In the matter of the adoption) NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING of a rule and the amendment) FOR PROPOSED ADOPTION OF A RULE AND requiring water & wastewater treatment operators to earn continuing education credits) NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING FOR PROPOSED ADOPTION OF A RULE AND TREATMENT OF A RULE (Water and Wastewater Treatment Operators)

To: All Interested Persons

 On May 7. 1986 at 10:00 a.m. a public hearing will be held in Room C209 of the Cogswell Building, 1400 Broadway, Helena, Montana, to consider the adoption and amendment of the above-captioned rules.

2. The adoption of a rule would specify the number of continuing education credits which must be earned by all fully certified operators of class I, II, III, and IV water supply systems and wastewater treatment plants to be fully certified every two-year period commencing on July 1, 1986 and July 1 of every even-numbered year thereafter. The amendment of ARM 16.18.201(1) would require a "fully certified operator" as defined in the rule to earn continuing education credits as required by ARM 16.18.208, and would perform a housekeeping correction by changing a reference to ARM 16.18.230(8), and correcting it to read "ARM 16.18.203(8)".

3. The proposed rule does not replace or modify any section currently found in the Administrative Rules of Montana, and the proposed amendment would replace ARM 16.18.201(1) found at page 16-872 of the Administrative Rules of Montana.

4. The proposed rule provides as follows:

RULE I CONTINUING EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS (1) A continuing education credit or portion thereof must be earned by all class I, II, III, and IV fully certified operators during a two-year period commencing on July 1, 1986, and July 1 of even-numbered years thereafter. One continuing education credit per certificate (namely, ten contact hours or ten classroom hours or their equivalent) must be earned by a class I certified operator during each two-year period. Class II, III, and IV certified operators must earn one-half (1/2) credit per certificate (namely, five contact hours or five classroom hours or their equivalent) during each two-year period. On and after July 1, 1992, the credit requirements shall double for each classification.

(2) Newly certified operators (previously uncertified) who become certified after October 1 of each even-numbered year will not be required to earn the credit applicable to each classification until the next two-year period. If an operator upgrades a certificate after October 1 of each evennumbered year and that upgrade increases the credit requirement, the operator will be required during that same two-year period to earn the lower credit requirement but will not be required to meet the higher credit requirement until the next two-year period commences.

(3) Beginning July 1, 1988, and succeeding even-numbered years, only those operators fulfilling the credit requirements before the end of each two-year period will be allowed to renew their certificate(s). The certificate(s) of operators not fulfilling the credit requirements shall expire on June 30 of the applicable biennium and may only be reissued on passage of the appropriate examination(s).

(4) All subject matter for which credit will be granted must be relevant to the operation and maintenance of water treatment plants, water distribution systems, wastewater treatment plants, or industrial wastewater treatment plants as classified in ARM 16.18.202. It may include but not necessarily be confined to subjects regarding plant, systems, or facility mechanics for operation and maintenance of plant and machinery, electrical systems, hydraulics, chemical treatment, biological testing, disinfection of water, or use of mathematics and chemistry where applicable. All activities for which credit will be granted must be first approved by the particular certificate to which the credit is being applied.

- (5) The department may, in individual cases involving hardship or extenuating circumstances, grant an extension of time of up to one year within which to fulfill the minimum credit requirements. Hardship or extenuating circumstances include documented health-related confinement or other circumstances beyond the control of the certified operator which prevent attendance at the required activities. All requests for extensions must be made prior to March 31 of the even-numbered year in which the credit is required to be submitted for registration.
- (6) It is the certified operator's responsibility to notify the department of the credit earned during the period. The credit earned during the period shall be shown on the application for renewal.
- (7) A certified operator shall be deemed to have complied with the continuing education credit requirements of this rule during periods that the operator serves honorably on active duty in the military services, or for periods that the operator is a resident of another state or district having a continuing education credit requirement for operators and meets all the requirements of that state or district for practice there, or for periods that the person is a government employee working as an operator and assigned to duty outside of the United States, or for other periods of active practice and absence from the state approved by the department. AUTHORITY: 37-42-202, MCA IMPLEMENTING: 37-42-202, MCA

- 5. The rule proposed to be amended provides as follows:
- 16.18.201 DEFINITIONS In addition to the terms defined in section 37-42-102, MCA:
- (1) "Fully certified operator" means an operator who either has passed the certification examination and satisfies the experience requirements set forth in ARM 16.18.205; is an operator certified pursuant to ARM 16.18.203(1) who is still employed at the facility where he was employed July 1, 1967; was certified pursuant to section 37-42-305, MCA, before March 1, 1982; or is certified pursuant to ARM 16-18-230(8) 16.18.203(8); and earns continuing required by ARM 16.18.208.

 (2) - (8) Same as existing rule.

- Interested persons may present their data, views, or arguments, either orally or in writing, at the hearing. Written data, views, or arguments may also be submitted to Robert L. Solomon, Cogswell Building, Capitol Complex, Helena, MT, no later than May 12, 1986.

- TO: All Interested Persons:
- 1. On May 16, 1986, the Board of Crime Control proposes to amend and repeal the above stated rules.
- The proposed amendment of 23.14.407 will read as 2. follows:
- 23.14.407 REQUIREMENTS FOR THE ADVANCED COURSE In addition to ARM 23.14.403 and 23.14.404 above, the following are required for the award of the Advance Certificate:
- Subsection (1) shall remain the same. (2) Shall have completed the advanced course or the equivalency as defined by the POST advisory council or complete
- alternative courses as provided in subsection (3).

 (a) if the council determines the training to be equivalent to the advance course, the officer must successfully complete an equivalency test, approved by the council and administered by MLEA, by achieving a cumulative score of 75% or more. The council will require those who fail the equivalency test to successfully complete the advance course at MLEA before awarding

(4)(5) remains the same but is renumbered. (4)(5) remains the same but is renumbered. Auth: 44-4-301, MCA Imp: 2-4-201 MCA

- 3. The board is proposing the amendment to the rule at the request of the Montana Sheriffs and Peace Officers Association and the Montana Chief of Police Association. The results of a survey conducted by the board of all peace officers in the state supports this amendment. This will allow more flexibility in the requirements and in certain circumstances permits specialization in the career development of a peace officer.
- 4. The board is proposing the repeal of rules 23.14.416, 23.14.417 and 23.14.418. The full text of the rules are located at pages 23-426 and 23-427, Administrative Rules of Montana. These rules specify the course curriculum for the Basic, Intermediate and Advanced Courses. The board is proposing the repeal because these courses are continually being upgraded and changed to meet the changing training needs of law enforcement. To amend the rules to conform with each change is too costly and is unnecessary.
- 5. Interested parties may submit their data, views or arguments concerning the proposed amendment in writing to Mr. Clayton Bain, Executive Director, P.O.S.T. Advisory Council, 303 North Roberts, Helena, Montana 59620 no later than May 15, 1986.
- 6. If a person who is directly affected by the proposed amendment wishes to express his data, views and arguments orally or in writing at a public hearing, he must make written request for a hearing and submit this request along with any written comments he has to Mr. Bain no later than May 15, 1986.
- 7. If the agency receives requests for a public hearing on the proposed amendment from either 10% or 25, whichever is less, of the persons who are directly affected by the proposed amendment; from the Administrative Code committee of the legislature; from a governmental sub-division or agency; or from an association having not less than 25 members who will be directly affected, a hearing will be held at a later date. Notice of the hearing will be published in the Montana Administrative Register. Ten percent of those persons directly affected has been determined to be 145 persons based on the number of peace officers registered with the P.O.S.T. Advisory Council.

