Rights Commission and has attempted to conform these rules to those adopted by the Commission to avoid unnecessary confusion. The comments, and the Insurance Commissioner's responses to them, are summarized as follows:

(a) Several commenters objected to the definition of "renewal" contained in proposed rule I and its use in the rules, contending that the definition was confusing and inconsistent with the manner in which the term is used in the insurance industry. The Insurance Commissioner agrees with these comments and deleted the definition of renewal and its use in the rules as adopted. The Insurance Commissioner agrees with the Human Rights Commission and incorporates the deleted definition of renewal in 6.6.2104(4) as it is necessary to explain the purpose of this rule.

(b) Several commenters objected to the use of the term "risk" with respect to disability and health insurance because that term is not customarily used for these types of insurance and could cause confusion. The Insurance Commissioner agrees with these comments. The addition of the phrase "property and casualty" in Rule II (6.6.2106) limits its applicability to those types of insurance where the term "risk" is customarily used.

(c) The Women's Lobbyist Fund objected to the inclusion of the income of the insured as a permissible factor in establishing insurance rates and premiums on the ground that income can act as a surrogate for gender. The Insurance Commissioner defers to the Human Rights Commission which agreed to this change. The Human Rights Commission deleted this factor from the rules as adopted, reasoning that because the list of factors is permissive, an insurer would not be prohibited from utilizing income as a factor. A person who believes the use of income to be discriminatory on the basis of sex in setting of his or her insurance premiums may file a complaint the with the Human Rights Commission and the issue can be resolved in a contested case proceeding.

(d) Glen Drake, representing the American Insurance Associaiton recommended adding the language "where the car is garaged" to the portion of the rule which permits the use of geographic location as a factor in establishing rates for motor vehicle liability and property coverage. The Insurance Commissioner joins the Human Rights Commission in rejecting this suggestion. The present language does not preclude the use of the location where the car is garaged as a factor and affords more flexibility by permitting the use of other locations as well.

(e) The National Orgnization for Women (NOW) and its Montana Chapter recommended the adoption of a prohibition on flat-rate pricing for automobile insurance that ignores mileage currently in use by the automobile insurance industry. NOW contends that actual mileage is the best predictor of risk of accident and that facially neutral flat rates are discriminatory against women as a class because women tend to be low mileage drivers. The Insurance Commissioner joins the Human Rights Commission in rejecting this suggestion. At this time there is not the accurate data base to allow actual mileage to be used as the only predictor of risk. Any correlation between mileage driven and sex of the driver should be determined by the Human Rights Commission in a contested case proceeding.

(f) There were numerous comments received concerning the application of the proposed rules relating to rates charged by life and disability insurers. This also includes comments by health service corporations as to the applicability of the rules to their programs. Because of statutory prohibitions against reviewing premium rates of life and disability insurance (Section 33-16-103, MCA), the Insurance Commissioner has deleted all proposed rules in conflict with the statute. Likewise all rules conflicting with Section 33-30-306, MCA, which prohibits review of rates of health service corporations have been deleted. Specifically the proposed rules which have been deleted in response are as follows: Rule II (4), (5), (6) and Rule III (2).

The Insurance Commissioner adopts the position that under the current statutory scheme, all questions involving claims of discrimination in premiums charged and benefits paid can only be resolved by the Human Rights Commission.

(g) The Montana Chapter of NOW recommended that the practice of offering "no-smoker" discounts to pipe and cigar smokers should be prohibited as sex discriminatory. The Human Rights Commission rejected this suggestion by leaving any determination to a contested proceeding. The Insurance Commissioner adopts the position of the Human Rights Commission and rejects this comment.

(h) Several organizations recommended the inclusion of a rule clarifying that pregnancy discrimination constitutes sex discrimination. The Insurance Commissioner declines to include such a rule. This is an area of sex discrimination under the jurisdiction of the Human Rights Commission.

(i) Don LaBar on behalf of Blue Cross of Montana argued that the proposed rules go beyond the scope and intent of the statute in that they ignore the term "solely". This argument if accepted would result in Section 49-2-309, MCA, having no meaning whatsoever. The Insurance Commissioner rejects this argument. The Human Rights Commission also rejected this comment and the Insurance Commissioner joins in its reply.

