Finally, the information contained in this document is not guaranteed to be up to date. The information cannot replace the advice of competent legal counsel licensed in your state.

What is the Process?

NOTE: The steps for filing a Joint Petition for Parenting Plan may be slightly different in your judicial district. Always check with the Clerk of District Court in your district to make sure that you are following the right procedures.

Need Privacy?

Unless you ask the Court to protect information, everything filed with the court may be viewed by the public. Separate forms may be filed to protect information in your case files from being available for public view. These forms are available in the Privacy Protection Packet, available at www.courts.mt.gov "Forms," at www.MontanaLawHelp.org, or by calling or visiting your local Self Help Law Center.

NEED HELP? Resources are available to assist you in filling out these forms.

The Court Help Program. The Court Help Program provides assistance to people representing themselves in court. There are Self Help Law Centers located throughout the state to assist you on a walk-in basis and travelling appointments to other courthouses. Self Help staff are not lawyers and cannot provide legal advice. Self Help staff members are well informed about the court process and can answer many questions as well as review your forms for completeness. Find the Court Help services nearest you: www.courts.mt.gov/selfhelp.

Montana Legal Services Association. Montana Legal Services Association coordinates volunteer attorney legal resources at a free or reduced cost. If you qualify financially for assistance, Montana Legal Services may connect you with a pro bono attorney, an attorney at a reduced fee, or local attorney resources in your area. Visit www.montanalawhelp.org or www.mtlsa.org, or call MLSA at 1-800-666-6899.

State Bar of Montana. If you are interested in hiring an attorney to advise you or represent you in this matter, the State Bar Lawyer and Information Referral Service is a database of attorneys. You can be connected with attorneys throughout the state to help with your family legal matter. Access the Lawyer Referral and Information Service by visiting www.montanabar.org or calling 1(406)449-6577.

STEP ONE: Fill out the forms you need. Read all of the forms listed in Step Two to determine which forms will be most appropriate for your situation. Fill out these forms completely. Be sure to read "Introduction to Family Law in Montana" before you begin filling out the forms. It will highlight the major decisions you will have to make.

STEP TWO: File Documents.

Court documents for a Joint Petition for Parenting Plan are filed at the Clerk of District Court office in the county where you, your Spouse, or your children are living. After filling out the appropriate forms, make three sets of copies (four sets of forms total) of the forms that start your case. Take all of the copies with you to the Clerk of District Court office.

The original set of forms will be kept by the Clerk of Court. One copy you will keep in a safe place, and you will serve the other two copies on your Spouse and the Department of Health and Human Services in Step Three.

Here is a list of the forms you need to bring to the Clerk of District Court to file a Joint Petition for Parenting Plan:

1. Joint Petition for Parenting Plan MP 117
2. Proposed Parenting Plan MP 300
3. (If required) Holiday, Vacation and Special Occasions MP 300 B
4. (If required) Limited Parenting Time MP 300 C
5. (If required) Description of Existing Medical Coverage MP 300 D
6. (If required) Notice to a Person Not Named MP 407
7. Vital Statistics form. You can find this form in the back of the packet or online at dphhs.mt.gov/CSED. File this form with the Clerk of Court when you file your other paperwork.

There is a charge for filing a Joint Petition for Parenting Plan in Montana. If you cannot afford to pay the fee, you may fill out a form titled "Affidavit of Inability to Pay Filing Fee," available at www.courts.mt.gov and at www.MontanaLawHelp.org or by calling or visiting your local Self Help Law Center.

NOTE: If you completed MP 407, You must also mail a copy of the MP 407 to each person listed on the form

STEP THREE: Serve the Department of Health and Human Services.

A. Serving the Department of Health and Human Services.

If you or the other parent receives Title IV-D services, you must serve the Department of Health and Human Services (DPHHS) by mailing or delivering to your nearest Child Support and Enforcement Division (CSED) the following:

1. Notice and Acknowledgement to CSED and Attorney General MP 404

AND copies of the following document that you filed with the Court in Step One:

2. Joint Petition for Parenting Plan MP 117
3. Proposed Parenting Plan MP 300
4. (If required) Holiday, Vacation and Special Occasions MP 300 B
5. (If required) Limited Parenting Time MP 300 C
6. (If required) Description of Existing Medical Coverage MP 300 D

Follow these steps:

Complete the first 3 pages of MP 404 with your own information.

On page 4, fill out the top portion with the Judicial District, County, names of the parties, and the case number. Also fill in the address for the Clerk of Court on the last page.

When mailing MP 404 Notice and Acknowledgement to CSED, include a stamped envelope addressed to the Clerk of Court in your county so it can be mailed back to them.

STEP FOUR: Request a final hearing.

Once you have filed your documents and served the Child Support Enforcement Division, you can request a hearing to finalize your Parenting Plan. You will now file the following forms at the Clerk of District Court:

1. Request for a Hearing on Parenting Plan MP 721
2. Order Granting Hearing on Parenting Plan MP 722
3. Optional: Consent to Entry of Parenting Plan MP 731 (use this form if the other parent can't go to the hearing)

STEP FIVE: Attend your final hearing.

Attending your hearing is very important. Both parents should attend the hearing. If the other parent can't go to the hearing, the other parent will need to complete and sign form MP 731, Consent to Entry of Parenting Plan. This form lets the judge enter a parenting plan without the other parent being present at the hearing.

The Judge will ask you questions about your parenting plan and your children. This is the time for the Judge to make a decision on your parenting plan. After the Judge has made a decision, the Judge will sign the Parenting Plan MP 300 that the Court considers fair and in the best interest of your children. You should take a copy of MP 300 with you to your hearing that you have filled out for the judge.

Keep your copy of the final, court ordered, parenting plan in a safe place. As needed, you can make copies of your final Parenting Plan for day care providers, schools, and law enforcement.

INSTRUCTIONS

Order Information: Check the box that most accurately describes the type of order being entered. If it is a dissolution of marriage, enter the place of marriage and indicate if child support is ordered. Temporary support orders and paternity orders that contain child support are categorized as “child support order, without dissolution.” “Child support order” includes medical support orders. If the order does not contain a child support order, social security numbers of the parties are not required and only Parts 1, 2 and 9 need to be completed.

Parts 1 and 2: Provide information about the parties to the order. If there is a child support order, be sure to check the box that shows whether the party owes support (payer) or will receive support (payee). If a party is ordered to both pay and receive support, check the box labeled “both.” If there is no support order, check the box labeled “N/A” for not applicable. If a party is ordered to pay $0 support, that party should be considered a payer.

Part 3: Provide information about the children named in the order and indicate which parent or other party the children live with. If the parenting plan provides for shared residential parenting, circle “B” for both. If a child is not living with either parent, circle “O” and list the child’s name and address.

All orders should have a “begin” date; many will not have an “end” date. If both parties are ordered to pay support, skip Part 7 and complete Part 11 instead.

If the order enters a judgment for past due support, show the total amount of the judgment. If the judgment includes amounts for penalties, fees or interest, list those amounts on the appropriate lines.

List any special conditions of the support order. (Example: support is due until the child graduates from college.)

Copy the information requested about the guidelines to this form from the guidelines worksheet.

Part 8: Provide information about health insurance coverage for the children. If insurance is not provided, indicate whether it is available through the employer of either parent.