- 2. The new rules as proposed to be adopted provide as follows:

RULE I DEFINITIONS RELATING TO ADJUSTMENT OF JOINT RETURN The following definitions apply:

(1) "Obligated spouse" means a taxpayer who is liable for a

MCA.

RULE II REQUEST FOR ADJUSTMENT OF JOINT RETURN (1) A taxpayer may request the department to adjust a joint tax return that was filed in the circumstance where the refund is being offset by the bad debts/collection bureau for a child support arrearage. The amount attributable to the injured spouse will be deemed exempt from offset. This request must be made in writing, and must be made within 30 days after the notice of offset and opportunity for hearing is mailed to the taxpaver. This request must be made within 30 days after the notice of offset and opportunity for hearing is mailed to the taxpayer.

- (2) The office audit bureau will review the statement and the tax return, make the adjustment of the tax liability and refund, and will subsequently notify the taxpayer in writing. If the taxpayer disagrees with the adjustment made by the office audit bureau, the taxpayer may request a reconsideration of the adjustment pursuant to the procedure set out in ARM 42.16.111. AUTH: 17-4-110 MCA, and § 2, Ch. 679, L. 1985; IMP: 17-4-105(4) MCA.
- 3. The Legislature gave the Department of Revenue the authority to establish by rule a procedure to adjust a jointly filed tax return in cases where there is a past due child support obligation (17-4-105(4), MCA). These rules are intended to set forth the procedure to be used by the Department to adjust a jointly filed tax return when offsetting a state tax refund for a child support debt which is assigned to the State pursuant to 53-2-613, MCA, or when the Department is attempting to collect a child support arrearage on behalf of an applicant who has applied for service under 40-5-203, MCA.

EFFORE THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE OF THE STATE OF MONTANA

In the matter of the adoption) of emergency rules pertaining) to permitting purple internal) discoloration in Nooksack) Seed Potatoes for blue or red) tag grades)

NOTICE OF THE ADOPTION OF EMERGENCY RULES PERMITTING PURPLE INTERNAL DISCOLORATION IN NOOKSACK SEED POTATOES FOR BLUE OR RED TAG GRADES

TO: All Interested Persons.

1. In 1985 a combination of drought and an early hard frost occurred in the state of Montana. This unique weather pattern, together with an unusual growth pattern of Nooksack tubers growing too close to the surface of the soil has created a purple internal discoloration. This discoloration is undetectable unless a tuber is dissected. Therefore the purple discoloration condition remained undetected until department potato grade inspectors began inspecting the seed potatoes two weeks ago. These purple internal discolorated potatoes fail to meet acceptable grade standards for either blue or red tags due to the discoloration.

2. However, according to Mike Sun, Plant Pathologist at Montana State University, "The purple discoloration of this kind should not affect the behavior and performance of the potatoes as seed." Therefore it should not be marked as a defect for grading purposes.

- 3. The department presently is scoring this purple discoloration as a defect and thereby the potatoes are not making certified seed as blue or red tag grade. This failure to make grade leaves the potato producers without market to sell their potatoes, because other states will not permit ungraded seed potatoes to be planted in their state. Unless the department amends its rules to permit this purple discoloration condition, an economic hardship may occur due to the failure to sell these potatoes.
- 4. The department responded to the seed potato industry request, and set a hearing in contemplation of rules to take comments on proposed emergency rules to adjust the grade standard to as to include purple discoloration Nooksack potatoes. The department notified interested persons of said hearing. The department held the hearing on March 20, 1986, at 1:30 p.m. in the Boothill Conference Room at the Outlaw Inn in Kalispell, Montana. Based upon the response and comments received, the department adopted the foregoing emergency rules. The department determined that an imminent peril to public health safety or welfare would occur because a delay of implementing these rules would cause financial losses to some seed potato farmers. Therefore the department promulgates these emergency rules to meet the immediate need to change the standards for grading to permit purple internal discoloration in Nooksack potatoes.

5. The text of the rules is as follow: RULE I PURPLE - INTERNAL DISCOLORATION (1) It shall be permissible to use official tags on Nooksack seed potatoes affected by a purple internal discoloration caused by stress late in the potato growing season. It shall be the responsibility of the grower to obtain written evidence that the purchaser is willing to accept the purple condition as part of the grade before final certification may be made.

BEFORE THE BOARD OF MILK CONTROL OF THE STATE OF MONTANA

IN THE MATTER OF THE PROMUL-) ORDER PROMULGATING AN EMER-GATION OF AN EMERGENCY RULE) GENCY LIMITED SERVICE MINIMUM FOR A LIMITED SERVICE MINIMUM) JOBBER PRICE JOBBER PRICE

Petitioner, Jerry W. Schuster, having filed a petition for a Limited Service Minimum Jobber Price Order and the Board having heard evidence presented to the Board in convened session on March 22, 1986, the Board finds as follows:

- 1. Gallatin Dairies Inc. now known as Country Classic Dairies, Inc., herein Gallatin, a Montana corporation, for months has been and is selling fluid milk to Associated Grocers for consumption in Montana at less than the minimum wholesale price as reflected in the Milk Control Bureau's investigations and the court documents in the state and federal court proceedings between the Department of Commerce, Milk Control Bureau and Gallatin. Gallatin is engaging in a similar type of sale or transaction with Super Valu and individual I.G.A. stores. These actions by Gallatin have undermined the minimum wholesale price established by the Board and have placed all other licensed distributors and jobbers at a serious competitive disadvantage.
- 2. The actions of Gallatin described in paragraph 1 will continue to undermine and destroy the minimum wholesale price, will undermine or destroy the effectiveness of all other Board of Milk Control laws and regulations, will place all other licensed distributors and jobbers at a serious competitive disadvantage, will cause the destruction of the business of some licensed distributors and jobbers, will cause the destruction of the business of some licensed producers, and will seriously jeopardize or interfere with the Montana consumer's right to an adequate supply of wholesome Class I milk.
- 3. The same problem arises in relation to jobbers as it does for distributors. Since the Emergency Rule promulgated on February 8, 1986 did not provide for the necessary temporary adjustments to the minimum jobber prices to be paid for the five (5) items of fluid milk products to be purchased and sold under the categories of Limited Service and Drop Delivery, jobbers have been and will continue to receive less than the minimum jobber price/percentage established pursuant to Montana Board of Milk Control ARM Rule 8.86.301 (6)(h). Without ad Without adopting an amendatory emergency rule to correct the inequity created as a result of an oversight in the first emergency rule adopted on February 8, 1986, which was effective on February 10, 1986, jobbers have been forced and will continue to operate at a serious competitive disadvantage. Unless this amendatory emergency rule is adopted, the ommission will cause the destruction of the business of some jobbers, and will seriously impair and jeopardize certain Montana consumers' right to an adequate supply of wholesome Class I milk. This Order will correct that deficiency. This order amends the order promulgating a limited service wholesale allowance which was published at page 251 of the Montana Administrative Register, Issue No. 4.