(j) The rules as proposed required that all insurers file their rates with the Insurance Commissioner's office. A number of life and health insurers objected to this requirement. The Insurance Commissioner has authority to require filing of property and casualty rates. The Insurance Code does not require life and health rate filings. The Insurance Commissioner accepts the argument and has deleted the filing requirements for life and disability insurers and for health service corporations. All insurers will still be required to file according to the appropriate statutory guidelines set forth in the Insurance Code.

(k) Several commenters argued that proposed Rule IV(4) resulted in extra-territorial application of the statute and application of the statute to policies in effect prior to October 1, 1985. These commenters contended that neither of these effects were intended by the legislature. The Insurance Commissioner accepts these comments by deleting proposed Rule IV(2), (3), (4).

(l) Several commenters objected to what they characterized as an effort to give extra-territorial application to the statute contained in proposed rule V. The Insurance Commissioner has deleted all of that proposed rule, except for the first sentence of Rule V(1), in response to this comment.

(m) A number of commenters objected to proposed rules II(5) and III(2) on the grounds that they were vague and unenforceable, exceed statutory authority, are excessively burdensome, and are in conflict with other state laws. Because of these problems and the fact the Human Rights Commission will seek further clarification, the Insurance Commissioner has deleted them.

(n) Edward Zimmerman of the American Council of Life Insurance recommended that language be added to the rules to indicate that an insurer may consider the make-up of a group in establishing funding requirements for a policy issued for that group. The Insurance Commissioner rejects this recommendation. The question presented is one for the Human Rights Commission to decide and that body has indicated its intention to do so.

(o) Don LaBar on behalf of Blue Cross of Montana objected to the use of the term "insurer" since it is not included in the statute. The Insurance Commissioner rejects this argument. The term "insurer" was included as a defined term so it could be used in the rules for purposes of simplification. The definition however has been redrafted for purposes of clarification by the Human Rights Commission and the Insurance Commissioner adopts the same.

(p) The Insurance Commissioner also deletes Rule VI to conform these rules to those adopted by the Human Rights Commission.

4. The authority for the rules is based on Section 33-1-313, MCA, and the rules implement Section 49-2-309, MCA.

COUNTIES - Share of costs for local road improvement;
COUNTY COMMISSIONERS - Creation of local improvement district for county road;
HIGHWAYS - Procedure for creation of local improvement district for county road;
SPECIAL IMPROVEMENT DISTRICTS - Creation of local improvement district for county road;
MONTANA CODE ANNOTATED - Title 7, chapter 14, part 27, sections 7-6-2318, 7-14-2124, 7-14-2501, 7-14-2513, 7-14-2601, 7-14-2603.

HELD: 1. The board of county commissioners is required to pass a resolution of public interest upon receipt of a proper petition, under section 7-14-2702, MCA, requesting the creation of a local improvement district for a county road. The board may not hold a hearing for the purpose of making an independent determination of the public interest.

2. The board may not refuse to create a local improvement district which has been properly petitioned where the requirements of section 7-14-2710(1), MCA, are met.

3. The county's share of the costs of the improvement may be paid either from the county road fund or from the general fund.

4. Pursuant to section 7-14-2714, MCA, the county may construct or improve the road and thereby meet its share of the costs by providing in-kind services. Otherwise, the county's share must be paid from county funds in accordance with section 7-14-2733, MCA.

22 January 1986

Harold F. Hanser
Yellowstone County Attorney
Yellowstone County Courthouse
Billings MT 59101

Dear Mr. Hanser:

You have requested my opinion on the following questions concerning local improvement districts for county roads:

1. Upon receipt of a petition as provided in section 7-14-2702, MCA, for opening or improving a county road, is the board of county commissioners required to pass the resolution of public interest provided in section 7-14-2704, MCA, without holding a hearing and without making an independent determination of public interest?

2. May the board of county commissioners refuse to create a local improvement district if the county does not have sufficient funds for its portion of the costs?

3. Is the county's share of the costs to be paid from the county road fund or the general fund?

4. May the county meet its share of the costs by providing in-kind services, such as furnishing gravel and signs?

Title 7, chapter 14, part 27, MCA, sets forth the procedure for creation of local improvement districts for the purpose of laying out, opening, constructing, or improving county roads. Owners of land fronting on the road and residents of the proposed district may petition the board of county commissioners for the improvement. § 7-14-2702, MCA.

