
MONTANA JUDICIAL BRANCH

Pretrial Funding – DP 103

$873,098 in FY26 and $873,247 in FY27

Funded on an OTO basis since 2017

- ☐ The program, established by the 2017 Legislature, requires the use of an evidence-based detention risk assessment and recommendations for managing defendants who are released awaiting trial. The project is designed to maximize public safety, maximize court appearance, and maximize the appropriate use of release and detention.
- ☐ By way of background, the Judicial Branch adopted the Arnold Foundation's Public Safety Assessment. The PSA is a tool to analyze each defendant's current and prior criminal conduct and previous failure to appear in court. The research-based factors, including a focus on violent offenses, provides a judge with additional information about whether a defendant can be successful in the community while awaiting trial.
- ☐ The project is currently deployed in seven counties (50% of the District Court caseload) - Lewis and Clark, Butte Silver Bow, Lake, Missoula, Yellowstone County, Cascade, and Big Horn Counties. PSAs are conducted by staff FTE in the OCA and available to each court in time for initial appearances.
- ☐ The five original pilot counties receive the bulk of the funding to support local pretrial services. Seventy percent of the funding ($615,000 each year) is distributed to the five pilot counties based on a formula using crime statistics.
- ☐ Counties involved in the project receive funding to assist defendants awaiting trial to remain law-abiding, at work, and participating in necessary support services. Pretrial services give Judges the tools necessary to release defendants while maximizing public safety and ensuring defendants appear in court.
- ☐ Montana's PSA and pretrial release guide was developed by a MT team of prosecutors, public defenders, court officials and law enforcement personnel.
- ☐ The program, which has been funded OTO since 2017, has extensive performance measures, which are routinely updated and available on the Branch's website: Montana Judicial Branch Pretrial Program.