4. Section 2-4-303, MCA (1) provides if the agency finds that an imminent peril to the public health, safety or welfare requires adoption of a rule upon fewer than thirty (30) days notice and states in writing its reasons for that finding, it may proceed, without prior notice or hearing or upon any abbreviated notice and hearing that it finds practicable, to adopt an emergency rule. The rule may be effective for a period not longer than 120 days, but the adoption of an identical rule under 2-4-302, MCA, is not precluded. (emphasis supplied)

This provision applies and requires emergency Board action in order to effectuate the policies of the Montana Milk Control laws including Sections 81-23-102 and 81-23-302, MCA.

 The harm to jobbers identified in paragraphs 2 and 3, hereof mandates the Montana Board of Milk Control issue an emergency rule amending the emergency rule promulgated on February 8, 1986.

The amendatory emergency rule is to provide for a temporary adjustment to the minimum jobber prices on the five (5) items of fluid milk products to be purchased and sold under the wholesale categories of Limited Service and Drop Delivery on an emergency basis in accordance with section 2-4-303, MCA. This amendatory emergency rule is effective on March 25, 1986, and applies retroactively to the effective date of the Board's first emergency rule, which was effective on February 10, 1986.

6. Based upon the above findings, there is imminent peril to the public health, safety and welfare which requires the adoption of the amendatory emergency rule which is attached hereto:

(d) Notwithstanding the minimum jobber prices as calculated pursuant to Montana Board of Milk Control Rule 8.86.301 (6)
 (h) of the Administrative Rules of Montana, the minimum jobber prices with respect to only those items of fluid milk products purchased under subsections (a) and (b) above shall be as follows:

(1) LIMITED SERVICE MINIMUM JOBBER PRICES:

	Jobber Price	Jobber Price Stated As A Percentage Of Rule 1(a)
Gallon homo.	1.6415	78.55%
gallon homo.	.8213	78.22%
Gallon 2%	1.5377	78.46%
⅓ gallon 2% -	.7675	78.32%
支 gallon skim	.70	77.78%

(2) DROP DELIVERY MINIMUM JOBBER PRICES

	Jobber Price	Jobber Price Stated As A Percentage Of Rule 1(b)
Gallon homo.	1.5631	78.55%
½ gallon homo.	.7822	78.22%
Gallon 2%	1.4593	78.46%
ኔ gallon 2%	.7362	78.32%
🧏 gallon skim	.6689	77.78%

- 7. It is noted that petitioner had been informed and advised by Montana distributors, who are the only parties adversely affected by the issuance of this Order, that they have no objection to this emergency action, but the Board finds they did object to it being retroactively implemented to February 10, 1986.
- 8. The Board, however, in issuing this Order and retroactively implementing it to February 10, 1986, finds that these are minimum prices and that this Amendatory Emergency Rule in no way forces Montana distributors to correct the inequities which resulted from the oversight in the Order promulgating an emergency limited service wholesale allowance. It permits willing Montana distributors to make those adjustments retroactive on a voluntary basis. It will be in effect and enforceable on the date of publication of the Notice of Adoption hereof.
- The Chief of the Milk Control Bureau will send a copy of this Order to all persons licensed by the Bureau, to the state wire service, and other news media.
- state wire service, and other news media.

 10. The authority of the Board to make the emergency rule is 81-23-302, MCA, and implements section 81-23-302, MCA.

STATE OF MONTANA DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

In the matter of the) NOTICE OF ADOPTION OF amendment of 8.94.3701) PROPOSED AMENDMENT OF concerning the admin-) 8.94.3701 INCORPORATION istration of the Federal) BY REFERENCE OF RULES Community Development Block Grant Program) PROGRAM

TO: All Interested Persons.

- 1. On February 13, 1986, the Department of Commerce published a notice of public hearing to consider the amendment of the rules governing the administration of the federal Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) program which the department originally adopted by reference on June 13, 1985.

 2. The hearing was held on March 5, 1986, at 1:30 p.m.
- 2. The hearing was held on March 5, 1986, at 1:30 p.m. in Room C209 of the Cogswell Building, Helena, Montana. Six persons appeared at the hearing to offer testimony and comments on the proposed rule. Five spoke in favor of the proposed amendment and one person spoke in opposition. In addition, 25 letters were received regarding the proposed amendment; 13 supported the amendment and 12 opposed it.
- After thoroughly considering all the oral and written comments received, the department is adopting the amendment to the rule as proposed.

The principal reasons stated for its adoption were as follows:

The change would make CDBG assistance more accessible to Montana businesses. Communities need to be able to assist economic development projects when the opportunity arises.

Small communities should not be placed in the position of having to choose between addressing housing or public facilities needs or opportunities for job creation. The current requirement pits the prospective developer seeking CDBG assistance against the city council which is considering needed infrastructure repairs. Economic opportunity should be expanded, not restricted.

Whether a community is currently working on other housing or public facility problems with CDBG funds should not be a reason for eliminating the chance to bolster the local and state economy. The ultimate beneficiary of the change would be the state's economic well-being.

The current requirement means that a worthy project could be rejected at the local level when funds are available at the state level. Economic development projects should have the opportunity to compete at the state level for the available funds.

A more open competition for CDBG assistance should result in awarding funds to projects which are the strongest business proposal and which provide the greatest benefits to low and moderate persons, on a statewide basis.

The change would increase the opportunity to assist and promote job creation, thereby providing greater benefit to low and moderate income.

The principal reasons stated against its adoption were as follows: \cdot

The competition for CDBG funds is already intense and the severe budget cuts will only increase the competition. We should fund as many communities as possible so the low and moderate income families in many jurisdictions across the state can receive needed benefits. With the reduced amount of dollars coming into Montana, it seems more advisable that more communities have their chance at obtaining a grant. It would be best to "Build Montana" by stimulating economies throughout all of the State rather than concentrating CDBG assistance in a few larger communities with greater capacity to compete for grants.

From its beginning, the State CDBG program was never intended to allow one local government to be awarded two grants. The logical result of the amendment is that other communities in the state will end up with less funds for their projects.

The amendment would decrease the opportunity that remote counties and small cities, without professional grant writing staffs, have for receiving grants. The declining source of grant monies would quickly be granted to areas which have professional capacity and expertise in grantsmanship.

Missoula County can apply for its economic development project under the 1986 program on August 1st, only six months from now.

Changing the requirement for the 1985 guidelines, at this late date, is unfair to other communities without prepared applications ready to submit for the March competition. If the guidelines are changed, it should be in 1986.