Section 7-14-2704(1), MCA, then provides:

> Upon receipt of the petition, the board shall pass a resolution that the public interest demands the laying out, opening, constructing, or improving of the road or part thereof described in the resolution. [Emphasis added.]

The word "shall" is generally interpreted as mandatory except where the intent and purpose of the Legislature are plain and unambiguous and clearly signify a contrary construction. State ex rel. McCabe v. District Court, 106 Mont. 272, 76 P.2d 634, 637 (1938). I have concluded that the language of section 7-14-2704, MCA, does not grant discretion to the board to make an independent determination of public interest prior to passing the resolution and that no hearing on the proposed improvements is necessary. See also State ex rel. Palmer v. Hart, ___ Mont. ___, 655 P.2d 965, 968 (1982).

In 1965 the Legislature revised and recodified the highway code, including the statutes pertaining to the creation of local improvement districts. Although the Legislature adopted a statement of legislative policy and intent (§ 60-1-102, MCA) and rewrote other statutes (§§ 7-14-2101 to 2102, MCA) which indicate that county officials have been vested with broad authority and discretion in county road matters, the Legislature also retained the substance of the local improvement district status.

It is clear from the plain meaning of section 7-14-2704, MCA, as well as its predecessor statutes, that the Legislature has limited the usual discretion of the board and has required the resolution of public interest to be passed upon receipt of the petition and without further investigation by the board. Cf. § 7-14-2603, MCA. It should be noted that the resolution of public interest is a distinct act and precedes the order that the improvement shall be made. See § 7-14-2710, MCA; 70 Am. Jur. 2d Special or Local Assessments § 123.

Following passage of the resolution, the board is required to schedule and give notice of a meeting of the county road superintendent, the owners of land to be included within the district, and the residents of the proposed district, §§ 7-14-2705 to 2706, MCA. At the meeting, a committee of supervisors is elected. § 7-14-2707, MCA. After the road superintendent, with the assistance of the committee, has prepared plans (including a description of the proposed local assessment district) and estimates of the damages, costs, and expenses, he must submit a report to the board at the board's next annual meeting. § 7-14-2709, MCA. Section 7-14-2710(1), MCA, then provides:

> If the whole amount of damages, costs, and expenses shall not exceed 135% of the total > taxable value of the parcels of land in the district as determined from the last annual assessment roll of the county, the board shall make and enter upon the report an order that the road be made.

Subsection (2) further provides that the order "shall create" the local improvement district.

Again, the statutory language is mandatory. Creation of the district is not subject to availability of funds or any condition other than the requirement that costs not exceed 135 percent of taxable value. The Legislature has not given discretion to the board to refuse to create a local improvement district when this threshold requirement has been satisfied.

By contrast, the board does have discretion to deny a petition filed pursuant to section 7-14-2601, MCA. See § 7-14-2603, MCA; Ingram-Clevenger, Inc. v. Lewis and Clark County, ___ Mont. ___, 636 P.2d 1372 (1981). But the county must bear the entire cost of improvements which are petitioned under section 7-14-2601, MCA, and the board is required to take immediate steps if it decides to grant the petition (see § 7-14-2605, MCA). Under the local improvement district statutes, however, the district pays for up to 75 percent of the cost of the improvement, and the board need not order the improvement or create the district until its annual meeting, at which time the county's share of the cost may be considered by the board in estimating expenditures for the next year and preparing the county budget.

Section 7-14-2702, MCA, requires the petition to set forth the portion of the costs which the district, if formed, will assume and pay. Section 7-14-2703, MCA, states that the district's portion of the costs must not be less than 35 percent and may be as much as 75 percent of the costs. Section 7-14-2733, MCA, then provides:

> Sharing of road costs with county. (1) The board may enter an agreement to share costs with the district when the petition presented states the proportion which the district will pay. After such an agreement has been made specifying the amount to be paid by the district and the amount to be paid from county > funds, the board shall make an order to that effect on the records of its proceedings.

> (2) The board shall order paid from county funds the share of the county for construction or improvement of the road. However, payment shall not exceed 65% of the cost. This amount shall be a proper charge against the county and shall be paid by the treasurer upon warrants, duly drawn, as ordered by the board.

