CASA trains community members to serve as Guardians ad litem (GAL) for kids involved in the foster care system. CASA services reduce the cost placed on the court system by replacing court financed guardians with volunteer community members. Additionally, because each GAL is only assigned one to two cases, CASA's advocates can assist families in attorneys don't always have time to do. Offering parenting classes and supervised visits in Thompson Falls, Plains and Polson.

We are people in the local community willing to volunteer on behalf of children who have a right to be treated fairly. Children who have been abused or neglected should never be overlooked.