The department's reasons for overruling the considerations urged against its adoption are as follows:

Since the creation of the special setaside of funds for applications for CDBG economic development grants in 1984, the Application Guidelines for the Montana Community Development Block Grant Program have specifically noted a distinction between that category and the other application categories (housing and neighborhood revitalization, public facilities, and multipurpose). The guidelines stated that for public facilities and housing projects, basic needs are identified and can be planned for in advance. In contrast, economic development opportunities are not generally identifiable in advance but require a timely response from the community. The guidelines have made clear that it was the intention of the economic development setaside to "allow the CDBG program to be more responsive to the unique constraints faced by local economic development projects".

The opponents have suggested that the department should fund as many communities as possible. However, from its beginning the Montana CDBG Program has focused on assisting those communities which have developed thorough, well-planned solutions for serious needs rather than an effort to distribute grants to communities on any geographic or numerical basis grants to communities on any geographic or numerical basis.

The opponents have also suggested that the amendment will result in a favored status for larger communities because of their perceived greater capacity to prepare CDBG applications. The department believes that the award of CDBG funds to communities has been and will continue to determine by considering the substance and severity of the needs described by each applicant rather than the degree to which an application has been polished by "grantsmanship". In years the State has administered the program, a higher proportion of the grants have been awarded to small municipalities and rural counties than was the case under federal administration of the "Small Cities" CDBG Program. The State's experience with the program suggests strongly that the capacity to compete successfully for grants is not a function of community size. The department does not believe that the change in the guidelines will reduce the opportunity that small communities will have to receive CDBG assistance. To the contrary, the proposed amendment may improve access for them by broadening the variety of projects they can consider for CDBG projects. To date, the majority of applications from small communities have focused on the backlog of infrastructure needs that most small minicipalities face. amendment would allow them to take advantage of the CDBG program to encourage local economic development and business retention efforts, as well.

One opponent suggested that the community which had requested the amendment could apply for CDBG assistance at a later date. Another suggested that the department should wait until next year's guidelines are adopted to incorporate this amendment. However, the department considers the proponents' arguments for increasing the responsiveness of the CDBG program's economic development category to be compelling enough to justify implementation immediately through the Fiscal Year 1985 CDBG Program, rather than waiting until the Fiscal Year 1986 program guidelines are adopted.

In summary, the department believes that the proponents have offered persuasive arguments for adopting the amendment. It will made CDBG assistance more accessible to Montana businesses. It will allow communities, large and small, to be responsive to the all too often limited opportunities to help create or retain employment while they are also addressing serious needs in housing and public facilities. The more open competition for CDBG economic development assistance allowed by the amendment will also help the department to achieve its objectives for the economic development setaside by allowing it to award its limited CDBG funds to those projects with the strongest prospects for success and which offer maximum benefit to low and moderate income persons.

(4) Same as proposed.

16.10.1126 NOXIOUS PLANT AND ANIMAL CONTROL (RULE XVII) Same as proposed.

- 3. The following comments were reviewed; responses are noted:
- RULE 1: Gary Griffith, Superintendent of Maintenance, Operation, and Support Services for the Bozeman Public Schools, was concerned that the statutory language referred to in the Rule I definition of "school" (excluding home schools as defined in Section 20-5-102(f), MCA) was confusing enough to allow the interpretation that non-public schools were also excluded from the definition.
- No change was made in the rule's definition of "school" because Section 20-5-102(f), containing, as it does, separate definitions for "home school" and "non-public school", is clear enough to prevent the confusion Mr. Griffith was concerned about.
- RULE II: (a) Gary Criffith, of the Bozeman schools, objected to having to include solid waste storage facility location and details in preconstruction review plans (Rule II(1)(h)) if such facilities are owned by a contractor separate from the school.

No change was made because it is important from a public health point of view to assure that the proposed facility is served by an adequate solid waste facility, whether or not it is under the school's control.

(b) Mr. Griffith also pointed out that Rule $\mathrm{II}(1)(i)$ would appear to preclude construction of a new school which did not have access to a DHES-approved landfill, even though the school had been through a protracted design and planning process.

The department conceded that lack of an approved landfill could prevent the final approval of construction of a school, but did not make a change in the rule because access to a proper landfill is vital to protection of public health.

(c) Michael Radke, codes analyst for CTA Architects Engineers in Billings, felt that a 60-day plan review period was too long, and suggested 22 working days as more appropriate.

No change was made because, given current staffing levels, case load, and departmental experience with similar programs as well as this one, the department may be unable in many cases to conclude review within 22 working days, though it will endeavor to do so.

RULE III: (a) Mr. Griffith asked that the reference to "existing building" in Rule II(1) be modified to indicate that the phrase was not intended to cover buildings already and currently operated as schools.

The requested modifying clause was already added in the July 11, 1985, notice.

(b) The deadline date in Rule III(2) for compliance by an existing school with these modified rules was changed by the department from December 31, 1986, to December 31, 1987, because of the extended review period and delayed adoption of the rules.

RULE V: Mr. Gemmer, administrator of the Community Chapel and Bible Training Center, noted problems which could be caused if prior notice of inspections were not given, particularly to church-related schools.

The rule itself does not specify that the inspection be unannounced or announced, and the department felt it appropriate to leave the issue of whether to give prior notice to the local health officials who will be doing the inspections.

RULE VI: Craig Brewington and Dr. Dale Zorn, superintendents of, respectively, the Fort Benton and Shelby Public Schools, both requested that an exception to Rule VI(1)(b) be allowed for nonabsorbent, nonskid matting in slick areas, such as showers and locker rooms, and that Rule VI(1)(c) be deleted entirely on grounds that moving lockers, library shelves, etc. for cleaning was prohibitive.

The department agreed and acceded to both requests.

RULE VII: (a) Superintendents Brewington and Zorn, as well as Superintendent George Knierim of the Roy Public Schools, objected to Rule VII(3)'s requirement that the temperature of water supplied to handsinks and showers not exceed 120°, while laundry facilities would have to be supplied with water no less than 130° in temperature (Rule XIII), requiring many schools to purchase auxiliary water heaters or temperature boosters.

On the basis of evidence at hand concerning, particularly, the dangers of scalding associated with higher hand washing and bathing water temperatures, the 120° standard was retained, but the minimum temperature for laundries was lowered to 120° .

(b) Sonny Hanson, President of Energy Conservation Consultants, Billings, submitted a letter in December criticizing adoption in the standards relating to hotels, motels, etc., of a minimum-maximum temperature for handsink and bathing water temperature of 100°-120°, on grounds that such low temperatures could foster development of the organism causing Legionnaire's disease; the information he submitted from a plumbing/supply manufacturer indicated that the Veteran's Administration recommended setting hot water storage tanks at 160°.

While Mr. Hanson's comment was not directed, strictly speaking, at these rules, it is relevant to them and was considered. A check of all available information concerning the relationship of water temperature to the spread of Legionnaire's disease was inclusive and insufficient to establish a probable link. In addition, a storage tank temperature of 160° would require installation of mixing valves at additional cost to schools. Therefore, the department did not adopt a high minimum and higher maximum temperature at this time, though it will continue to examine all available evidence to determine if the temperature should be changed in the future.

(c) Keith Rupert, Director of CTA Architects Engineers (Billings), suggested there was no need for master electric cutoff switches for any and all electrical instructional equipment (Rule VII(5)).