The Legislature has required the county to share the road costs by paying at least 25 percent of the costs and has permitted the county to agree to pay up to 65 percent of the costs; within these limitations the board must determine the proportion of costs to be borne by the county. It is not bound by the proposals set forth in the petition. Although section 7-14-2733, MCA, does not specify from which county fund the share of the county is to be paid, I have concluded that the board may use the county road fund for this purpose. See §§ 7-14-2501, 7-14-2513, MCA. However, the board is not precluded by statute from specifying the general fund as the fund against which warrants are to be drawn for the share of the county. See § 7-6-2318, MCA.

I can find no express statutory authority for permitting the county to pay its share of the costs by providing in-kind services. However, section 7-14-2714, MCA, allows the district to contract with the board to construct or improve the road in the event that the local committee of supervisors rejects the bids of private contractors. The county may then take the place of a private contractor and may furnish materials and services for part or all of the improvement project. If the committee awards the contract to a private contractor, then the county's share must be paid from county funds pursuant to section 7-14-2733, MCA. Of course, the county may agree with the private contractor to sell crushed rock or gravel for use by the contractor. See § 7-14-2124, MCA.

THEREFORE, IT IS MY OPINION:

1. The board of county commissioners is required to pass a resolution of public interest upon receipt of a proper petition, under section 7-14-2702, MCA, requesting the creation of a local improvement district for a county road. The board may not hold a hearing for the purpose of making an independent determination of the public interest.

2. The board may not refuse to create a local improvement district which has been properly petitioned where the requirements of section 7-14-2710(1), MCA, are met.

3. The county's share of the costs of the improvement may be paid either from the county road fund or from the general fund.

4. Pursuant to section 7-14-2714, MCA, the county may construct or improve the road and thereby meet its share of the costs by providing in-kind services. Otherwise, the county's share must be paid from county funds in accordance with section 7-14-2733, MCA.

Very truly yours,

MIKE GREELY
Attorney General

PARKS - Special dedication to municipality restricts authority of municipality to alienate land without a municipal election;
PROPERTY, PUBLIC - When held by a municipality under specific dedication language, "to the use of the public forever," sale must be approved by electors of the municipality;
MONTANA CODE ANNOTATED - Section 7-8-4201.

HELD: Park dedication language in a subdivision plat dedicating certain lands "to the use of the public forever" creates a trust for a specific purpose and under the terms of section 7-8-4201, MCA, a municipal election must be held before the city can dispose of the property.

24 January 1986

Jim Nugent
City Attorney
201 West Spruce Street
Missoula MT 59801

Dear Mr. Nugent:

You have asked my opinion concerning:

> Whether the park dedication language of High Park subdivision creates a public trust for a specific purpose.

This language does create such a trust and therefore the sale of the park property must be approved by the electors of Missoula before the city can dispose of the property.

Before discussing my reasoning I will set forth the background facts upon which your question is based. The park in the High Park subdivision was dedicated to the City of Missoula in 1969 as part of the approval process for this subdivision in the south hills. The park is ten acres in size and has never been developed or used formally as a park. It is surrounded by adjacent landowners, presumably who purchased parcels within the original subdivision. The dedicated park property has poor public access, which may be limited to a single footpath.

The question concerning the park's sale has arisen because one adjacent landowner would like to purchase the property. The dedication language on the plat provides in pertinent part:

> High Park No. 1 and the lands included in all streets, avenues, public squares and pedestrian thoroughfares are dedicated, donated and granted to the use of the public forever.

As you have noted, the answer to your question turns on the proper interpretation of the dedication language. Montana statutes provide that property held in trust for a specific purpose must be the subject of a municipal election before it is sold. § 7-8-4201(2)(b), MCA. The entire text of this statute reads as follows:

> Disposal or lease of municipal property. (1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2), the city or town council may sell, dispose of, or lease any property belonging to the city or town.
> (2) (a) Such lease or transfer shall be made by an ordinance or resolution passed by a two-thirds vote of all the members of the council.
> (b) If the property is held in trust for a specific purpose, the sale or lease thereof must be approved by a majority vote of the electors of the municipality voting at an election called for that purpose.
> (3) Nothing contained herein may be construed to abrogate the power of the board of park commissioners to lease all lands owned by the city heretofore acquired for parks within the limitations prescribed by 7-16-4223.

Montana case law has not specifically interpreted the statutory language "held in trust for a specific purpose." However, the statute has been addressed generally several times, and most recently in Prezeau v. City of Whitefish, 198 Mont. 416, 646 P.2d 1186 (1982).

Prezeau concerned a Whitefish city park that was created in 1909 when the land was conveyed to the city with this language: "[P]roperty to be used exclusively for public park purposes ...." When Whitefish decided to change part of the park's use to a quasi-public rifle range in 1981, the question arose whether the city had to hold an election prior to issuing a lease.

The Montana Supreme Court held that such an election was necessary. The Court noted that the property was held for a specific use and whether the new use was compatible with the old use as a park was irrelevant to the application of the statute and thus the need for an election. Prior case law that held otherwise was overruled by the Court. See Hames v. City of Polson, 123 Mont. 469, 215 P.2d 950 (1950); Colwell v. City of Great Falls, 117 Mont. 126, 157 P.2d 1013 (1945).

Prezeau, however, is of limited assistance to our inquiry here because neither party nor the Court disputed that the dedication language created a trust with a "specific purpose."

Consulting treatises and case law from other jurisdictions, it is apparent that the basic language of the High Park plat dedicating streets and squares "to the use of the public forever" does constitute a specific purpose. This conclusion is based upon an examination of underlying general principles.

A municipal corporation can hold property in either a proprietary or governmental capacity. Land held in a governmental capacity is that land held for a public use. Statutes such as section 7-8-4201, MCA, are a reflection of common law prohibitions against the alienation of land held in a governmental capacity. 10 McQuillin Municipal Corporations § 28.38 at 83, 84 (3d ed.), states:

> A municipal corporation cannot sell or dispose of property devoted to a public governmental use or purpose, as already has been observed, > without special statutory or charter authority, since as to governmental functions the municipality is a mere agent of the state and subject to control by the state legislative authorities. For instance, property may not be sold where it has been acquired or dedicated for public use as a common, or as a park, or for school uses, or for other public governmental uses. In this sense all property is public which has been dedicated to public use, or which may be affected by a public trust, either general or special. Municipal corporations hold all property in which the public is interested, such as streets, alleys, public squares, commons, parks and wharves, in trust for the use of the public; and, on principle, such trust property can be disposed of by the municipality only in accordance with the terms of the trust, i.e., in the public interest as declared by statute.

Thus the general prohibition on alienation applies to all lands acquired for public uses, regardless of whether there is a more specific dedication, for instance, that designating a public right-of-way, library, or swimming pool.

That the land here in question was dedicated "for the public use" makes the dedication special within the meaning of the statute. Contrasted to this dedication would be an unconditional quit claim conveyance to the City of Missoula. The City of Missoula would then hold the property in a proprietary capacity. Municipalities holding such property in a proprietary capacity are free to dispose of the land to the same extent that a private individual is. 10 McQuillin Municipal Corporations § 28.37 at 77 (3d ed.).

The case law of other jurisdictions reflects the broad notion of inalienability of lands dedicated for public use. An appellate court of New York in Town of Brookhaven v. Arnonauer, 65 A.D.2d 570, 409 N.Y.S.2d 148, 150 (1978), noted:

> [T]he principle is well established in this state that park property may not be alienated > without express legislative permission. [Citations omitted.]

In the State of Washington the appellate courts have noted that property once acquired and devoted to public use cannot be alienated without legislative authority, either express or implied. Commercial Waterway Dist. v. Permanente Cement Co., 61 Wash. 2d 509, 379 P.2d 178 (1963); Nelson v. Pacific County, 36 Wash. App. 17, 671 P.2d 785 (1983).

To a certain extent the Supreme Court of Montana has also endorsed a strict approach to the conveyance of public lands. In Lloyd v. City of Great Falls, 107 Mont. 442, 447, 86 P.2d 395, 397 (1939), the Court quoted with approval from McQuillin:

> Where lands have been dedicated and used for a public park or square, the municipal corporation holds the title in trust for the public and has no power ... [to sell the lands without legislative authorization].

The legislative authorization referred to in Lloyd is the Montana statutory requirement of a municipal election.