The department agreed and restricted the switch requirement to equipment representing a significant safety hazard, such as shop equipment.

(d) George Knierim of the Roy schools objected to Rule VII(6) on grounds it did not precisely state what site conditions would constitute "unreasonable or unnecessary dangers to health or safety".

The department made no change because it felt the standard would be consistently interpreted by most people and because site conditions and on-site "objects" were so variable that to define what was dangerous in each case was impractical and next to impossible.

(e) Superintendents Brewington and Zorn were concerned that Rule VII(7) would require costly resurfacing on the part of many schools, particularly those with paved or concrete playground areas.

the department limited the provision's In response, effect so that drainage need be sufficient only to eliminate the accumulation of large areas of standing water.

(f) Mr. Brewington and Dr. Zorn also objected to the Rule VII(8) requirement that all playground equipment be kept "clean", since they were uncertain how to keep ropes, tires, swings, etc., clean enough to satisfy the standard. The department accepted the recommendation and deleted the requirement that such equipment be kept "clean".

RULE VIII: (a) Beverly Moog, R.N., school nurse in Havre, suggested that Rule VIII(2) be altered to allow saninurse in tary napkins to be supplied to students by means other than mechanical dispensers, noting that in one school the napkins were supplied free by the school nurse.

The department agreed and added language allowing alternatives.

Ms. Moog requested a minimum standard be set for the (b) emergency coverage during school-sponsored activities required by Rule VIII(4)(c).

In response, the department added the requirement that a

Red Cross-certified individual be present.

(c) In regard to Rule VIII(5), Ms. Moog wanted it clarified where no-smoking signs were to be located and whether smoking was banned even when children were not present. Mr. Brewington, Dr. Zorn, and George Knierim wanted the no-smoking provision to be deleted entirely and to rely instead on other existing law (presumable the Indoor Clean Air Act, Title 50, Chapter 40, MCA), apparently out of concern for its effect on the general public during ballgames, etc.

The department declined to eliminate the provision completely, since second-hand smoke is a major public health problem, children in particular are vulnerable to its effects, and the Indoor Clean Air Act is a fairly weak tool to use to control its effects. The requested clarifying language was added, however, and its application was limited to regular school hours and, in the case of school vehicles, to times when children use them for school-related purposes.

(d) Ms. Moog requested the addition of guidelines for the administration of medications in the school.

The department decided not to do so at this time because the issue is complex and controversial, a relevant policy is currently being worked out between DHES and the Office of Public Instruction, and guidelines for schools to use are available from the department.

(e) Mr. Griffith of the Bozeman schools objected to making school employees responsible for identifying illnesses in children (Rule VIII(3)) and notifying parents/guardians and the local health authority if symptoms occurred.

The provision requiring notification of the local health authority had already been deleted in the July notice. The remaining language requires only a common sense response to obvious illness; therefore, the department did not agree the responsibility placed on school officials was unreasonable and retained the language.

(f) The Montana Association of School Nurses requested that the health screening recommended by Rule VIII(7) be made mandatory (except for nutritional screening) and that dental screening be added to the list. George Knierim felt the screening was beyond the scope of school responsibility and expressed concern that the recommendations would gradually become regarded as mandatory. Mr. Brewington and Dr. Zorn wanted (7)(a) deleted because of ambiguity concerning who would be "appropriately qualified" to do the assessment and concerns about liability for any misdiagnosis.

The department added dental screening to the list of recommendations and more precisely defined those considered to be "appropriately qualified personnel", but did not make screening mandatory because it does not believe it has the statutory authority to do so. Since the screenings are not mandatory, the liability issue will have to be assessed by each school district deciding to implement such a program.

RULE IX: (a) Mr. Brewington and Dr. Zorn did not feel 100 footcandles were needed in all areas where students used equipment, such as typing rooms. Mr. Griffith objected to the reliance on footcandles and failure to consider factors such as color brightness and reflective values. Mr. Knierim was concerned that use of fluorescents to give 100 footcandles in shop areas could "strobe stop" some machines.

Because there is no general authoritative agreement about how best to handle lighting or what level is required to prevent eye strain, and because enforcement of standards similar to those proposed by Mr. Griffith (and contained in current ARM 16.10.1104) has proved beyond the expertise of most sanitarians, the rule is made advisory only, for the time being. Standards currently being developed nationally and in other states will continue to be examined and revised; mandatory lighting standards may be adopted in the future.

RULE X: Mr. Brewington and Dr. Zorn recommended locker rooms and showers be heated only to 70° F at four feet from the floor in order to save energy and because heat from showers would naturally increase the temperature to a comfortable level. Mr. Griffith also requested reinstatement of standards limiting heating system noise, drafts, and surface temperatures, currently contained in ARM 16.10.1105 but not in these proposed rules.

Because there remains a great deal of dispute among commentators and authorities about what heating standards are appropriate, and because the standards referred to by Mr. Griffith are considered more appropriately the responsibility of building code inspectors rather than the sanitarians who enforce these rules, this rule will be advisory only, for the time being. As with the lighting rule, other standards being developed throughout the U.S. will be monitored, and the department intends to adopt a mandatory standard in the future, after careful examination of the currently developing body of knowledge.

RULE XIII: (a) Mr. Brewington and Dr. Zorn interpreted Rule XIII(1)(c) to require separate rooms for handling clean and dirty laundry, and requested that it be deleted as unnecessary.

Since the provision was not intended to require separate rooms, it was amended to clarify the fact.

(b) Because of the comments made regarding water temperature, already referred to above (see comment (a) for Rule VII), the temperature for water supplied to washing machines was reduced to 120° F.

RULE XIV: (a) Gary Griffith requested clarification that Rule XIV(1)(a) requires daily cleaning only while the school is being used.

The suggestion was accepted and clarifying language added.

George Knierim felt Rule XIV(1)(c) unnecessarily required the laundering of new, unused mop heads.

Since such was not the intent of the provision, it was clarified to prevent misinterpretation.

(c) Mr. Brewington and Dr. Zorn requested Rule XIV(1)(h) altered to allow use of dry dust mops on gym floors to allow cleaning during games, etc., without rendering the floor dangerously slippery.

The department agreed and made the change.

(d) Mr. Brewington and Dr. Zorn also requested deletion of the subsection (1)(k) requirement that whirlpools be drained and disinfected between uses, because of the cost of hiring an attendant, and suggested substitution of a prohibition against whirlpool use by anyone with an infection or open sore.

The department agreed the change would sufficiently protect public health and made it.

RULE XVI: Mr. Brewington and Dr. Zorn objected to Rule XVI's requirements because of the great variety in containers, some of which are city containers and not amenable to being placed on stands.

The department made changes in the rule designed to deal with those problems, while protecting public health.

RULE XVII: (a) Mr. Knierim was concerned that the rule's requirement to control weeds might threaten children's health because of the hazardous nature of the chemicals likely to be used for the purpose.

The department made no changes because following label directions carefully should minimize any hazard, and alternative methods of control, such as cutting or digging, are available.

(b) Mr. Brewington and Dr. Zorn felt storage of lumber, etc., only one foot above ground would not prevent animals from accessing it, and suggested requiring only that it be stored "in a safe manner".

The language was not changed because it was felt adequate to prevent rodents from nesting under the stored materials.

(c) A representative of Glacier County requested addition of a standard requiring the local governing authority to keep school grounds free of roaming animals.

The department did not do so on grounds the only effective means of keeping animals away would be by fencing the school site, which the degree of the animal problem did not justify.

MISCELLANEOUS: (a) Mr. Griffith of the Bozeman schools objected to the deletion of standards for playgrounds -- e.g., cover material, minimum size, sidewalks for foot traffic, etc. -- on grounds that such standards could alleviate injuries and facilitate cleanliness in the playground and building areas.

While Mr. Griffith's reasoning is valid, his were the only comments of this nature received. The department proposes to take the comments under advisement and to consider future amendments to include such standards if additional research indicates it would appropriate to do so.

(b) Mr. Griffith also objected to deletion of ventilation standards, which are in current rules but not the proposed package.

Because ventilation standards are considered more appropriately the responsibility of those enforcing building codes, rather than sanitarians, and are addressed in the Montana Building Code, the department decided not to include them.

(c) Several persons commented that compliance with the rules will result in a severe financial burden on the schools. Those commenting did not specify which rules they felt would create such a burden.

It is important to note that these proposed rules would replace rules which have been in existence for many years.

Under the proposed rules, many previous requirements are relaxed or eliminated entirely; others are modernized to reflect changes which have taken place over the years. The department does not feel that the few added standards place an undue financial burden on the schools.

(d) Several comments were received which protested the application of these rules to church-related schools (M. W. Gemmer, administrator, Community Chapel and Bible Training Center, Kalispell; Douglas Kelley, Esq.; Dr. Don Niemeir, pastor of the Florence Bible Church; and M. J. Bower of Full Cospel Church in Eureka). Mr. Kelley felt there had been no showing of need for "additional" rules, the cost of compliance was too high, and application of them to church schools was unconstitutional. However, none of the letters specified which particular rules were considered onerous or what provisions would "bankrupt" non-public schools.

As for being a burden on the churches, school rules have been in existence since 1972 and have been applied to both public and non-public schools. These revised rules, in fact, as noted above, in many respects relax the old standards and add new ones only in areas found by experience to be necessary, compliance with which would not appear to cost a great deal of money. As for the constitutional issue, neither the state nor federal constitutions leave churches free from any governmental regulation whatsoever. Mr. Kelley acknowledges that there is a compelling state interest in protecting the health and safety of all of our citizens; Montana has chosen to give special emphasis in that area to protection of school children. Given that point of agreement, the question remains whether the children at church schools may be protected in a less entangling manner than these rules prescribe, short of no regulation at all. It is not apparent where the rules may be so burdensome as to interfere with the free exercise of religion, and the department does not have the authority to refrain from applying the rules to non-public schools, since they are not excepted by the law authorizing the rules. Therefore, the rules as adopted will be considered applicable equally to public and non-public schools.

- (i) In determining whether good cause exists for failure to accept employment or training for employment, a considera-tion of all facts and circumstances will be made including those submitted by the Montana employment security division at the time of the alleged failure.

 (A) "Good cause" includes circumstances beyond the per-
- sor's control, and include but are not limited to:
 - (I) illness of the person;
- illness of another household member sufficiently (II) serious to require the presence of the person;
 - (III) unavailability of transportation; or
 - (IV) unanticipated emergency.

constr: The "unforeseen" requirement in ARM 46.10.318 will be used to deny assistance in situations where past due bills were adding up and result in a utility cut-off or eviction notice. Every winter many people make every effort to pay their heating bills but still receive cut-off notices at the end of the winter moratorium. The situation is foreseeable but is not under the person's control and is unavoidable. This requirement is also unduly restrictive and not in compliance with federal regulation 45 CFR § 233.120.

RESPONSE: Emergency assistance was never contemplated to be available for the payment of routine household bills which, over a period of time, go unpaid. The proposed language is meant only to make clear that failure to pay routine and expected household bills, absent an emergency situation, will not qualify a household for this program. The specific language was adapted from the New York emergency assistance statute and has been upheld in court.

COMMENT: The requirement to exhaust "other resources" is undefined. Are any resources exempt? What resources are reasonably available? These questions can be answered by using the resource definitions under AFDC.

RESPONSE: All liquid resources must be exhausted before the need is covered by AFDC emergency assistance. Non-liquid resource requirements are the same as for regular AFDC assistance.

COMMENT: The two month limitation in ARM 46.10.318 is not reasonable for utility cut-offs. A person will not get a termination notice until after the winter moratorium and that may easily include more than two months of arrearages. Also, utility arrearages are not computed on a monthly basis and LIEAP benefits are paid sporadically thereby making it impossible to compute the two most recent months of arrearages. The limitation is also unduly restrictive and not in compliance with federal regulation 45 CFR § 233.120.

RESPONSE: By payment of two months utilities' service, the Department means that it will pay no more than the total amount of the most recent two months' utilities bill, not including arrearages from former months. Any payment the household is able to make in the most recent month and any LIEAP payments may be applied to arrearages dating from before the two most recent months in order to maximize the emergency assistance payment. To be eligible for such a payment, the household must meet all of the other requirements for emergency assistance.

Payment of two months utility arrearages, particularly if those months are winter months, should alleviate any emergency requiring fuel assistance. Since the LIEAP program also provides necessary fuel assistance to basically the same constituency, the Department believes this limitation on emergency assistance to be appropriate.

COMMENT: The proposed change at ARM 46.10.319(3)(a) regarding a child's eligibility for emergency assistance complies with federal regulation 45 CFR § 233.120.

RESPONSE: No response is necessary.

COMMENT: Time requirements in ARM 46.10.319 are necessary to meet the emergency needs for which the regulation is being promulgated. This is especially true for evictions and cut-offs. If there is a 3-day notice for eviction, a person must pay before the three days are up to prevent the eviction. Cut-off warnings are often short and a person can be charged for having the utilities turned on again. A legal services attorney commented that even with an expedited hearing, he recently had a client who went over thirty days without a refrigerator before the Fair Hearing Decision awarded emergency assistance.

Additionally, it was suggested that the rules should provide that if a client requests a fair hearing, the administrative review will be scheduled to be held within 48 hours.

RESPONSE: The Department has a specific fair hearing process which will remain in effect. However, in consideration of the urgency of some emergency requests, the Department will provide an expedited administrative review for emergency assistance denials specifically requested in writing within five (5) working days of the date of the denial. Expedited administrative reviews will be held within five (5) working days of the date the request is received by the county. Those requests not properly submitted will be processed by standard procedures.

COMMENT: The Coalition proposes an addition to require notice be given by the county office to their clients of the availability of emergency assistance and those services listed in ARM 46.10.318(4)(e). Many people, including social workers, do not know about the availability of emergency assistance. The cost of such notice can be included under Federal Financial Participation for Information, 45 CFR § 233.120(b)(2).