Although the Montana statute does not include an exemption for public lands not presently in use, several states have allowed summary conveyance of specially dedicated public lands where the lands are not publicly used or capable of such use. Oregon has accomplished this result legislatively with a statute that allows the state or political subdivision to sell, exchange, convey, or lease property that is "not needed for public use or when the public interest may be furthered." Or. Rev. Stat. § 271.310(1). In Oklahoma, the Supreme Court accomplished a similar result judicially. In State ex rel. Remy v. Agar, 559 P.2d 1235 (Okla. 1977), the Court took notice of the general rule prohibiting alienation of "land held for the public use" but then recognized that where the public use is abandoned, or the property has become unsuitable or inadequate for that purpose, it may be disposed of.

In Lloyd, the Court did use the qualifying language: "Where lands have been dedicated and used ...." (Emphasis added.) However, the legislative authority for alienation of public lands, § 7-8-4201, MCA, contains no similar qualification. The statute applies to all land "held in trust for a specific purpose," not just land held in trust and used for a specific purpose.

Subsequent to Lloyd, the Montana Supreme Court cast a strict construction upon the terms of this statute. In the previously discussed case of Prezeau v. City of Whitefish, 198 Mont. 416, 646 P.2d 1186, the Court held that an election must be held upon any sale or lease, not simply those sales or leases that were in abrogation of the specific trust purpose. The Court refused to read terms into the statute and specifically overruled prior precedent that had committed this error.

In summary, I note that the dedication language expressly established a public use. Within the context of a subdivision plat, this use would be considered "a specific purpose" under the terms of the statute. The disposition of such property requires legislative authority. The direction of section 7-8-4201(2), MCA, is that property held for a specific purpose is not to be summarily disposed of without giving the public affected an opportunity to participate. In this case that participation is a municipal election held on the sale. The fact that the High Park subdivision park has not been used as a public park would not affect the applicability of the alienation statute. While the latter issue has not been addressed judicially in Montana, the Supreme Court has shown an inclination to strictly construe the language of section 7-8-4201, MCA.

THEREFORE, IT IS MY OPINION:

> Park dedication language in a subdivision plat dedicating certain lands "to the use of the public forever" creates a trust for a specific purpose and under the terms of section 7-8-4201, MCA, a municipal election must be held before the city can dispose of the property.

VOLUME NO. 41 OPINION NO. 43

SUBDIVISION AND PLATTING ACT - Requirement that landowner must apply to the local governing body for a determination of whether access and easements are suitable in divisions of land consisting exclusively of parcels of 20 acres or larger;
MONTANA CODE ANNOTATED - Sections 76-3-505(2), 76-3-609(2);
SESSION LAWS OF 1985 - Chapter 579.

HELD: 1. In divisions of land consisting exclusively of parcels 20 acres or larger, the landowner must apply to the local governing body for a determination of whether appropriate access and easements are properly provided.

2. Where the landowner elects on his application to accept a written determination that access and easements are not suitable for the purposes of providing services to the divided parcels, the local governing body may attach this notation to the instrument of transference prior to recordation and forego any review of access suitability.

27 January 1986

William A. Douglas
Lincoln County Attorney
Lincoln County Courthouse
Libby MT 59923

Dear Mr. Douglas:

You have requested my opinion on the following questions:

1. Whether the provisions of the 1985 Montana Laws, ch. 579, require that an application for review by the governing body, for determination of whether there exist appropriate access and easements, must be made in every case of divisions of land consisting exclusively of parcels 20 acres or larger.

2. Whether the governing body must review the division of land for the purpose of determining whether appropriate access and easements are properly provided in all cases, whether an application for review is or is not submitted by the divider.

Chapter 579 of the 1985 Montana Laws amended two sections of the Montana Subdivision and Platting Act (hereinafter "Act"). Section 76-3-505, MCA, entitled "Provision for summary review of subdivisions and other divisions of land," was amended in part to read:

> (2) Local subdivision regulations must include procedures for review of those divisions of land consisting exclusively of parcels 20 acres or larger subject to this chapter. Rules governing review of these divisions of land shall be limited to a written determination of whether appropriate access and easements are properly provided.

The procedures for review of such divisions were the subject of an amendment to a second section of the Act. Section 76-3-609, MCA, was amended with the following paragraph quoted in part:

> (2) (a) For divisions of land consisting exclusively of parcels 20 acres and larger, the governing body shall review the division of land within 35 days of the submission of an application for review. The governing body's review must be limited to a written determination that appropriate access and easements are properly provided. The review shall provide either:
> (i) that the access and easements are suitable for the purposes of providing appropriate services to the land; or
> (ii) that the access and easements are not suitable for the purposes of providing appropriate services to the land, in which case the county, the school district or districts, and other authorities and districts in which the land is located will not provide services that involve use of the unsuitable access and easements. Such services include:

(A) fire protection;

(B) school busing;

(C) ambulance;

(D) snow removal; and

(E) similar services as determined by the governing body.

(b) The governing body shall deliver a copy of the determination of the review to the county clerk and recorder to be reflected on the certificate of survey or deed of conveyance of the land that was subject to review.

The statutory amendments were approved by the Legislature on April 19, 1985, and became effective October 1, 1985.

Your opinion request specifically questions whether there is any requirement in the new law that a landowner dividing his property submit an application for review. You suggest that the review process is only triggered by the submission of an application but that submittal of an application is left to the discretion of the landowner. I do not agree.

Examining the plain language of the amended statute, I find two directives that support a holding that an application and restricted review are now mandatory for the larger parcels. The first directive is in the language of section 76-3-505(2), MCA, which states: "[S]ubdivision regulations must include procedures for review of those divisions of land consisting exclusively of parcels 20 acres or larger subject to this chapter." (Emphasis added.) There is no statutory exemption for particular divisions of land consisting of 20 acres or more where the landowner does not want to invoke the review process by not making application. Review procedures must exist for all divisions regardless of anticipated use.

The second directive is found in section 76-3-609(2)(a), MCA: "[T]he governing body shall review the division of land within 35 days of the submission of an application for review." (Emphasis added.) This language demonstrates that the Legislature intended an application must be submitted. This is not a case where language must be added to give a statute effect. Neither courts nor the Attorney General may insert into a statute what has been omitted or omit what has been inserted. § 1-2-101, MCA.

Accepted rules of statutory construction also guide my interpretation here. In the construction of a statute, the intention of the Legislature is to be pursued, if possible. § 1-2-102, MCA. The title of the Act is an indication of the Legislature's intent. In re Coleman's Estate, 132 Mont. 339, 343, 317 P.2d 880, 882 (1957). The act that became chapter 579 was entitled: "An Act Providing Restricted Review Requirements for Minor Subdivisions and Other Divisions of Land; Amending Sections 76-3-505 and 76-3-609, MCA." I note that the Act is entitled "Review Requirements" as opposed to review "options," "guidelines," or other language that could have been used to indicate a discretionary process. If the application process were viewed to be discretionary or elective with the subdivider of land, the plain intent of the Legislature to bring large parcels under review would be nullified.

For the foregoing reasons, I conclude that chapter 579 provides for a mandatory application process. This conclusion is based first on the plain meaning of the words used, and second on the obvious intent of the Legislature in enacting the statute. See Department of Revenue v. Puget Sound Power & Light Co., 179 Mont. 255, 587 P.2d 1282 (1978).

Since I have answered your first question affirmatively, the second question is moot. As discussed, applications must be submitted for statutorily defined divisions of land 20 acres or larger. This act invokes the review process. Where an application is not filed for a division of land, the local governing body's course of action will lie with enforcing the application requirement, not with proceeding with an independent review and access suitability determination.

Your opinion request raises the issue of whether the subdivider who does not wish to benefit from the provision of future services must participate in the review process. I have held that an application for review is mandatory. However, that review may be limited to the final determination of suitability. If a subdivider desires to stipulate to a nonsuitability determination on the filed deed I discern no conflict with the statutes. Furthermore, I can foresee benefits to such an approach since an expedited review process would facilitate transferences where the land vendor recognizes access and easements are physically impossible to provide.

Further questions that have arisen concerning definitions of suitability and what standards are to be applied are beyond the scope of this opinion. I only note that the statutes leave the adoption of review regulations to the local governing body.

THEREFORE, IT IS MY OPINION:

1. In divisions of land consisting exclusively of parcels 20 acres or larger, the landowner must apply to the local governing body for a determination of whether appropriate access and easements are properly provided.

2. Where the landowner elects on his application to accept a written determination that access and easements are not suitable for the purposes of providing services to the divided parcels, the local governing body may attach this notation to the instrument of transference prior to recordation and forego any review of access suitability.

Very truly yours,

MIKE GREELY
Attorney General