RESPONSE: The Department will develop flyers to post notice of AFDC emergency assistance. Also, notice of the rule change and revised policy manual material will be distributed to social services staff.

CCMMENT: Emergency assistance should pay utilities for those households who have paid at least 20% of their income toward monthly utility costs.

RESPONSE: The Department has considered this suggestion and has decided not to implement it for several reasons. First, the LIEAP program is specifically designed to provide emergency assistance to needy households, including AFDC families. Second, under the proposed rule, households eligible for emergency assistance are entitled to have up to two months of arrearages paid. This payment, if for winter months, could easily constitute over 20% of the household's yearly utility bill. Third, in order to implement the 20% suggestion, the Department would have to average costs and income over a fairly lengthy period of time, i.e., six months or a year. The documentation of income, fuel costs and household size from month to month would be time-consuming and inexact. The Department believes this suggestion to be administratively impractical for these reasons.

COMMENT: Emergency assistance should meet the emergency needs resulting from participation in a strike.

RESPONSE: Federal regulations at 45 CFP § 233.106 mandate that a state plan under Title IV-A of the Social Security Act must provide that participation in a strike shall not constitute good cause to leave, or to refuse to seek or accept employment. Since the state's emergency assistance program is part of the state's IV-A plan, participation in a strike is not an acceptable emergency under federal law.

COMMENT: The proposed rules should eliminate the language in rule 46.10.318(1)(a) "...which has caused or threatens to cause the destitution of the child and/or the household."

RESPONSE: This language is required by federal regulation (42 CFR 233.120(b)) for federal financial participation.

COMMENT: The rules should require that the county office approve or give reason for disapproval of an application submitted to the county office by day's end.

RESPONSE: This would be impractical to administer. In some instances, the county office might not be able to actually interview the applicant on the same day the application form is submitted. Also, even if the applicant is interviewed the same day the application form is submitted, the county office may need additional information or verification that the applicant might not be able to provide by day's end. Another possibility is that the county office may need more time to process the application and further research ways to best meet the needs of the applicant. As required by the rule, priority will be given to these applications.

COMMENT: An attorney from legislative council questioned whether the proposed amendment at ARM 46.10.318(4)(f) should state "...cash payments shall not be paid directly to the recipients unless there is a protective payee."

RESPONSE: No. Cash payments in subsection (f) are specifically distinguished from shelter and utility payments which are made to vendors under subsection (c). Cash payments for AFDC emergency assistance shall be paid directly to the recipient unless there is a protective payee.

Robert M. McCarthy Butte-Silver Bow County Attorney Butte-Silver Bow County Courthouse Butte MT 59701

Dear Mr. McCarthy:

I am writing in response to your request for an opinion regarding:

Whether the provisions of the Uniform Accident Reporting Act, §§ 61-7-101 to 118, MCA, apply "upon highways and elsewhere throughout the state" as provided in section 61-7-102, MCA, or only upon "ways of this state open to the public" as provided in section 61-8-101, MCA.

The Uniform Accident Reporting Act, Tit. 61, ch. 7, pt. 1, MCA, requires the reporting of accidents, establishes a duty to give information and render aid, and provides a penalty for failure to do so. Section 61-7-102, MCA, states: "The provisions of this part [the Uniform Accident Reporting Act] shall apply upon highways and elsewhere throughout the state." (Emphasis added.)

Section 61-8-101, MCA, concerns the application of Title 61, chapter 8, the statutes on traffic regulation, and provides in part:

(1) As used in this chapter, "ways of this state open to the public" means any highway, road, alley, lane, parking area, or other public or private place adapted and fitted for public travel that is in common use by the public. [Emphasis added.]

By its very definition, the use of the term "ways of this state open to the public" is limited to Title 61, chapter 8, MCA.

Where the language of a statute is plain, unambiguous, direct and certain, the statute speaks for itself and there is nothing left to construe. Dunphy v. Anaconda Co., 151 Mont. 76, 438 P.2d 660 (1968). Section 61-7-102, MCA, expressly applies to the Uniform Accident Reporting Act, Tit. 61, ch. 7, pt. 1, MCA. Section 61-8-101, MCA, expressly applies only to Title 61, chapter 8, MCA.

Thus, a driver who commits an offense set forth in the Uniform Accident Reporting Act, Tit. 61, ch. 7, pt. 1, MCA, may be cited for the offense as long as it occurs upon a highway or "elsewhere throughout the state," and the application of the Uniform Accident Reporting Act is unaffected by section 61-8-102, MCA.

THEREFORE, IT IS MY OPINION:

The provisions of the Uniform Accident Reporting Act, Tit. 61, ch. 7, pt. 1, MCA, apply upon highways and elsewhere throughout the state, and the application of the Act is unaffected by section 61-8-101, MCA.

ELECTIONS - Nonpartisan election ballot; ELECTIONS - Qualifications for candidacy; SECRETARY OF STATE - Certification of candidates on the ballot; MONTANA CODE ANNOTATED - Sections 13-12-201; MONTANA CONSTITUTION - Article VII, section 9(1).

HELD: The Secretary of State should not certify to election administrators for the primary election ballot the name of an individual who cannot possibly meet the eligibility requirements for the office of Supreme Court Justice.

21 March 1986

Mike McGrath Lewis and Clark County Attorney Lewis and Clark County Courthouse Helena MT 59623

Dear Mr. McGrath:

You have asked my opinion on the following question:

Is the clerk and recorder required to place on the ballot the name of a person obviously not legally qualified for the office of Supreme Court Justice?

The circumstances which give rise to your question are as follows: On February 20, 1986, an individual filed with the Secretary of State a declaration for nomination to the office of Supreme Court Justice; the declaration was a notarized statement that the declarant possessed the qualifications prescribed by the Montana Constitution and laws for the office of Supreme Court Justice; the declarant subsequently admitted in public, as described in various newspaper articles, that he, in fact, had no formal legal training and had not been admitted to the practice of law in Montana; on March 13, 1986, this individual was held in contempt of court in Kalispell for practicing law without a license. In addition, the Clerk of the Montana Supreme Court has certified that the declarant is not listed in the roll of attorneys licensed to practice law in the State of Montana, nor has he been issued a certificate or license to practice law here.

In light of the above-mentioned circumstances, you ask whether the declarant's name should appear on the ballot for Supreme Court Justice. Under section 13-12-201, MCA, the Secretary of State may certify to election administrators the name of each candidate "entitled to appear on the ballot." Underlying your inquiry is the question of whether the Secretary of State should certify the declarant's name to the state's election administrators.

Article VII, section 9(1) of the Montana Constitution requires that a citizen be admitted to the practice of law in Montana for at least five years prior to the date of election in order to be eligible to the office of Supreme Court Justice. Under the situation described above, the declarant does not presently possess the qualifications necessary to hold the office of Supreme Court Justice nor can he possibly acquire them by the date on which the election is held, as is required by the Montana Constitution. Thus, regardless of the declarant's actions or the mere passage of time, he will be ineligible to hold the office of Supreme Court Justice for the term which begins in January 1987.

One who is ineligible to hold a public office has no right to be a candidate for election thereto, since his election would be a nullity. Jenness v. Clark, 129 N.W. 357, 358 (N.D. 1910). To permit the candidacy and perhaps the election of one who is not qualified to hold the office he seeks would frustrate the democratic process represented by the state's electoral system. It could result in the unwarranted expenditure of funds both on behalf of such a candidate's campaign and for the purpose of holding an election for such a candidate. State ex rel. Willis v. Larson, 539 P.2d 352, 355 (Wyo. 1975). Moreover, it could mislead electors to waste their votes on a candidate who could not hold office.

The courts of some jurisdictions have permitted election officials to refuse declarations for nomination only if the election official can determine, from the face of the declaration, whether a declarant is ineligible to hold the office he seeks. See, for example, Fischnaller v. Thurston County, 584 p.2d 483 (Wash. 1978); County Election Board v. Robinson, 352 p.2d 920 (Okla. 1960). However, the form of declaration used for candidates for Montana Supreme Court Justice does not require that a declarant list the specific qualifications for that office. Rather, the form of the declaration for nomination contains a general statement that the declarant possesses "the qualifications prescribed by the Constitution and laws of the State of Montana for the office herein named." Thus, if a candidate has not been admitted to the practice of law for five years prior to the date of the election, his failure to meet this constitutional requirement to hold the office of Supreme Court Justice will not appear on the face of the declaration for nomination. Under the decision in Fischnaller, supra, the Secretary of State could not refuse the declarant's filing of his nomination form.

Fischnaller, however, does not address the situation where, as here, a candidate's ineligibility becomes clear subsequent to his filing for nomination. In addition, Montana case law does not interpret an election official's responsibilities as narrowly as did the Washington court in Fischnaller, supra. Mahoney v. Murray, 159 Mont. 176, 496 P.2d 1120 (1972), involved a delegate to the Constitutional Convention who attempted to file a declaration of nomination for the office of state treasurer. The Montana Constitution prohibited the state treasurer from holding any other public office. Because the position of delegate to the Constitutional Convention was considered to be a "public office," the Secretary of State refused to accept Mahoney's declaration of nomination. The Montana Supreme Court held that Mahoney's membership in the Constitutional Convention had not terminated and that because Mahoney was prohibited by the Constitution from holding both the office of state treasurer and that of constitutional convention delegate, the Secretary of State "was correct in refusing to file the declaration for nomination, and the petition for a writ of mandamus [was] denied." 496 P.2d at 1127.

In light of the holding in Mahoney, supra, and the general policy in favor of preventing candidacies of individuals who are ineligible to hold the office they seek, I conclude that the name of an individual who has admitted subsequent to his declaration of nomination that he does not meet the legal requirements for holding the office he seeks should not be placed on the primary election ballot.

THEREFORE, IT IS MY OPINION:

The Secretary of State should not certify to election administrators for the primary election ballot the name of an individual who cannot possibly meet the eligibility requirements for the office of Supreme Court Justice.

Very truly yours,

MIKE GREELY Attorney General

LOCAL GOVERNMENT STUDY COMMISSIONS - Requirement that a recommendation be made in commission's final report; MONTANA CODE ANNOTATED - Sections 7-3-103, 7-3-171 to 7-3-193;

A local government study commission may not have an alternative form of local government placed on the ballot unless the study commission recommends adoption of the alternative plan.

21 March 1986

Mike Salvagni Gallatin County Attorney Law and Justice Center 615 South 16th Street Bozeman MT 59715

Dear Mr. Salvagni:

You have requested my opinion on the following question:

May a local government study commission have an alternative form of government placed on the ballot if the study commission does not recommend the adoption of that alternative plan?

In 1979 the Legislature enacted procedures allowing voters to alter their form of local government. In 1983 the Legislature adopted sections 7-3-171 to 193, MCA, which provide the mechanism by which a local government study commission, hereinafter referred to as a study commission, can recommend a change in government and the electors can vote on the study commission's recommendations. A county study commission's recommendations may include any of the actions listed in section 7-3-185(1)(a), MCA, which provides the following:

- Scope of study commission recommendations.
 (1)(a) A study commission examining the government of a county may:
- (i) recommend amendments to the existing plan of government;
- (ii) recommend any plan of government authorized by Title 7, chapter 3, parts 1 through 6;
- (iii) draft a charter;
- (iv) recommend municipal-county consolidation or amendments to an existing consolidation;
- (v) in cooperation with a study commission in an adjoining county, recommend county merger; or
- (vi) submit no recommendation.

Your question has arisen because the local government study commissioners for Gallatin County apparently are considering offering the voters an opportunity to adopt an alternative form of local government, pursuant to section 7-3-185(1)(a)(ii), MCA, without endorsing the alternative as a study commission recommendation. I conclude from an examination of the statutes on local government study commissions that such an action is not authorized by law.

Study commissions are established whenever the electorate votes to conduct local government review, and, in any case, every ten years as required by the Montana Constitution, article XI, section 9(2). § 7-3-173, MCA. Once the members of a study commission are elected they must meet and establish a timetable for their deliberations and actions. § 7-3-186, MCA. Terms of office of study commission members end either 90 days after a vote on the commission recommendations or, if no change is recommended, 30 days after submission of the commission's final report. § 7-3-178(1), MCA. Final reports must be adopted and special elections scheduled if the study commission recommends that changes to the existing form of government be made. § 7-3-186(2)(d), MCA. Supplementary reports may be prepared. § 7-3-190, MCA.

According to the language of section 7-3-187, MCA, which sets forth the requirements for the contents of a study commission's final report, a special election on an alternative form of government is scheduled only if the study commission recommends an alternative. Section 7-3-187, MCA, in pertinent part, states:

- Final report. (1) Every study commission shall adopt a final report. If the study commission recommends an alternative form of government, the final report shall contain the following materials and documents, each signed by a majority of the study commission members:
- (a) those materials and documents required of a petition proposing an alteration of an existing form of government in 7-3-142;
- (b) a certificate establishing the date of the special election, which may be held in conjunction with a regularly scheduled election, at which the alternative form of government shall be presented to the electors and a certificate establishing the form of the ballot question or questions; and
- (c) a certificate establishing the dates of the first primary and general elections for officers of a new government if the proposal is approved and establishing the effective date of the proposal if approved.
- (2) The final report shall contain any minority report signed by members of the commission who do not support the majority proposal.
- (3) If the study commission is not recommending any changes, its final report shall so indicate. [Emphasis added.]

The language of the local government study commission statutes contemplates that a study commission may not wish to recommend any changes to the existing form of government. See, specifically, §§ 7-3-185(1) (a) (vi), 7-3-187(3), MCA. If changes are recommended, an election is to be scheduled pursuant to section 7-3-187(1), MCA. Should voters desire a change in their form of government, despite the fact that their study commission is not so disposed, the voters may propose a change by petition as is permitted in section 7-3-103, MCA.

THEREFORE, IT IS MY OPINION:

A local government study commission may not have an alternative form of local government placed on the ballot unless the study commission recommends adoption of the alternative plan.

Very truly yours
